FOREWORD

BY THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE AFRICAN UNION COMMISSION

It is a great pleasure to be writing a foreword for the fourth annual edition of the African Union Handbook. This edition coincides with the end of term for this current commission and, thus, offers us an opportunity to reflect on the strides we have recorded since we took up office in 2012, the Year of Boosting Inter-African Trade, which preceded the Year for Pan Africanism and the African Renaissance.

Since then, as this handbook bears testament to, we have placed our food security agenda firmly in the programmes of our Union and partners. This has, amongst other things, facilitated discussions and actions in relation to our green and blue economies.

Our OAU–AU 50th anniversary commemorations offered us an opportunity to reflect on the gains we have made in relation to Pan Africanism and the African Renaissance. Our Heads of State and Government took the opportunity to lay the foundation for our continent-wide 50-year programme, which allowed Africans to dream of the Africa they foresee over the next 50 years, Agenda 2063: The Africa We Want, which lays a solid foundation for a united, prosperous and peaceful Africa.

Last year, 2016, saw critical milestones across Africa for gender equality and the empowerment of women. It included the 30th anniversary of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights; the second phase of the African Women's Decade 2010–20; the 36th anniversary of the UN Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW); and the 21st anniversary of the 1995 Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action.

For the African Union, 2016 was a special year dedicated to human rights with particular focus on the rights of women. It was also the second consecutive year that gender equality and women's empowerment was adopted as the highest priority on the continental agenda. One of our many achievements was the Executive Council's formal decision in January 2016 to ensure that the voices of both women and men are equally represented in all AU organs.

Our theme for 2017 is Harnessing Demographic Dividend through Investments in the Youth. This is another particularly significant theme. The future of our continent, our unity, our hopes and aspirations for the peaceful and prosperous Africa we want, rests in the hands of our young people.

The strides we have made towards our vision of “an integrated, prosperous and peaceful Africa, driven by its own citizens and representing a dynamic force in the global arena” could not have been possible without partners such as the Government of New Zealand, which continues to support the production of this important record of our work. The documentation of our work is important because it is an instrument by which the people whom we serve can hold us accountable whilst also providing guidance to our work.

FOREWORD

BY THE NEW ZEALAND MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Welcome to the 2017 edition of the African Union Handbook. The Handbook, now in its fourth edition, is produced in partnership with the African Union Commission. Modelled on the long-standing United Nations Handbook, this Handbook offers a factual guide to the structure and role of the African Union, which we hope you will find useful.

For the past two years, New Zealand has served as an elected member of the United Nations Security Council. During this time, we have had the privilege of working alongside the African Union Commission and African Member States to help address regional peace and security issues. As we conclude our time on the United Nations Security Council, I would like to take the opportunity to thank all our partners for the strong support and advice over this period.

In New Zealand's view, close cooperation between the United Nations and the African Union will be increasingly important as global and regional challenges become ever more complex. From our position on the United Nations Security Council, we have seen how African Member States have taken the lead in tackling conflicts across the African continent, often at great cost and sacrifice. We salute the leadership offered by the African Union and African troop contributing countries. New Zealand is a strong supporter of efforts to establish long-term, predictable and structured United Nations support for African Union efforts. Neither the United Nations nor the African Union can do this alone, and we believe cooperation in conflict prevention, peace operations and post-conflict recovery is the only way forward.

This is the final foreword I will share with outgoing Chairperson of the African Union Commission, HE Dr Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma. I would like to thank and congratulate her for her work, particularly on women's empowerment, which has been the flagship of her chairpersonship. I also wish the incoming Chair and Commissioners the very best in their new roles.

This Handbook is a small part of our continued commitment to the African Union and all its Member States to support their work towards peace, prosperity and integration.

Our very best wishes for 2017 and beyond.

Hon Murray McCully

WHAT THIS BOOK DOES

This Handbook is published by the African Union Commission (AUC) in partnership with the New Zealand Government, publisher of the annual United Nations Handbook for more than 50 years. Modelled on the United Nations Handbook, it is intended as a ready reference guide for people working in all parts of the AU system (Member States, government officials, Commission and other staff) as well as the AU's many partners and wider civil society.

The book has at its heart information about the principal organs established by the AU Constitutive Act and subsequent protocols: the Assembly; Executive Council; Permanent Representatives Committee; Specialised Technical Committees; Peace and Security Council; AUC; Pan-African Parliament; Economic, Social and Cultural Council; and judicial, human rights, legal and financial institutions. It also contains information about the specialised agencies and structures, as well as regional and other arrangements, including the Regional Economic Communities, which are the pillars of the AU and work closely with its institutions. Non-governmental organisations, inter-governmental organisations and political groups are not included, except where they have a formal agreement with the AU.

The Handbook focuses on the AU's current structures and organs, including those in the process of becoming operational. As many of the AU structures and organs are directly inherited from its predecessor, the Organization of African Unity (OAU), key details about the original OAU structures and transition to the AU are included where possible.

The information in this book is intended to be accurate as at 1 September 2016, unless otherwise stated. All money values are in US dollars, unless otherwise stated.

Internet, email and postal/physical addresses are included where possible, along with telephone and fax numbers. The primary contact details for AU Headquarters are:

PO Box 3243	Tel: +251 11 551 7700
Roosevelt Street (Old Airport Area)	Fax: +251 11 551 7844

The Handbook project has been based in the Directorate of Information and Communications in the African Union Commission.

The publishers are indebted to the AU Member States, Commission staff and others from the many subsidiary and partner institutions who provided considerable assistance to ensure this book is as up to date and comprehensive as possible.

INTRODUCTION

The African Union (AU) was officially launched in July 2002 in Durban, South Africa, following a decision in September 1999 by its predecessor, the Organization of African Unity (OAU), to create a new continental organisation to build on its work.

Vision

The AU vision is: An integrated, prosperous and peaceful Africa, driven by its own citizens and representing a dynamic force in the global arena. Agenda 2063, officially adopted by the AU Assembly in 2015, provides a new collective vision and roadmap to build a prosperous and united Africa based on shared values and a common destiny.

Objectives

Under article 3 of the Constitutive Act of the African Union 2000 and the Protocol to the Act 2003, the Union's objectives are to:

- Achieve greater unity and solidarity between African countries and the peoples of Africa
- Defend the sovereignty, territorial integrity and independence of its Member States
- Accelerate the political and socio-economic integration of the continent
- Promote and defend African common positions on issues of interest to the continent and its peoples
- Encourage international cooperation, taking due account of the United Nations Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights
- Promote peace, security and stability on the continent
- Promote democratic principles and institutions, popular participation and good governance
- Promote and protect human and peoples' rights in accordance with the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights and other relevant human rights instruments
- Ensure the effective participation of women in decision-making, particularly in the political, economic and socio-cultural areas
- Establish the necessary conditions that enable the continent to play its rightful role in the global economy and in international negotiations
- Promote sustainable development at the economic, social and cultural levels as well as the integration of African economies
- Promote cooperation in all fields of human activity to raise the living standards of African peoples
- Coordinate and harmonise policies between the existing and future Regional Economic Communities for the gradual attainment of the objectives of the Union
- Advance the development of the continent by promoting research in all fields, in particular, in science and technology
- Work with relevant international partners in the eradication of preventable diseases and the promotion of good health on the continent
- Develop and promote common policies on trade, defence and foreign relations to ensure the defence of the continent and the strengthening of its negotiating positions
- Invite and encourage the full participation of the African Diaspora, as an important part of the continent, in the building of the Union.

History

The OAU was formed in 1963 by the 32 African states that had achieved independence at the time. A further 21 members joined gradually, reaching a total of 53 by the time of the AU's launch in 2002.¹ All joined the new organisation, whose headquarters remained in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. In 2011, South Sudan became the 54th Member State.

The OAU's main objectives were to: promote the unity and solidarity of African states; coordinate and intensify their cooperation and efforts to achieve a better life for the peoples of Africa; safeguard the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Member States; rid the continent of colonisation and apartheid; promote international cooperation within the United Nations framework; and harmonise members' political, diplomatic, economic, educational, cultural, health, welfare, scientific, technical and defence policies. The OAU operated on the basis of its Charter and the 1991 Treaty Establishing the African Economic Community (known as the Abuja Treaty).

Through the 1990s, leaders debated the need to amend the OAU's structures to reflect the challenges of a changing world. The creation of the AU shifted focus from supporting liberation from colonialism and apartheid to spear-heading Africa's development and integration. The vision for the Union included accelerating the process of integration in Africa; supporting the empowerment of African states in the global economy; addressing the multifaceted social, economic and political problems facing the continent; and promoting peace, security, stability, democracy, good governance and human rights.

Four summits were held in the lead up to the official launch, the:

- Sirte Summit (1999), which adopted the Sirte Declaration calling for the establishment of the AU
- Lomé Summit (2000), which adopted the AU Constitutive Act
- Lusaka Summit (2001), which drew the roadmap for implementation of the AU
- Durban Summit (2002), which launched the AU and convened its first Assembly of Heads of State and Government.

A significant number of OAU structures were carried forward into the AU, as were all treaties and conventions, and the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD). The AU Constitutive Act and protocols also established a significant number of new structures, both at the level of major organs and through a range of new technical and subsidiary committees. Many of these have evolved since 2002 and some remain under development.

In January 2016, AU Assembly decisions included to revise and review the AU Constitutive Act "for it to be an effective legal instrument to accelerate, facilitate and deepen the efficiency and the integration process on the continent" (Assembly/AU/Dec.597\(XXVI\)).

Symbols

The AU emblem comprises four elements. The palm leaves shooting up on either side of the outer circle stand for peace. The gold circle symbolises Africa's wealth and bright future. The plain map of Africa without boundaries in the inner circle signifies African unity. The small interlocking red rings at the base of the emblem stand for African solidarity and the blood shed for the liberation of Africa.

The current African Union flag was adopted in July 2009 at the Assembly of Heads of State and Government 13th Ordinary Session, held in Sirte, Libya (Assembly/AU/Dec.267\(XIII\)).

The design is a dark-green map of the African continent on a white sun, surrounded by a circle of five-pointed gold (yellow) stars, on a dark-green field. The green background symbolises the hope of Africa, and the stars represent Member States.

Languages

Under article 11 of the Protocol to the AU Constitutive Act, the official languages of the AU and all its institutions are Arabic, English, French, Portuguese, Spanish, Kiswahili and any other African language. The AU's working languages are Arabic, English, French and Portuguese.

Note

- 1 Morocco left the OAU in November 1984. In September 2016, Morocco officially submitted a request to accede to the AU Constitutive Act and become a member of the Union.

Operating structure

The AU's key decision and policy organs are the:

Assembly of Heads of State and Government. The Assembly is the AU's supreme policy and decision-making organ. It comprises all Member State Heads of State and Government.

Executive Council. The Executive Council coordinates and takes decisions on policies in areas of common interest to Member States. It is responsible to the Assembly. It considers issues referred to it and monitors the implementation of policies formulated by the Assembly. The Executive Council is composed of foreign ministers or such other ministers or authorities as are designated by the governments of Member States.

Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC). The Committee is charged with the responsibility of preparing the work of the Executive Council and acting on the Executive Council's instructions. It comprises Permanent Representatives to the Union and other plenipotentiaries of Member States.

Specialised Technical Committees (STCs). Thematic Committees are provided for under the AU Constitutive Act and are responsible to the Executive Council. They comprise Member State ministers or senior officials.

Peace and Security Council (PSC). The PSC is the AU's organ for the prevention, management and resolution of conflicts. It comprises 15 elected Member States.

African Union Commission (AUC). The Commission is the AU's secretariat. It is based in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and composed of an elected chairperson, deputy chairperson and eight commissioners, and staff.

In January 2016, Executive Council decisions included that all AU organs shall, where applicable, have two representatives from each of the five African regions and one floating seat rotating among the regions, and that at least one member of each region shall be a woman (EX.CL/Dec.907\(XXVIII\)Rev.1).

Regional groups

AU Member States are divided into the following five geographic regions. The groups were defined by the OAU in 1976 (CM/Res.464QCXVI).

Central Africa

Burundi	Chad	Equatorial Guinea
Cameroon	Congo	Gabon
Central African Republic	DR Congo	São Tomé and Príncipe

Eastern Africa

Comoros	Madagascar	South Sudan
Djibouti	Mauritius	Sudan
Eritrea	Rwanda	Uganda
Ethiopia	Seychelles	UR of Tanzania
Kenya	Somalia

Northern Africa

Algeria	Libya	Sahrawi Republic
Egypt	Mauritania	Tunisia

Southern Africa

Angola	Mozambique	Zambia
Botswana	Namibia	Zimbabwe
Lesotho	South Africa
Malawi	Swaziland

Western Africa

Benin	Ghana	Niger
Burkina Faso	Guinea	Nigeria
Cabo Verde	Guinea-Bissau	Senegal
Côte d'Ivoire	Liberia	Sierra Leone
Gambia	Mali	Togo

Regional Economic Communities (RECs)

The Regional Economic Communities (RECs) are regional groupings of African states and are the pillars of the AU. All were formed prior to the launch of the AU. The RECs have developed individually and have differing roles and structures. Generally, the purpose of the RECs is to facilitate regional economic integration between members of the individual regions and through the wider African Economic Community (AEC), which was established under the Abuja Treaty (1991). This Treaty, which has been in operation since 1994, ultimately seeks to create an African Common Market using the RECs as building blocks.

The AU recognises eight RECs, the:

- Arab Maghreb Union (UMA)²
- Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA)
- Community of Sahel–Saharan States (CEN–SAD)
- East African Community (EAC)³
- Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS)
- Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS)
- Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD)
- Southern African Development Community (SADC).

Observers

Non-governmental organisations, non-African states, regional integration and international organisations can apply for observer status or accreditation to the AU. The Executive Council adopted the criteria for granting observer status and the system of accreditation in its decision 230\(VII\) of July 2005, as set out in document EX.CL/195(VII) Annex V. See the Partnerships chapter for a list of non-African states and organisations accredited to the AU.

The Assembly recognises representatives of the African Diaspora⁴ to attend Assembly sessions as observers (Assembly/AU/Res.1\(XVIII\), July 2012).

Budget

The AU is funded by contributions from Member States and donors. See the Budget and Scale of Assessment chapter for more information.

Notes

- 2 UMA is not a signatory to the Protocol on Relations between the RECs and the AU.
- 3 In October 2013, on the sidelines of an AU Extraordinary Summit, IGAD and EAC Foreign Ministers decided to explore the possibility of merging these two RECs.
- 4 In January 2008, the Executive Council suggested that the African Diaspora be treated as Africa's sixth region and its participation in the AU's organs and activities be strengthened (EX.CL/Dec.406\(XII\)). The Assembly has recognised the Diaspora as a substantive entity contributing to the economic and social development of the continent and has invited its representatives as observers to Assembly sessions (Assembly/AU/Res.1\(XVIII\)).

Agenda 2063

Agenda 2063 is Africa's endogenous plan for structural transformation and a shared strategic framework for inclusive growth and sustainable development. It is anchored on the AU Constitutive Act, AU vision, AU Assembly 50th Anniversary Solemn Declaration of 2013 and seven African aspirations for 2063, and sets out a national, regional and continental blueprint for progress. Agenda 2063 was adopted by the AU Assembly on 31 January 2015 at its 24th Ordinary Session (Assembly/AU/Dec.565\(XXIV\)). In January 2016, the Assembly reiterated that Agenda 2063 is a common continental framework for socio-economic development (Assembly/AU/Dec.588\(XXVI\)).

The seven aspirations for 2063 are:

- A prosperous Africa based on inclusive growth and sustainable development
- An integrated continent, politically united, based on the ideals of Pan Africanism and the vision of Africa's renaissance
- An Africa of good governance, democracy, respect for human rights, justice and the rule of law
- A peaceful and secure Africa
- An Africa with a strong cultural identity, common heritage, values and ethics
- An Africa whose development is people-driven, relying on the potential of African people, especially its women and youth, and caring for children
- Africa as a strong, united, resilient and influential global player and partner.

Under the First Ten-Year Implementation Plan (FTYIP), 2013–23, Agenda 2063 has 13 fast track or 'flagship' projects:

- Integrated high-speed train network: aims to connect all African capitals and commercial centres
- Pan-African virtual university: designed to accelerate development of human capital, science and technology and innovation
- African commodities strategy: aims to enable African countries to develop a vibrant, socially and environmentally sustainable commodities sector
- Annual African forum: designed to bring together Africa's political leadership, private sector, academia and civil society to discuss Agenda 2063
- Continental Free Trade Area (CFTA) by 2017: aims include to double intra-Africa trade by 2022, strengthen Africa's common voice in global trade negotiations and operationalise the African Investment Bank (2025) and Pan African Stock Exchange; the African Monetary Fund (2023); and the African Central Bank (2028–34)
- African Passport and free movement of people: aims to fast track continental integration by enhancing free movement of all African citizens from all African countries by 2018
- Silencing the guns by 2020: aims to end all wars, conflicts and violations of human rights
- Grand Inga Dam Project: aims to boost Africa's energy production
- Pan-African E-Network: designed to transform e-applications and services in Africa
- African outer space programme: aims to bolster African development in various fields, including agriculture, disaster management, remote sensing, climate forecast, banking and finance, defence and security
- Single African air transport market: aims to deliver a single African air transport market to facilitate air transportation in Africa
- African continental financial institutions: aims to accelerate integration and socio-economic development of the continent. The institutions include the African Central Bank, African Monetary Fund and African Investment Bank
- Great Museum of Africa: the Museum, to be established in Algiers, Algeria, was added to the flagship projects in July 2016.

As of September 2016, progress on the flagship projects included:

- A common passport for Africa was launched symbolically at the AU Assembly Summit in Kigali, Rwanda, in July 2016. AU Heads of State and Government encouraged Member States to adopt the African Passport, and asked the AUC to provide technical support and to put in place a roadmap for the development of a protocol on free movement of people in Africa by January 2018 (Assembly/AU/Dec.607\(XXVII\) of July 2016).
- The Inaugural African Economic Platform is scheduled to be held in Mauritius from 19 to 22 March 2017 (EX.CL/Dec.924\(XXIX\) of July 2016).
- The AU Assembly adopted the African Space Policy and Strategy in January 2016 as the first major step towards an African outer space programme (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)).
- The AU Assembly reaffirmed in July 2016 its decision to fast track establishment of the CFTA, and decided to establish a high-level panel to champion fast tracking of the CFTA (Assembly/AU/Dec.608\(XXVII\)).

AFRICAN UNION HANDBOOK 2017

ASSEMBLY

ASSEMBLY OF HEADS OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT

The Assembly is the African Union's (AU's) supreme organ and comprises Heads of State and Government from all Member States. It determines the AU's policies, establishes its priorities, adopts its annual programme and monitors the implementation of its policies and decisions.

In addition, the Assembly:

- Elects the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of the African Union Commission (AUC)
- Appoints the AUC Commissioners and determines their functions and terms of office
- Admits new members to the AU
- Adopts the AU budget
- Takes decisions on important AU matters
- Amends the Constitutive Act in conformity with the laid down procedures
- Interprets the Constitutive Act (pending the establishment of the African Court of Justice and Human Rights)
- Approves the structure, functions and regulations of the AU Commission
- Determines the structure, functions, powers, composition and organisation of the Executive Council.

The Assembly can create any committee, working group or commission as it deems necessary. It can also delegate its powers and functions to other AU organs, as appropriate.

On peace and security matters, the Assembly delegated its powers to the Peace and Security Council (PSC) when the Council became operational in 2004. The Council was established in 2003 to be the standing decision-making organ for the prevention, management and resolution of conflicts (Protocol on Amendments to the Constitutive Act, article 9). See the PSC chapter for more information.

Provisions governing the Assembly's composition, functions and powers, voting and procedures are contained in articles 6 to 9 of the Constitutive Act and Protocol on Amendments to the Constitutive Act. Section 1, rule 4 of the Assembly Rules of Procedure, as amended in 2007, elaborates on the Assembly's functions and powers.

Evolution

The AU Assembly replaced the Assembly of the Organization of African Unity (OAU). The OAU was established in 1963 and the AU launched in 2002.

Membership

There are 54 Member States. They are listed in the Member States' section of this book, including their date of joining the AU or its predecessor the OAU.

A list of contact details for Permanent Missions of all AU Member States represented in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, can be found at www.au.int/en/member_states/embassies.

Meetings

Article 6 of the AU Constitutive Act provides for the Assembly to meet in ordinary session at least once a year. At its 2004 Summit, the Assembly decided to meet in ordinary session twice a year (Assembly/AU/Dec.53\(III\)). Sessions usually take place in January and June or July. January sessions are usually held at AU Headquarters in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, while June/July sessions may be hosted by a Member State that has applied to do so. Article 6 also provides for the Assembly to meet in extraordinary session on request by a Member State and approved by a two-thirds majority of Member States.

The Assembly adopts its own agenda, which is usually prepared by the Executive Council or includes items decided on at the previous session. The agenda is in two parts: part A includes items that have already been agreed unanimously by the Executive Council and may not require further discussion; and part B includes matters for which no consensus was reached by the Executive Council (Assembly Rules of Procedure, rule 8).

Two-thirds of AU members are required to form a quorum at any Assembly meeting. The Assembly makes decisions by consensus or, where consensus is not possible, by a two-thirds majority vote by Member States (Constitutive Act, article 7). Matters of procedure, including the question of whether a matter is one of procedure or not, are decided by a simple majority.

Assembly Chairpersons and Bureau

The Assembly Chairperson is a Head of State or Government elected by his/her peers at the January Ordinary Session for a renewable one-year term (articles 6(4) and 6(5) of the Constitutive Act, as amended in 2003). The 2003 Protocol on Amendments to the Constitutive Act provides for the Chairperson to be assisted by a bureau chosen by the Assembly (article 6(6)) for one-year terms January to January. The Assembly Rules of Procedure, as amended in 2007, provide for the Bureau to comprise three vice-chairpersons and one rapporteur. The Vice-Chairpersons are elected by the Assembly at the same time as the Chairperson. All five are elected according to regional rotation principles and through consultation. Between sessions, the Chairperson represents the Assembly at global forums.

The composition of the Assembly Bureau is reflected in the Executive Council and Permanent Representatives Committee Bureaus.

Assembly High-Level Committees and Panels

NEPAD Heads of State and Government Orientation Committee (HSGOC)

The Committee was established in 2010 to replace the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD) Heads of State and Government Implementation Committee (HSGIC), which had been established in 2001. This decision was in line with the integration of NEPAD into AU structures and processes, and the transformation of the NEPAD Secretariat into the NEPAD Planning and Coordinating Agency (NPCA or NEPAD Agency) as a technical arm of the AU (see Assembly/AU/Dec.283\(XIV\) of February 2010). The same decision provided for the HSGOC to be a sub-committee of the Assembly and report its recommendations to the Assembly for endorsement.

The HSGOC provides leadership to the NEPAD process and sets policies, priorities and programmes of action. It oversees the NEPAD Agency and the Steering Committee. The HSGOC comprises 20 African states – NEPAD's five initiating countries and 15 members elected on the basis of the AU's five regions, usually for two-year terms. The Chairperson of the AUC also participates in HSGOC summits. In line with AU Assembly decision 205(XI) of 2008, the 11th Assembly endorsed an HSGOC proposal to include the AU Assembly Chairperson's state as a member during his or her tenure, if not so already. The HSGOC meets at Heads of State and Government level, usually twice a year in the margins of the AU Summits.

Committee of Ten Heads of State and Government on the Reform of the United Nations Security Council

The Committee was established by the AU Assembly in August 2005 at its fourth Extraordinary Session (Ext/Assembly/AU/Dec.1\(IV\)). Its mandate is to “present, advocate and canvass support” for two permanent and two additional non-permanent AU Member State seats on the Security Council, as proposed under the 2005 Ezulwini Consensus (Ext/EX.CL/2\(VII\)). The Consensus was endorsed by the Assembly in its 2005 Sirte Declaration on the Reform of the United Nations (Assembly/AU/Decl.2\(V\)), to form the African Common Position. This was reaffirmed at the January and July 2016 Assembly Summits (Assembly/AU/Dec.599\(XXVI\) and Assembly/AU/Dec.617\(XXVII\)). The Committee is composed of 10 Heads of State and Government, two from each region, and coordinated by the President of Sierra Leone, Ernest Bai Koroma.

Committee members (10)

Algeria	Libya	Sierra Leone
Congo	Namibia	Uganda
Equatorial Guinea	Senegal	Zambia

Notes

- The members were re-elected by the 32nd HSGOC Session, held in January 2015, and endorsed by the AU Assembly in January 2015 (Assembly/AU/Dec.563\(XXIV\)).
- Rule 15 of the NEPAD Rules of Procedure provides for a chairperson and two vice-chairpersons only (all Heads of State and Government). Bureau members were re-elected by the 32nd HSGOC Session, held in January 2015.

Committee of African Heads of State and Government on Climate Change (CAHOSCC)

The Committee of African Heads of State and Government on Climate Change (CAHOSCC) was established by the AU Assembly in July 2009 at its 13th Ordinary Session. Its mandate is to spearhead the African common position on climate change and ensure that Africa speaks with one voice in global climate change negotiations. Its most recent meeting took place in the margins of the 25th Ordinary Session of the AU Assembly, held in Johannesburg, South Africa, in June 2015. CAHOSCC presented its most recent report to the January 2016 Assembly Summit (Assembly/AU/Dec.603\(XXVI\)Rev.1). The Assembly called on members to ratify the Paris Agreement adopted at the 21st Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC).

The CAHOSCC Coordinator is Abdel Fattah El Sisi, President of Egypt.

High-Level Committee on African Trade (HATC)

The High-Level Committee on African Trade (HATC) was established in response to AU Assembly decision 394\(XVIII\) of January 2012 on boosting inter-African trade. Its mandate is to champion acceleration of the Continental Free Trade Area (CFTA), enhancement of intra-African trade and implementation of the Accelerated Industrial Development of Africa (AIDA) initiative. The HATC also serves as a platform for exchange of experiences and best practices.

The Committee receives reports from AU African Ministers of Trade (AUAMOT) on the effective implementation of the Action Plan for Boosting Intra-African Trade (BIAT), which was endorsed by the AU Assembly in decision 394\(XVIII\). It makes recommendations to the AU Summit.

The HATC is composed of the eight AU-recognised Regional Economic Communities' (RECs') Assembly Chairpersons (all Heads of State and Government). For the purpose of receiving expert information about intra-African trade, the Committee may allow the RECs' chief executive officers as well as the African Development Bank (AfDB) and UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) to attend its meetings as observers. The HATC is usually chaired by the AUAMOT Bureau President's Head of State. Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, President of Liberia, is scheduled to chair the January 2017 meeting.

The Committee meets twice a year, on the eve of the AU Summit. The AUC Department of Trade and Industry serves as the HATC Secretariat.

Committee of Ten Heads of State and Government on education, science and technology in Africa

The 25th AU Assembly, held in June 2015, committed to establish the Committee of Ten Heads of State and Government (two from each geographic region) to champion the cause of education, science and technology in Africa (Assembly/AU/Dec.572\(XXV\)). The Committee is to meet and report on the status of education, science and technology in Africa to the AU Summit once a year. The Assembly endorsed Macky Sall, President of Senegal, as first coordinator.

High-Level Committee of Heads of State and Government on Libya

The Assembly decided at its January 2016 Summit to establish the High-Level Committee, as agreed in the Peace and Security Council Communiqué of 23 September 2014, to enable the AU to support more effectively the efforts of peace and reconstruction in Libya (Assembly/AU/Dec.598\(XXVI\)). The Committee is composed of the Presidents of South Africa, Mauritania, Gabon and Niger, the Prime Minister of Ethiopia, and the Chairperson of the Commission's High Representative for Libya.

Previous High-Level Panels and Committees (no longer active)

High-Level Committee of Heads of State and Government on the Post-2015 Development Agenda

This High-Level Committee was established by the AU Assembly at its May 2013 Summit and presented its final report to the January 2016 Summit (Assembly/AU/Dec.600\(XXVI\)).

High-Level Panel on Alternative Sources of Financing

The High-Level Panel was established by the AU Assembly at its July 2011 Summit and presented its final report to the January 2015 Summit (Assembly/AU/Dec.561\(XXIV\)). See the Budget and Scale of Assessment chapter for information about AU financing.

AFRICAN UNION HANDBOOK 2017

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council works in support of the African Union (AU) Assembly and is responsible to the Assembly. All Member States participate in the Executive Council, usually at Foreign Minister level.

Article 13 of the AU Constitutive Act mandates the Executive Council to coordinate and take decisions on policies in areas of common interest to Member States, consider issues referred to it and monitor the implementation of Assembly policies. The same article sets out a detailed list of substantive policy areas ranging from foreign trade, energy, agriculture and the environment to humanitarian response, health, social security and disability.

The Executive Council's core functions include:

- Preparing the Assembly session agendas and drafting decisions for its consideration
- Electing the Members of the Commission for appointment by the Assembly
- Promoting cooperation and coordination with the Regional Economic Communities (RECs), African Development Bank (AfDB), other African institutions and the UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA)
- Determining policies for cooperation between the AU and Africa's partners
- Considering and making recommendations to the Assembly on the Commission's structure, functions and statutes
- Ensuring the promotion of gender equality in all AU programmes.

Provisions governing the Executive Council's composition, functions and powers, voting and procedures are contained in articles 10 and 13 of the Constitutive Act.

The Executive Council makes decisions by consensus or, where consensus is not possible, by a two-thirds majority vote by Member States. Matters of procedure, including the question of whether a matter is one of procedure or not, are decided by a simple majority. Two-thirds of AU members are required to form a quorum at any Executive Council meeting.

Evolution

The AU Executive Council is the successor to the Organization of African Unity's (OAU's) Council of Ministers.

Structure

All 54 AU Member States have one representative on the Executive Council. Members are usually Ministers of Foreign Affairs but may be any minister designated by the Member State's government (Constitutive Act, article 10; Rules of Procedure, rule 3). The same Member State that chairs the Assembly chairs the Executive Council (Rules of Procedure, rule 16). Similar to the Assembly and the Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC), the Executive Council Bureau consists of a chairperson, three vice-chairpersons and a rapporteur. The Bureau positions are held by the same states that form the Assembly Bureau. Office holders serve for one year (usually January to January).

Where the Executive Council accepts an invitation from a Member State to host a meeting away from Headquarters, the host country has the right to co-chair the Council (rule 16(2)). The Executive Council may delegate its powers and functions to the PRC and Specialised Technical Committees (STCs).

Meetings

The Executive Council meets at least twice a year in ordinary session. Meetings are usually held prior to the Assembly Summit and in the same location. The Executive Council can also meet in extraordinary session at the request of its chairperson, any Member State or the Chairperson of the AU Commission in consultation with the Chairperson of the Assembly and on approval by two-thirds of all Member States (Constitutive Act, article 10). All sessions are closed to the public, unless the Council decides otherwise (by simple majority; Rules of Procedure, rule 14).

Extraordinary sessions are held at AU Headquarters in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, unless a Member State invites the Council to meet in its country (Rules of Procedure, rule 12).

The Executive Council adopts its agenda at the opening of each session. The provisional agenda for an ordinary session is drawn up by the PRC. The Chairperson of the Commission communicates the draft agenda to Member States at least 30 days before the opening of the session (Rules of Procedure, rule 9).

Provisional agendas are usually divided into two parts: items for adoption, where the PRC has reached agreement and Executive Council approval is possible without discussion; and items for discussion, where agreement has not been reached by the PRC and debate is required.

Additional agenda items can only be for information (usually added to the agenda item reserved for other business), not for debate or decision (Rules of Procedure, rule 10). Extraordinary session agendas can comprise only the item or items submitted in the request for convening the session (Rules of Procedure, rule 13).

In January 2016, the Executive Council asked the AUC in collaboration with the PRC to, amongst other things, rationalise the number of meetings each year, ensure that the Summit agenda and decisions address strategic rather than administrative issues, and that decisions on which no action is taken after two or three years are recommended to policy organs for cancellation (EX.CL/Dec.898(XXVIII)Rev.1).

Ministerial Committee on the Challenges of Ratification/
Accession and Implementation of the OAU/AU Treaties

The Committee is responsible for advocating for the ratification, domestication and implementation of OAU/AU treaties by all Member States. It is composed of 10 members, two from each region, who usually serve two-year terms. The Committee usually meets once a year on the margins of the Executive Council's January ordinary session. The Committee held its inaugural session in January 2015 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

The Committee is supported by a standing committee of experts composed of two members of each AU region.

Members: since June 2014

Central Africa: DR Congo and Gabon
 Eastern Africa: Ethiopia and UR of Tanzania
 Northern Africa: Egypt and Libya
 Southern Africa: Botswana and Zambia
 Western Africa: Guinea and Senegal

Chairperson: since June 2014

Ministerial Committee on the Scale of Assessment and Contributions

The Committee is responsible for reviewing the scale of assessment for Member State contributions to the AU budget; advising the Assembly on the apportionment of AU expenses among Member States, broadly according to their capacity to pay; and advising the Assembly on the treatment of Member States in arrears of their contributions. The Committee works in close collaboration with the AUC Directorate of Programming, Budget, Finance and Accounting.

The Committee was established following an Executive Council decision in January 2016 to restructure the Ad-Hoc Ministerial Committee on the Scale of Assessment into a standing committee and rename it the Ministerial Committee on the Scale of Assessment and Contributions (EX.CL/Dec.916(XXVIII)Rev.1).² The Council also decided that the new Committee would take over the mandate of the Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC's) Sub-Committee on Contributions, and that committee would be abolished. The Ad-Hoc Ministerial Committee had replaced the Standing Sub-Committee on the Review of the Scale of Assessment (EX.CL/Dec.4(II) of March 2003), which had the same membership.

Members of the new Committee are similar to the previous one, with a new chairperson, and will continue to be selected on the basis of geographical distribution for two-year terms. Meetings will continue to be held annually on the margins of the Executive Council Ordinary Session in January.

Members: until January 2017

Central Africa: to be appointed
 Eastern Africa: Mauritius and Sudan
 Northern Africa: Algeria and Libya
 Southern Africa: Malawi and South Africa
 Western Africa: Ghana and Nigeria

Chairperson: until January 2017

South Africa

Note

² Standing committees are ongoing and meet regularly, unlike ad-hoc committees that are usually established for a limited time to address a specific issue.

Ministerial Follow-Up Committee on the Implementation of Agenda 2063

The Committee's initial role was to provide political direction for development of the Agenda 2063 final document and to report to the Executive Council on implementation. Subsequently, its core mandate has centred on strategic orientation, efficiency, financing and accountability in the delivery of Agenda 2063, the First Ten-Year Implementation Plan and successive plans.

The Committee was established by the Executive Council's first ministerial retreat, held in Bahir Dar, Ethiopia, in January 2014, and formalised by the Council's 24th session, held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, also in January 2014 (EX.CL/Dec.807\(XXIV\)). Its mandate was renewed by the Council's 29th session in January 2016 (EX.CL/Dec.908\(XXVIII\)Rev.1), and its terms of reference were approved by the Executive Council in July 2016 (EX.CL/Dec.935\(XXIX\)). Members' terms are two years, taking into account the spirit of rotation and regional balance. The Committee has met three times since it was established, most recently in May 2016.

PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVES COMMITTEE

PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVES COMMITTEE (PRC)

The Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC) conducts the day-to-day business of the African Union (AU) on behalf of the Assembly and Executive Council. It reports to the Executive Council, prepares the Council's work and acts on its instructions (under article 21 of the Constitutive Act). All AU Member States are members of the PRC.

Rule 4 of the PRC Rules of Procedure specifies that its powers and functions include to:

- Act as an advisory body to the AU Executive Council
- Prepare its Rules of Procedure and submit them to the Executive Council
- Prepare Executive Council meetings, including the agenda and draft decisions
- Make recommendations on areas of common interest to Member States particularly on issues on the Executive Council agenda
- Facilitate communication between the African Union Commission (AUC) and Member States' capitals
- Consider the AU's programme and budget as well as the Commission's administrative, budgetary and financial matters, and make recommendations to the Executive Council
- Consider the Commission's financial report and make recommendations to the Executive Council
- Consider the Board of External Auditors' report and submit written comments to the Executive Council
- Monitor the implementation of the AU budget
- Propose the composition of AU organ bureaus, ad hoc committees and sub-committees
- Consider matters relating to the AU's programmes and projects, particularly issues relating to the socio-economic development and integration of the continent, and make recommendations to the Executive Council
- Monitor the implementation of policies, decisions and agreements adopted by the Executive Council
- Participate in the preparation of the AU programme of activities and calendar of meetings; consider any matter assigned to it by the Executive Council; and carry out any other functions that may be assigned to it by the Executive Council.

Rule 4 also provides that the PRC may set up ad hoc committees and temporary working groups as it deems necessary.

Structure

All Member States are represented on the PRC at the level of Permanent Representative. Similar to the Assembly and Executive Council, the PRC Bureau consists of a chairperson, three vice-chairpersons and a rapporteur. The Bureau positions are held by the same states that form the Assembly and Executive Council Bureaus. Office holders serve for one year (usually January to January). In addition to the official Bureau, a larger informal bureau of 15 Member States traditionally convenes to support arrangements for the Assembly Summit sessions.

At the PRC level, the five regional groups are informal discussion structures, chaired by the longest-serving representative who acts as the Dean. The coordinator of the Deans is most recently the Permanent Representative of Cameroon.

Meetings

The PRC meets at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States eligible to vote. The agenda for each session is drawn up by the Chairperson in consultation with the PRC Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the PRC decides otherwise (by simple majority).

The PRC takes all its decisions by consensus or, failing that, by a two-thirds majority of Member States. Questions of procedure require a simple majority vote. Whether a question is one of procedure or not is also determined by a simple majority vote. PRC meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the Rules of Procedure and decision taking by rule 13.

Office holders: January 2016 to January 2017

Chairperson: Cherif Mahamat Zene, Chad
 First Vice-Chairperson: Naïm Akibou, Benin
 Second Vice-Chairperson: Hope T Gasatura, Rwanda
 Third Vice-Chairperson: Mahfud R M Rahim, Libya
 Rapporteur: Albert Ranganai Chimbindi, Zimbabwe

Regional Deans

Coordinator: Jacques Alfred Ndoumbè-Eboulè, Cameroon
 Central Africa: Lazare Makayat-Safouesse, Congo
 Eastern Africa: Mull Sebuja Katende, Uganda
 Northern Africa: Lamine Baali, Sahrawi Republic
 Southern Africa: Mmamosadinyana Josephine Molefe, Botswana
 Western Africa: Albert Francis Yankey, Ghana

Sub-Committees

Membership and bureau information for the PRC sub-committees is as of 1 July 2016. Names of the Ambassadors are as of 2 September 2016. For some of the sub-committees, the Ambassadors are represented by their relevant advisers.

Advisory Sub-Committee on Administrative, Budgetary and Financial Matters

Purpose

The Advisory Sub-Committee on Administrative, Budgetary and Financial Matters oversees the financial and administrative management of the AU on behalf of the PRC. Under its draft terms of reference, the Sub-Committee's core tasks include to:

- Review the draft programme of activities and budgetary estimates presented by the Commission
- Review all administrative and other matters with financial implications
- Review administration of the programme budget and, in particular, the financial and accounting transactions of the Commission and regional offices
- Consider requests by the Commission for transfers of authorised budgetary funds to cope with any urgent decisions or projects
- Consider unforeseen urgent expenditure

- Consider requests related to the working capital or other funds
- Review the Commission's financial report for the preceding year and make recommendations to the PRC.

The Sub-Committee reports on each of its meetings and makes recommendations to the PRC. It may draft reports for review by the Executive Council on any issues concerning administrative, budgetary, management and financial matters. The Sub-Committee drafts the AU's financial rules and regulations, which are then submitted to the PRC.

Evolution

The Sub-Committee is the successor to the OAU Sub-Committee of the same name.¹

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Advisory Sub-Committee on Administrative, Budgetary and Financial Matters is a committee of the whole, meaning all AU Member States are members. In accordance with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is determined by internal consultations.

Bureau: January 2016 to January 2017

Chairperson: Mull Sebuja Katende, Uganda

First Vice-Chairperson: Ndumiso N Ntshinga, South Africa

Second Vice-Chairperson: Jacques Alfred Ndoumbè-Eboulè, Cameroon

Third Vice-Chairperson: Albert Francis Yankey, Ghana

Rapporteur: Sahbi Khalfallah, Tunisia

Sub-Committee on Audit Matters

Purpose

The PRC established the Sub-Committee on Audit Matters during its 25th Ordinary Session, held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in January 2013. The Sub-Committee's mandate is to assist the AU in handling financial reporting processes, internal control, audit and the monitoring of compliance with rules and regulations. Under its terms of reference, the Sub-Committee's core tasks include to:

- Consider the work of all oversight bodies employed and/or appointed by the AU
- Institute investigations into any matters

Note

¹ In January 2016, the AU Executive Council asked the PRC to strengthen and reform the Advisory Sub-Committee on Administrative, Budgetary and Financial Matters, and rename it the Sub-Committee on General Supervision and Coordination on Budgetary, Financial and Administrative Matters (EX.CL/Dec.916(XXVIII)Rev.1). The Executive Council adopted draft terms of reference for the Advisory Sub-Committee on Administrative, Budgetary and Financial Matters in July 2016 (EX.CL/Dec.931(XXIX)). As of September 2016, the proposed changes were yet to take place.

- Seek any information it requires from AU employees
- Retain, at the AU's expense, such outside counsel, experts and other advisers as the Sub-Committee may deem appropriate.

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee is composed of 15 members based on the agreed geographical distribution as noted in the following list. In accordance with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is determined by internal consultations.

Members: January 2016 to January 2017

Sub-Committee on Contributions

Purpose

The Sub-Committee is responsible for decisions relating to Member States and other contributors to the AU budget. Under its draft terms of reference, the Sub-Committee is mandated to:

- Advise the Assembly on the apportionment of the organisation's expenses among members broadly according to capacity to pay
- Advise the Assembly on treatment of Member States in arrears of their contributions to the organisation.

The Sub-Committee also supports the Ministerial Committee on the Scale of Assessment and Contributions, as required.

Evolution

Under article XXIII of the OAU Charter, Member States contributed to the OAU budget in accordance with the UN scales of assessment. This system was reviewed in 1986 when the OAU Council of Ministers created a Sub-Committee on Contributions to recommend proposals to address concerns about the ability of Member States to meet the UN assessment levels. The AU Sub-Committee on Contributions is the direct successor to the OAU's committee.²

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee is composed of 15 members based on agreed geographical distribution as noted in the following list. In accordance with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is determined by internal consultations.

Members: January 2016 to January 2017

Third Vice-Chairperson: Hope T Gasatura, Rwanda Rapporteur: Sébadé Toba, Togo

Note

² In January 2016, the AU Executive Council decided when restructuring its Ad-Hoc Ministerial Committee on the Scale of Assessment that the PRC Sub-Committee on Contributions would be abolished (EX.CL/Dec.916(XXVIII)Rev.1)). The Executive Council also decided to approve the setting up of sub-committees to oversee the implementation of the sanction regime and to study the issues relating to the banks and currency used by the organisation in light of the new challenges faced in the global arena (EX.CL/Dec.899(XXVIII)Rev.2). As of September 2016, the proposed changes were yet to take place.

Sub-Committee on Economic and Trade Matters

37

Purpose

The Sub-Committee is responsible for examining trade and economic activities between Member States with a view to fast tracking the economic and trade integration process in the continent. It considers bilateral and multilateral trade and economic issues.³

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee is composed of 15 members based on agreed geographical distribution as noted in the following list. In accordance with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is agreed by internal consultations.

Third Vice-Chairperson: Sahbi Khalfallah, Tunisia
Rapporteur: Susan Sikaneta, Zambia

Permanent Representatives Committee

Note

³ In January 2016, the AU Executive Council decided that a PRC Sub-Committee responsible for following up on international system African candidatures approved by the Executive Council should be established (EX.CL/Dec.917(XXVIII)Rev.2). As of September 2016, the proposed Sub-Committee was yet to be formed.

Sub-Committee on Headquarters and Host Agreements

Purpose

The Sub-Committee on Headquarters and Host Agreements is responsible for the relationship between the AU and host countries. Its mandate includes to:

- Liaise with Commission officials on issues relating to and arising from Headquarters and other Agreements, including issues of privileges and immunities
- Undertake a review of Headquarters and similar Agreements and make recommendations for their amendment or revision
- Initiate, when necessary, meetings with host government authorities with a view to resolving any problems
- Play a 'good offices' role to deal with any misunderstandings in the implementation of Agreements.

Evolution

The Sub-Committee is the successor of the OAU Committee of the same name and with the same mandate.

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee consists of 15 members based on agreed geographical distribution as noted in the following list. In accordance with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is determined by internal consultations.

Sub-Committee on the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD)

Purpose

The Sub-Committee oversees and supports activities promoting the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD), which is the AU's strategic framework for pan-African socio-economic development (see the NEPAD section for more information). The Sub-Committee is mandated to:

- Monitor progress in implementation of the strategic plan devised by the Steering Committee (on NEPAD) for marketing NEPAD at national, sub-regional, regional and international levels, and make periodic reports to the PRC
- Follow up on progress on priority areas and policy guidelines outlined in the plan of action for the implementation of NEPAD, and report periodically to the PRC
- Devise strategies for the popularisation of NEPAD jointly with the Commission and NEPAD Secretariat
- Assist in identifying priority areas/sectors that could reverse Africa's marginalisation and lay a basis for sustainable long-term development
- Devise ways and means of mobilising resources for the implementation of NEPAD policies, programmes and projects in collaboration with the AUC and NEPAD Secretariat
- Monitor implementation of policies and programmes with a view to ensuring commitments to NEPAD resources are honoured.

Evolution

The NEPAD programme was introduced and endorsed by Member States in July 2001 during the transition from the OAU to the AU. The AU Assembly formally adopted the Declaration on the Implementation of NEPAD in 2002. The Sub-Committee was established by the AU in 2010 to deal with NEPAD matters.

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee is composed of 15 members based on agreed geographical distribution as noted in the following list. In accordance with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is determined by internal consultations.

Members: January 2016 to January 2017

Sub-Committee on Programmes and Conferences

Purpose

The Sub-Committee oversees the scheduling and organisation of AU conferences and meetings. Its mandate includes to:

- Make recommendations concerning the scheduling of statutory meetings
- Review the draft calendar of meetings and arrange practical timetabling
- Liaise with the Advisory Sub-Committee on Administrative, Budgetary and Financial Matters on the administrative and financial implications of conferences
- Monitor the implementation of AU resolutions, rules and regulations relating to the organisation, servicing and documentation of meetings and conferences.

Evolution

The Sub-Committee is the successor to the OAU Sub-Committee on Programmes and Conferences.

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee on Programmes and Conferences is a committee of the whole, meaning all AU Member States are members.

Bureau: January 2016 to January 2017

Chairperson: Chimango Edward Chirwa, Malawi

First Vice-Chairperson: Cherif Mahamat Zene, Chad

Second Vice-Chairperson: Zakariou Adam Maiga, Niger

Third Vice-Chairperson: Wahide Belay, Ethiopia

Rapporteur: Mahfud R M Rahim, Libya

Sub-Committee on Refugees, Returnees and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa

Purpose

The Sub-Committee is responsible for AU policies on refugees, displaced persons and returnees. Its mandate includes to:

- Assist AU deliberative organs in designing, developing, defining, harmonising and coordinating policy on matters affecting refugees, displaced persons and returnees, as well as in matters relating to the promotion of humanitarian law on the continent
- Follow up, analyse and evaluate the situation of refugees, displaced persons and returnees and provide policy recommendations and solutions to the Executive Council for AU action
- Collaborate and work with the AUC and UN humanitarian agencies, regional organisations, the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and concerned non-governmental organisations
- Maintain permanent contacts with Member States through the AUC.

Evolution

The Sub-Committee is the successor to the OAU Commission on Refugees, which was established in 1964 by the Council of Ministers. It was composed of 10 members tasked to examine the issue of refugees and formulate recommendations to the Council, including on the issue of integration of refugees in their countries of asylum. In 1980, the membership was extended and, in 1997, opened to all Member States.

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee is a committee of the whole, meaning all AU Member States are members.

Bureau: January 2016 to January 2017

Chairperson: Lamine Baali, Sahrawi Republic

First Vice-Chairperson: Marie Edith Tassyla ye Doumbeneny, Gabon

Second Vice-Chairperson: Ahmed Abdisalam Haji Adam, Somalia

Third Vice-Chairperson: Naïm Akibou, Benin

Rapporteur: Manuel Jose Goncalves, Mozambique

Policy Sub-Committee of the Special Emergency Assistance Fund for Drought and Famine Relief in Africa

Purpose

The Sub-Committee of the Special Emergency Assistance Fund for Drought and Famine Relief in Africa oversees all matters relating to the operation of the Fund of the same name. Its mandate includes to:

- Act as the supreme organ of the Fund
- Determine the Fund's operational policy including the criteria for approval of loans and the terms and conditions for withdrawals from the Fund
- Approve administrative and other expenses related to the operation of the Fund
- Select beneficiary countries and decide on the amounts of grants and loans
- Initiate effective measures for mobilising resources for the Fund from both public and private sources and including African and non-African sources
- Make recommendations regarding the management and administration of the Fund's resources by the African Development Bank
- Make recommendations regarding the Statute of the Fund and its rules and operating procedures
- Report on its activities annually to the AU Executive Council in consultation with the Chairperson of the Commission.

Evolution

The Sub-Committee originated in the Lagos Plan of Action recommendation to establish a Special Emergency Assistance Fund for Drought and Famine in Africa. In the mid-1980s, the Council of Ministers called for the Fund to become operational and the OAU created an interim policy committee to act as the supreme organ of the Fund, determine policy and draw up the criteria for approval of loans or grants from the Fund. The Interim Policy Committee became the Sub-Committee of Special Emergency Assistance when the AU was created.

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee is composed of 15 members based on agreed geographical distribution as noted in the following list. In accordance with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is determined by consultation amongst the AU regional group Deans.

Members: January 2016 to January 2017

Sub-Committee on Structural Reforms

Purpose

The Sub-Committee on Structural Reforms oversees organisational review of the AU. It is responsible for ensuring that relationships between the AU and its organs are functioning well in order to meet its core objectives. The Sub-Committee's mandate includes to:

- Evaluate and make proposals on organisational structures
- Review AU staff service conditions; criteria for recruitment including policies and practices around the equivalency of academic qualifications; work methods and procedures including with a view to ensuring fair remuneration for equal jobs; and the Staff Regulations and Rules
- Keep the structure within the AUC under regular review to ensure that activities are programme oriented and harmonised to avoid duplication
- Make recommendations on ways to improve coordination and accountability within Headquarters and between Headquarters and regional offices.

Evolution

The Sub-Committee is the successor to the OAU's Ad Hoc Committee of Experts, which had been established in 1997 to replace earlier technical and ad-hoc expert committees that focused on structural reforms.

Meetings

Sub-Committee sessions are held at AU Headquarters at least once a month, and extraordinary sessions may also be held. The quorum is two-thirds of the Member States. The Chairperson draws up the agenda in consultation with the PRC Bureau, Sub-Committee Bureau and AUC. Sessions are closed, except when the Sub-Committee decides by simple majority to hold open sessions. Meetings are governed by rules 5–9 of the PRC Rules of Procedure.

Membership

The Sub-Committee on Structural Reforms is a committee of the whole, meaning all AU Member States are members. Membership was opened to all AU members in 2012 (PRC/Rpt(XXIV, para 37(ii)). The Sub-Committee previously comprised 15 members.

Bureau: January 2016 to January 2017

Chairperson: Joseph Andre Nourrice, Seychelles

First Vice-Chairperson: Arcanjo Maria do Nascimento, Angola

Second Vice-Chairperson: Mahfud R M Rahim, Libya

Third Vice-Chairperson: Simeon Oyono Esono, Equatorial Guinea

Sub-Committee on Rules, Standards and Credentials

Purpose

Draft terms of reference, of January 2016, provide for the Sub-Committee's mandate to be to consider all matters relating to the Rules of Procedure of the AU policy organs, best practices and standards during meetings, and credentials for delegations to policy organ meetings.

Evolution

The Executive Council agreed in June 2015 to the Sub-Committee being formed (EX.CL/Dec.884(XXVII)).

Meetings

The draft terms of reference provide for the Sub-Committee to meet at least four times a year and as often as necessary for the effective discharge of its mandate.

Membership

The draft terms of reference provide for the Sub-Committee to be composed of 15 members based on agreed geographical distribution as noted in the following list. In line with established practice, the composition of the Sub-Committee is determined by consultation amongst the AU regional group Deans. As of 1 September 2016, a bureau was yet to be confirmed.

Members: January 2016 to January 2017

Central Africa (3 seats)

SPECIALISED TECHNICAL COMMITTEES

SPECIALISED TECHNICAL COMMITTEES (STCS)

Article 14 of the AU Constitutive Act provides for the establishment of Specialised Technical Committees (STCs) across a range of thematic areas. Under article 14, the STCs are responsible to the Executive Council. STCs are organs of the AU, in accordance with article 5 of the AU Constitutive Act. The process of operationalising the STCs has been ongoing, and sectorial ministerial conferences have carried out the functions of some STCs (see the list of ministerial conferences at the end of this chapter). As of 1 September 2016, all but one STC had met.

Purpose

The purpose of the STCs is to work in close collaboration with AUC departments to ensure the harmonisation of AU projects and programmes as well as coordination with the Regional Economic Communities (RECs). Article 15 of the Constitutive Act provides that each committee shall, within its field of competence:

- Prepare AU projects and programmes and submit them to the Executive Council
- Ensure the supervision, follow up and evaluation of the implementation of decisions taken by AU organs
- Ensure the coordination and harmonisation of AU projects and programmes
- Submit to the Executive Council, either on its own initiative or at the request of the Executive Council, reports and recommendations on the implementation of the provisions of the Constitutive Act
- Carry out any other functions assigned to it for the purpose of ensuring the implementation of the provisions of the Constitutive Act.

Each STC develops its own Rules of Procedure to define its detailed activities and functions, and submits these to the Executive Council for approval.

Evolution

STCs were created under the 1991 Treaty Establishing the African Economic Community (Abuja Treaty), article 25. These were carried over from the OAU to the AU by the Constitutive Act, articles 5 and 14 to 16, under the name Specialised Technical Committees. The STCs were not operationalised under the OAU and their functions were carried out by sectorial ministerial conferences.

The Constitutive Act initially provided for seven STCs. At its February 2009 summit meeting, the Assembly enlarged this number to 14 to make their structure and thematic focus consistent with AUC portfolios (Assembly/AU/Dec.227\(XII\)).

In June 2015, the AU Assembly decided to empower the STCs to take decisions on issues falling under their competence, except where there are attendant financial and structural implications (Assembly/AU/Dec.582\(XXV\)). The same decision provided for the Executive Council to consider STC decisions at the request of any Member State.

Structure

Each STC is composed of Member States' ministers and senior officials responsible for sectors falling within their respective areas of competence.

Meetings

In June–July 2011, the Assembly decided that the STCs should meet at ministerial and expert level every two years (Assembly/AU/Dec.365(XVII)). Exceptions were made for three STCs to meet once a year, the Committees on: Gender and Women's Empowerment; Finance, Monetary Affairs, Economic Planning and Integration; and Defence, Safety and Security. In addition, the Assembly decided in January 2016 that the STC on Justice and Legal Affairs should meet once a year (Assembly/AU/Dec.589(XXVI)). All STCs can also hold extraordinary sessions (rules 9 and 12 of the STCs' Rules of Procedure).

STC on Finance, Monetary Affairs, Economic Planning and Integration

The STC is the prime forum for African Ministers responsible for finance, economy, planning, integration and economic development, as well as central bank Governors, to discuss matters about the development of Africa. In addition to the functions provided for in the AU Constitutive Act, the STC's Rules of Procedure, article 5, include the function of following up on implementation of the integration agenda for the continent.

The STC first met in March 2015 and is scheduled to meet in ordinary session once a year. The STC has continued the practice of the AU Conference of Ministers Responsible for Economy and Finance to meet concurrently with the UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) Conference of African Ministers of Finance, Planning and Economic Development. The March–April 2016 meeting was the ninth joint annual meeting.

Bureau: March 2015 to March 2017

Chairperson: UR of Tanzania
First Vice-Chairperson: Egypt
Second Vice-Chairperson: Gabon
Third Vice-Chairperson: South Africa
Rapporteur: Guinea

STC on Social Development, Labour and Employment

In addition to the functions provided for in the AU Constitutive Act, the STC's Rules of Procedure, article 5, include the following powers and functions: promoting and developing cooperation among African countries in the fields of social protection, labour, employment, productivity and poverty alleviation; reviewing and harmonising Member State labour and employment policies and legislation; promoting health and safety in the workplace; and developing responses to social, labour and employment issues in collaboration with the International Labour Organization (ILO) and other relevant agencies.

The STC first met in April 2015 and is scheduled to meet in ordinary session every two years.

Bureau: April 2015 to April 2017

Chairperson: Zimbabwe
First Vice-Chairperson: Niger
Second Vice-Chairperson: Algeria
Third Vice-Chairperson: Kenya
Rapporteur: DR Congo

50 STC on Health, Population and Drug Control

In addition to the functions provided for in the AU Constitutive Act, the STC's Rules of Procedure, article 5, include the following powers and functions in its sectors: identifying areas of cooperation and establishing mechanisms for regional, continental and global cooperation; and identifying and strengthening regional and continental centres of excellence and best practices.

The STC first met in April 2015 and is scheduled to meet in ordinary session every two years.

Bureau: April 2015 to April 2017

Chairperson: South Africa

First Vice-Chairperson: Sierra Leone

Second Vice-Chairperson: Burundi

Third Vice-Chairperson: Sahrawi Republic

Rapporteur: Ethiopia

STC on Justice and Legal Affairs

In addition to the functions provided for in the AU Constitutive Act, the STC's Rules of Procedure, article 5, include the following powers and functions: considering AU draft treaties and other legal instruments or documents; surveying international law with a view to selecting topics for codification within AU legal frameworks; following up on issues concerning the signature, ratification/accession, domestication and implementation of OAU/AU treaties. All STCs and the AU Commission on International Law (AUCIL) submit their proposed legal instruments to the STC for further consideration.

The STC first met in May 2014 and is scheduled to meet in ordinary session once a year.

Bureau: since May 2014

Chairperson: Cameroon

First Vice-Chairperson: Lesotho

Second Vice-Chairperson: Niger

Third Vice-Chairperson: Mauritania

Rapporteur: Rwanda

STC on Youth, Culture and Sports

In addition to the functions provided for in the AU Constitutive Act, the STC's Rules of Procedure, article 5, include considering progress on: implementing the Decade for Youth Development 2009–18 Plan of Action, including the Youth Volunteer Corps, youth capacity building and the Technical and Vocational Education Training (TVET) Project in post-conflict countries; ratification and implementation of the African Youth Charter, Charter for the African Cultural Renaissance and the Policy Framework for the Sustainable Development of Sport in Africa; establishing the Architecture for Sport Development, Architecture for Culture Development in Africa, Pan African Cultural Institute and the African Audiovisual and Cinema Commission (AACC); and implementing adult education and lifelong learning.

The STC first met in October 2014 and is scheduled to meet in ordinary session every two years.

Bureau: June 2016 to June 2018

Chairperson: Kenya
First Vice-Chairperson: Sahrawi Republic
Second Vice-Chairperson: Angola
Third Vice-Chairperson: Burkina Faso
Rapporteur: DR Congo

STC on Public Service, Local Government, Urban Development and Decentralisation

In addition to the functions provided for in the AU Constitutive Act, the STC's Rules of Procedure, article 5, include the following powers and functions in its sectors: developing, promoting and implementing the AU integration agenda and vision; promoting Member States' efforts for effective governance and development, and building capacity; preventing and combatting corruption; promoting post-conflict reconstruction of public services, decentralisation and local governance, and innovative approaches to service delivery including through information communications technology (ICT); and developing a mechanism for promoting sustainable human settlements.

AFRICAN UNION HANDBOOK 2017

PEACE AND SECURITY COUNCIL

PEACE AND SECURITY COUNCIL (PSC)

The Peace and Security Council (PSC) is the standing decision-making organ of the AU for the prevention, management and resolution of conflicts. It is a collective security and early warning arrangement intended to facilitate timely and efficient responses to conflict and crisis situations in Africa. It is also the key pillar of the African Peace and Security Architecture (APSA), which is the umbrella term for the main AU mechanisms for promoting peace, security and stability in Africa.

The PSC was established in line with article 5(2) of the AU Constitutive Act (2000), and is specifically provided for under article 20 (bis) as inserted by article 9 of the Protocol on Amendments to the Constitutive Act (2003). The Protocol Relating to the Establishment of the Peace and Security Council was adopted on 9 July 2002 in Durban, South Africa, and entered into force in December 2003. The PSC became fully operational in early 2004. The PSC Protocol, together with the PSC Rules of Procedure, the AU Constitutive Act and the conclusions of various PSC retreats, provide operational guidance to PSC activities.

Under article 7 of the PSC Protocol, the powers of the PSC, in conjunction with the Chairperson of the Commission, include to:

- Anticipate and prevent disputes and conflicts, as well as policies, which may lead to genocide and crimes against humanity
- Undertake peace-making and peacebuilding functions to resolve conflicts where they have occurred
- Authorise the mounting and deployment of peace support missions, and lay down general guidelines for the conduct of such missions including the mandate
- Recommend to the Assembly, pursuant to article 4(h) of the AU Constitutive Act, intervention, on behalf of the Union, in a Member State in respect of grave circumstances, namely, war crimes, genocide and crimes against humanity as defined in relevant international instruments
- Institute sanctions whenever an unconstitutional change of government takes place in a Member State
- Implement the AU's common defence policy
- Ensure implementation of key conventions and instruments to combat international terrorism
- Promote harmonisation and coordination of efforts between the regional mechanisms and the AU in the promotion of peace, security and stability in Africa
- Follow-up promotion of democratic practices, good governance, the rule of law, protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms, and respect for the sanctity of human life and international humanitarian law
- Promote and encourage the implementation of conventions and treaties on arms control and disarmament
- Examine and take action in situations where the national independence and sovereignty of a Member State is threatened by acts of aggression, including by mercenaries
- Support and facilitate humanitarian action in situations of armed conflicts or major natural disasters.

Evolution

The PSC is the successor to the OAU Central Organ of the Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution. The Central Organ was the OAU's operational body mandated to make decisions on matters of peace and security. It was composed of nine and later 14 Member States. Like the PSC, the Organ operated at summit, minister and ambassador levels.

Structure

The PSC has 15 members with equal voting powers. All members are elected by the AU Executive Council and endorsed by the AU Assembly. For continuity, five members are elected for three-year terms and 10 for two-year terms, usually to take up office on the first day of April. While there are no permanent members, all members are eligible for immediate re-election. The most recent elections were held in January 2016 for terms beginning 1 April 2016, as listed here under Members.

PSC members are elected according to the principle of equitable regional representation and rotation as follows.

- Central Africa: three seats
- Eastern Africa: three seats
- Northern Africa: two seats
- Southern Africa: three seats
- Western Africa: four seats

Article 5(2) of the PSC Protocol lists criteria used in electing PSC members, including: contribution to the promotion and maintenance of peace and security in Africa; participation in conflict resolution, peace-making and peacebuilding at regional and continental levels; willingness and ability to take up responsibility for regional and continental conflict resolution initiatives; contribution to the Peace Fund and/or Special Fund; respect for constitutional governance, the rule of law and human rights; and commitment to AU financial obligations.

Article 8(6) of the PSC Protocol provides that the Chair shall be held in turn by the members, in the English alphabetical order of country names, for one calendar month.

The PSC Secretariat was established in line with article 10(4) of the PSC Protocol. It provides direct operational support to the PSC, and is housed within the Peace and Security Department at the AU Commission Headquarters (see the AUC section for more information about the Department).

Article 2(2) of the PSC Protocol provides that the PSC shall be assisted by the AUC, Continental Early Warning System, Panel of the Wise, African Standby Force and the Peace Fund. The PSC also works in collaboration with the Regional Economic Communities and Regional Mechanisms for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution (RECs/RMs); the UN Security Council and other similar international organisations; civil society organisations; and other AU organs, including the Pan-African Parliament and the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights.

Meetings

The PSC meets in continuous session. All members are required to keep a permanent presence at AU Headquarters. Meetings can be held at three levels: permanent representatives, ministers or Heads of State and Government. Article 8(2) of the PSC Protocol requires permanent representatives to meet at least twice a month, and ministers and Heads of State and Government at least once a year. PSC meetings include closed sessions, open meetings and informal consultations.

PSC decisions are adopted using the principle of consensus. Where consensus is not possible, decisions on procedural matters are taken by a simple majority, and on substantive matters by a two-thirds majority (PSC Protocol, article 8(13)). In line with article 8(9) of the PSC Protocol, any Member State that is party to a conflict or situation under consideration by the PSC may be invited to attend a PSC meeting but does not participate in the discussion and decision-making process relating to that particular conflict or situation.

The PSC's provisional agenda is determined by the Chairperson of the month on the basis of proposals from the Chairperson of the AU Commission and Member States. The Chairperson of the Commission may bring to the PSC's attention any matter that may threaten peace, security and stability in the continent, and may request briefings from PSC committees and other AU organs and institutions. The inclusion of any item on the provisional agenda may not be opposed by a Member State.

Members¹

Current members were elected by the Executive Council and appointed by the Assembly in January 2016, with terms beginning on 1 April 2016. Five members were appointed for three-year terms, and 10 for two-year terms (Assembly/AU/Dec.594\(XXVI\)).

PSC Subsidiary Bodies

The PSC Protocol, article 8(5), authorises the PSC to establish subsidiary bodies as it deems necessary and seek such military, legal and other forms of expertise as it may require. As of September 2016, the following two subsidiary committees were fully operational.

Committee of Experts

The Committee of Experts was established under article 8(5) of the PSC Protocol. It assists the PSC to elaborate its draft decisions. The Committee is composed of 15 designated experts, each representing a PSC Member State, and two Peace and Security Department expert officers. The Committee meets prior to each PSC meeting to prepare for decisions.

Military Staff Committee

The Military Staff Committee was established under article 13(8) of the PSC Protocol. It advises and assists the PSC in all questions relating to military and security requirements for the promotion and maintenance of peace and security in Africa. The Protocol provides for the Committee to comprise senior military representatives from the 15 PSC Member States, chaired by the PSC Chair Member State (and, accordingly, rotating monthly). The Committee can invite any AU Member State to its meetings to assist with its work. Rules of Procedure for the Committee are yet to be adopted.

Other committees

The following committees have also been established:

- Post-Conflict Reconstruction and Development (PCRD)
- Sanctions
- Counter-Terrorism.

PSC High-Level Panels

African Union High-Level Implementation Panel (AUHIP) for Sudan and South Sudan

The African Union High-Level Implementation Panel (AUHIP) for Sudan and South Sudan was established by the PSC on 29 October 2009 at its 207th Heads of State and Government meeting (PSC/AHG/COMM.1\(CCVII\)). The Panel's mandate is to facilitate negotiations relating to South Sudan's independence from Sudan, including issues such as oil, security, citizenship, assets and the common border.

The AUHIP is the successor of the earlier High-Level Panel on Darfur, which was established by the PSC on 21 July 2008 at its 142nd meeting (Communiqué PSC/MIN/Comm(CXLII)). The earlier Darfur Panel was mandated to examine the situation in depth and submit recommendations to the AU Executive Council on issues of accountability, potentially including through truth and/or reconciliation commissions supported by the AU and international community.

The AUHIP is chaired by Thabo Mbeki, former President of South Africa. The other members are Abdulsalami Alhaji Abubakar, former President of Nigeria, and Pierre Buyoya, former President of Burundi.

The Panel works with the Joint AU–UN Special Representative for Darfur, who is also the Head of the AU–UN Mission in Darfur (UNAMID) and Joint Chief Mediator, to resolve the Darfur conflict. In the context of its mandate to support the democratic transformation of Sudan and South Sudan, the Panel also engages the Government of Sudan and other Sudanese stakeholders to promote the holding of an inclusive national dialogue as a basis for lasting peace in Sudan.

In 2011, the Panel mediated the Agreement between the Sudan Government and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement/Army (SPLM/A) on the Temporary Arrangements for the Administration and Security of the Abyei Area. The Agreement provides for, among other things, the creation of the Abyei Joint Oversight Committee (AJOC) to help stabilise the Abyei area while the leadership of the Sudan and South Sudan addressed the final status of the area. The AUC-appointed facilitator of the AJOC is Boitshoko Mokgatlhe, Botswana. The Panel was subsequently tasked with working with the Governments of Sudan and South Sudan to implement their 27 September 2012 Cooperation Agreement aimed at creating two viable states at peace with each other.

In addition, the AU appointed a high-level panel of African experts to produce a non-binding advisory opinion on how to settle the issue of the claimed and contested border areas between Sudan and South Sudan. The Panel of Experts is chaired by former International Court of Justice member Abdul Koroma, Sierra Leone.

In January 2016, the AU Assembly reiterated its support of the Panel's efforts "aimed at facilitating an inclusive National Dialogue, as well as at achieving cessation of hostilities in Darfur and the two states of South Kordofan and Blue Nile". The Assembly also called for renewed efforts towards addressing the challenges in the Darfur region and reiterated its support for UNAMID (Assembly/AU/Dec.598\(XXVI\)).

The AUHIP is supported by, amongst others, the AU Liaison Office in Sudan, which was established in 2007 and is headed by Mahmoud Kane, Mauritania.

AFRICAN PEACE AND SECURITY ARCHITECTURE (APSA)

The African Peace and Security Architecture (APSA) is the umbrella term for the key AU mechanisms for promoting peace, security and stability in the African continent (core AU objectives under article 3 of its Constitutive Act).

The Peace and Security Council (PSC) is the main pillar of APSA. The PSC is supported by the African Union Commission (AUC), Panel of the Wise, Continental Early Warning System (CEWS), African Standby Force (ASF) and the Peace Fund. The Panel of the Wise, CEWS, ASF and the Peace Fund are mandated under the PSC Protocol and are APSA pillars. Additional components of APSA are the Military Staff Committee, a subsidiary body of the PSC, and the Regional Mechanisms for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution (PSC Protocol, articles 8(5) and 16(1)).

Collaboration between the AU and the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and Regional Mechanisms (RMs) on peace and security matters is guided by the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Cooperation in the Area of Peace and Security between the AU, RECs and the Coordinating Mechanisms of the Regional Standby Brigades of Eastern and Northern Africa.

Information about the AUC Department of Peace and Security, and a list of special envoys and representatives appointed by the Chairperson of the Commission are in the AUC section of this book.

Panel of the Wise

Purpose

The Panel of the Wise supports the PSC and the Chairperson of the AUC in the promotion and maintenance of peace, security and stability in Africa, particularly in the areas of preventive diplomacy and mediation. It is supported by the Department of Peace and Security's Conflict Prevention and Early Warning Division through the Secretariat of the Panel, in line with the PSC-adopted Modalities for the Functioning of the Panel of the Wise.

The Panel was established under the PSC Protocol, article 11. The PSC subsequently adopted the Modalities for the Functioning of the Panel of the Wise on 12 November 2007 at its 100th meeting. Under the Modalities, the Panel's mandate includes advising the PSC and Chairperson; undertaking all such actions deemed appropriate to support the efforts of the PSC and Chairperson for preventing conflict; making pronouncements on any issue relating to the promotion and maintenance of peace, security and stability in Africa; and acting at the request of the Council or Chairperson, or on its own initiative. The Modalities also provide for the Panel's role to include facilitating channels of communication between the PSC or the Chairperson of the Commission and parties involved in conflict; undertaking mediation actions and advising mediation teams; and carrying out fact-finding missions.

The Panel has undertaken thematic reflections on election-related disputes and conflicts; impunity, justice and national reconciliation; democratisation and governance; and most recently, women and children in armed conflicts.

Evolution

The Organization of African Unity (OAU) established the Commission of Mediation, Conciliation and Arbitration on 21 July 1964 as a tool to support peaceful settlement of disputes between OAU Member States (article 19 of the OAU Charter). However, the Commission was never made operational and was replaced in 1993 by the broader Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution. There was no panel under the Mechanism.

Structure

The Panel has five members. Under article 11(2) of the PSC Protocol, members are required to be “highly respected African personalities of high integrity and independence who have made outstanding contributions to Africa in the areas of peace, security and development”. Members cannot hold political office at the time of their appointment or during their term on the Panel.

Members are appointed by the AU Assembly, on the recommendation of the Chairperson of the Commission, for three calendar years. Terms can be renewed, depending on the availability of the members. Pending selection of members, the existing panel continues to work, often leading to extended mandates for panel members. Each member is drawn from one of the AU’s five regional groups. Under the Modalities for the Functioning of the Panel of the Wise, the office of Chairperson should rotate between members every year. In practice, this position has not rotated.

Meetings

The Panel meets when required or at the request of the PSC or Chairperson of the AU Commission. It is required to meet at least three times a year. The inaugural meeting of the incoming members of the Panel was held from 16 to 17 September 2014 at AU Headquarters in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

Panel members

First Panel: 2007–10

Central Africa: Miguel Trovoadá, a former President of São Tomé and Príncipe

Eastern Africa: Salim Ahmed Salim, a former Secretary-General of the OAU

Northern Africa: Ahmed Ben Bella (Chairperson), a former President of Algeria

Southern Africa: Brigalia Bam, a former Chairperson of the Independent Electoral Commission of South Africa

Western Africa: Elisabeth Pognon, a former President of the Constitutional Court of Benin

Second Panel: 2010–14²

Central Africa: Marie Madeleine Kalala-Ngoy, a former Human Rights Minister of DR Congo

Eastern Africa: Salim Ahmed Salim (second term), a former Secretary-General of the OAU

Southern Africa: Luísa Diogo, a former Prime Minister of Mozambique

Western Africa: Edem Kodjo, a former Prime Minister of Togo and a former Secretary-General of the OAU

Friends of the Panel of the Wise

During the July 2010 AU Summit in Kampala, Uganda, the Assembly supported enhancing the Panel's capacity by establishing a team of 'Friends of the Panel of the Wise' (Assembly/AU/Dec.310\(XV\)). The Friends of the Panel of the Wise is comprised of outgoing members of the Panel of the Wise who are tasked to support the incoming Panel in its activities such as fact-finding missions, engagement in formal negotiations and follow up on recommendations. The Friends enjoy the same privileges and entitlements as the Panel members.

Pan-African Network of the Wise (PanWise)

Establishment of the Pan-African Network of the Wise (PanWise) was endorsed by the AU Assembly in May 2013 (Assembly/AU/Decl.1\(XXI\)) to bring the Panel of the Wise together with regional counterparts with complementary responsibilities. The objective of PanWise is to strengthen, coordinate and harmonise conflict prevention and peace-making efforts in Africa under a single umbrella.

The Panel of the Wise adopted the Framework for the Operationalisation of PanWise in 2012, which sets out the modalities of its operation. The AU Assembly endorsed this in May 2013. PanWise will undertake activities such as mediation, conciliation and fact-finding missions; the promotion of democratic principles, human rights and international humanitarian law; joint research with the Regional Economic Communities (RECs); workshops to share best practices and lessons learned; and joint training and capacity-building initiatives. The modalities for meetings are still under discussion.

Continental Early Warning System (CEWS)

Purpose

The Continental Early Warning System (CEWS) was established in line with the PSC Protocol, article 12, as one of the pillars of the African Peace and Security Architecture (APSA). The main objective of CEWS is to anticipate and prevent conflicts on the continent, and to provide timely information about evolving violent conflicts, based on specifically developed indicators.

CEWS consists of the:

- Situation Room, located in the Peace and Security Department
- Observation and Monitoring Centres of the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and Regional Mechanisms (RMs).

The Situation Room, which is the hub of CEWS, operates 24 hours a day, including weekends and holidays. Its main task is information monitoring and data collection on simmering, potential, actual and post-conflict initiatives and activities in Africa. The Situation Room monitors and reports information in order to facilitate timely and informed decision-making.

The PSC Protocol, article 12, also provides for coordination and collaboration with international organisations, research centres, academic institutions and non-governmental organisations (NGOs) to facilitate the functioning of CEWS. The Framework for the Operationalisation of CEWS also stresses the importance of collaboration with civil society organisations (CSOs), and stresses conflict prevention as a prerequisite for the successful operation of CEWS.

Evolution

While CEWS was established under the AU, some early warning functions were performed by the OAU's Centre for Conflict Management, which was established in 1994 as part of the OAU's Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution. Core tasks in support of the Mechanism included collecting, analysing and disseminating early warning data on current and potential conflicts.

Peace Fund

Under article 21 of the PSC Protocol (2002), the role of the Peace Fund is to provide “the necessary financial resources for peace support missions and other operational activities related to peace and security”. The Protocol provides for the Fund to be made up of financial appropriations from the regular AU budget; voluntary contributions from Member States, international partners and other sources, such as the private sector, civil society and individuals; as well as through fund-raising activities. The Chairperson of the AUC is mandated to raise and accept voluntary contributions from sources outside Africa, in conformity with the AU’s objectives and principles.

The PSC Protocol also envisaged a revolving trust fund within the broader Peace Fund that would provide a standing reserve for specific projects in case of emergencies and unforeseen priorities. The level of funding required in the revolving trust fund is to be determined by the relevant AU policy organs on recommendation by the PSC.

In January 2016, the Chairperson of the AU Commission appointed Donald Kaberuka, a Rwandan economist, former Minister of Finance and former President of the African Development Bank, as the AUC High Representative on the Peace Fund. His mandate included identifying and mobilising resources for AU peace and security-related activities in order to assist the AU to meet its commitment of providing 25 percent of the cost of AU-led Peace Support Operations (PSOs) by 2020 (see Assembly/AU/Dec.577\(XXV\) and Assembly/AU/Dec.578\(XXV\) of June 2015, and Assembly/AU/Dec.561\(XXIV\) of January 2015).

AU Assembly decision 605\(XXVII\) of July 2016 included adopting recommendations from the High Representative for the Fund to have three thematic windows, Mediation and Preventive Diplomacy, Institutional Capacity and Peace Operations; clear governance structures; and independent fund management. See the Budget and Scale of Assessment chapter for financial information.

African Standby Force (ASF)

ASF Chief of Staff, Peace Support Operations Division (PSOD), AUC: Brigadier-General Tijjani Kangbap Golau, Nigeria (appointed in July 2014)

The PSC Protocol, article 13(1) and (2) provides for an African Standby Force to be deployed by the PSC for participation in peace support missions or where intervention is authorised by the AU Assembly (article 4(h) and (j) of the AU Constitutive Act).

Article 13 of the PSC Protocol provides for the ASF to perform:

- Observation and monitoring missions
- Other types of peace support missions
- Intervention in a Member State in respect of grave circumstances or at the request of a Member State in order to restore peace and security
- Prevention of a dispute or conflict from escalating
- Peacebuilding, including post-conflict disarmament and demobilisation
- Humanitarian assistance
- Any other functions mandated by the PSC or AU Assembly.

Article 13(1) of the PSC Protocol further provides that the ASF shall be composed of standby multidisciplinary contingents, with civilian and military components in their countries of origin, ready for rapid deployment. As of August 2016, the ASF was composed of pledged capabilities in five Regional Economic Communities/Regional Mechanisms (RECs/RMs) Planning Elements (PLANELMs) in Regional Headquarters in each of the five regions, a Continental Logistics Base (CLB) in Douala, Cameroon, and five Regional Logistics Depots (RLDs). The RECs/RMs were scheduled to be on standby mode on a six-month alphabetical rotational basis from 1 January 2017. The rotation cycle was expected to then continue.

The five ASF RECs/RMs are:

Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS) Standby Force

Angola (also Southern)	Chad	Gabon
Burundi (also Eastern)	Congo	São Tomé and Príncipe
Cameroon	DR Congo (also Southern)
Central African Republic	Equatorial Guinea

Eastern Africa Standby Force (EASF)

Burundi (also Central)	Kenya	Sudan
Comoros	Rwanda	Uganda
Djibouti	Seychelles	Observer since April 2013:
Ethiopia	Somalia	South Sudan

North African Regional Capability (NARC) Standby Force

Algeria	Libya	Sahrawi Republic

Southern African Development Community (SADC) Standby Force

Angola (also Central)	Malawi	Swaziland
Botswana	Mauritius	UR of Tanzania
DR Congo (also Central)	Mozambique	Zambia
Lesotho	Namibia	Zimbabwe
Madagascar	South Africa

Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) Standby Force (ESF)

Benin	Ghana	Niger
Burkina Faso	Guinea	Nigeria
Cabo Verde	Guinea-Bissau	Senegal
Gambia	Mali	Togo

In efforts towards operationalising the ASF and ensuring that its full operational capability is attained, ECCAS, EASF, SADC and ECOWAS have held command-post and field training exercises. In addition, the AU conducted a command-post exercise, code named Amani Africa I, in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in 2010; a police training exercise, code named Exercise Njiwa, in Addis Ababa in 2012; and a field training exercise, code named Amani Africa II, in November 2015, in Addis Ababa and at the South African Army Combat Training Centre, in Lohatla, South Africa.

The Eastern Africa Standby Force Coordination Mechanism (EASFCOM) and North African Regional Capability (NARC) have stand-alone liaison offices at AU Headquarters in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. Other forces work through their existing Regional Economic Community (REC) liaison offices.

African Capacity for Immediate Response to Crises (ACIRC)

In May 2013, pending the African Standby Force (ASF) becoming fully operational, the AU Assembly established the African Capacity for Immediate Response to Crises (ACIRC) as an interim mechanism for immediate response to crises (see Assembly/AU/Dec.489\(XXI\)). In January 2014, the AU Assembly operationalised ACIRC as a transitional arrangement (Assembly/AU/Dec.515\(XXII\)) with the following initial participating countries: Algeria, Angola, Chad, Niger, Senegal, South Africa, Sudan, Uganda and UR of Tanzania. As of August 2016, ACIRC members also included Benin, Burkina Faso, Egypt and Rwanda. ACIRC is made up of a force of 7500 military personnel, as well as equipment.

The purpose of ACIRC is to provide the AU with a flexible and robust force, voluntarily provided by Member States, to effectively respond to emergency situations within the African Peace and Security Architecture (APSA) framework. This force's rapid deployment can be authorised by the AU Peace and Security Council (PSC) on request by an AU Member State.

In preparation for readiness of the pledged capabilities, ACIRC volunteering nations conducted a command-post exercise, code named Exercise Utulivu, in Dar es Salaam, UR of Tanzania, in November 2014.

Peace Support Operations

Nine AU Peace Support Operations (PSOs) have been deployed since 2003. The African Standby Force (ASF) policy framework provides for the Peace Support Operations Division (PSOD), under the AUC Department of Peace and Security, to be responsible for the execution of all PSC decisions about the deployment of PSOs. The Department of Peace and Security is also in charge of the planning, deployment, sustainment and liquidation of PSOs.

Most operation mandates are renewed periodically and can be revised if necessary. Military, police and civilian personnel strength numbers vary over time because of the rotation of contingents and personnel.

AU peace support operation funding arrangements vary between the missions but usually comprise funding from the AU Peace Fund, international partners and, in some cases, assessed contributions from the UN peacekeeping budget. Some troop contributing countries (TCCs) bear their own costs.

The African Union Mission in Somalia (AMISOM) was established by the AU Peace and Security Council on 19 January 2007 (PSC/PR/Comm\(LXIX\)) to support the transitional federal institutions in their efforts towards dialogue and reconciliation in Somalia; facilitate humanitarian assistance; and create conditions conducive for long-term stabilisation, reconstruction and development.

The Mission was also mandated under UN Security Council (UNSC) resolution 1744 (2007). AMISOM's initial mandate was for six months. This has since been extended several times, most recently on 7 July 2016 when the UNSC authorised AU Member States to maintain the AMISOM deployment until 31 May 2017 (UNSC resolution 2297). The 2016 resolution, amongst other things, authorised AU Member States to maintain a short-term maximum strength of 22,126 uniformed personnel as part of an overall exit strategy.

AMISOM's area of operation covers six sectors: Banadir, Lower Shabelle, Middle and Lower Jubba regions east of River Jubba; Middle Jubba and Lower Jubba west of River Jubba; Gedo, Bay and Bakool regions; Hiraan region and Galmudug IRA; Middle Shabelle regions; and Kismayo.

As of August 2016, AMISOM had a total of 21,461 troops, 540 police and 115 civilian staff including 72 internationally recruited staff. The military and police contingents were from:

Burundi	Ghana	Nigeria
Djibouti	Kenya	Uganda

Deputy Joint Special Representative (Pillar One): Jeremiah Kingsley Mamabolo, South Africa (appointment announced by the UN Secretary-General and the Chairperson of the AUC in March 2016)

Deputy Joint Special Representative (Pillar Two): Bintou Keita, Guinea (appointment announced by the UN Secretary-General and the Chairperson of the AUC in October 2015)

Force Commander: Lieutenant General Frank Mushyo Kamanzi, Rwanda (appointed by the UN Secretary-General in December 2015)

Police Commissioner: Priscilla Makotose, Zimbabwe (appointed in March 2016)

The African Union–United Nations Mission in Darfur (UNAMID) is a joint AU–UN peace-support mission mounted in response to the continuing violence in Sudan's Darfur region. It was jointly established by the Peace and Security Council (PSC) and UN Security Council (UNSC) in June 2007 and superseded the AU Mission in Sudan (PSC/PR/Comm\(LXXIX\) and UNSC resolution 1769 (2007)).

UNAMID's mandate was initially for one year from 31 July 2007. This was most recently extended by UNSC resolution 2296 (June 2016) to 30 June 2017. The same resolution reiterated UNSC endorsement of revised strategic priorities as set out in resolution 2148 (2014).

UNAMID had an initial authorised strength of 19,555 military and 6432 police personnel. UNSC resolution 2173 (August 2014) reset the troop ceiling to 15,845 military personnel, 1583 police and 13 formed police units of up to 140 personnel each, and this was confirmed in UNSC resolution 2296 (June 2016). As of 31 July 2016, there were 17,063 uniformed personnel including 13,608 troops and 3293 police. The troop contingents were from:

Bangladesh	Ghana	Papua New Guinea
Bhutan	Indonesia	Peru
Burkina Faso	Iran	Republic of Korea
Burundi	Jordan	Rwanda
Cambodia	Kenya	Senegal
Cameroon	Kyrgyzstan	Sierra Leone
China	Malawi	South Africa
Djibouti	Malaysia	Thailand
Ecuador	Mali	Togo
Egypt	Mongolia	Tunisia
Ethiopia	Namibia	UR of Tanzania
Fiji	Nepal	Yemen
Gambia	Nigeria	Zambia
Germany	Pakistan	Zimbabwe

Detailed strength and country contributor information, including police and civilian staff, is available on the website under 'Facts and Figures'.

Regional Cooperation Initiative for the Elimination of the Lord's Resistance Army (RCI-LRA)

Headquarters Regional Task Force (RTF): Yambio, South Sudan

Secretariat Joint Coordination Mechanism (JCM): Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

AU Special Envoy for the LRA issue: Jackson Kiprono Tuwei, Kenya (appointed in 2014)

Force Commander: Lucky Joseph Kidega, Uganda (appointed in 2015)

The PSC formally designated the Lord's Resistance Army (LRA) a terrorist group and authorised establishment of the Regional Cooperation Initiative for the Elimination of the LRA (RCI-LRA) in November 2011 (see PSC/PR/COMM.\(CCCXXI\)). Members of the RCI-LRA are countries affected by LRA activities: Central African Republic, DR Congo, South Sudan and Uganda. The RCI-LRA's core role is elimination of the LRA and creation of an environment conducive to the stabilisation, recovery and rehabilitation of the affected areas. The PSC most recently extended the RCI-LRA's mandate until 22 May 2017 (\(PSC/PR/COMM/1.\(CDVIII\). \(DCI\) of 30 May 2016).

The key components of the RCI-LRA are the Joint Coordination Mechanism (JCM) composed of affected countries' Ministers of Defence and chaired by the AU Commissioner for Peace and Security; JCM Secretariat and the Regional Task Force (RTF) with sector headquarters, in Nzara, South Sudan; Obo, Central African Republic; and Dungu, DR Congo.

The authorised troop ceiling is 5000. As of July 2016, there were 2468 troops composed of 487 from DR Congo, 499 from South Sudan, 1437 from Uganda and 32 from the Central Africa Republic, 12 military officers, and a police commissioner at the RTF Headquarters in Yambio, South Sudan.

Previous Operations

African Union led International Support Mission in Central African Republic (MISCA)

MISCA was established by the PSC on 19 July 2013 (PSC/PR/COMM.2\(CCCLXXXV\)) and endorsed and authorised by UN Security Council (UNSC) resolution 2127 (of 5 December 2013). It was the successor to the earlier Mission for the Consolidation of Peace in the Central African Republic (MICOPAX), which was supported by the Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS), European Union (EU) and the International Organisation of La Francophonie. The transfer from MICOPAX to MISCA took place on 19 December 2013. The initial mandate was for 12 months to December 2014.

Under UNSC resolution 2127, MISCA was mandated to contribute to: protection of civilians and restoration of security and public order; stabilisation of the country and restoration of the central government's authority; reform and restructuring of the defence and security sector; and creation of conditions conducive for providing humanitarian assistance to people in need. MISCA had an initial authorised strength of 3652, including 3500 uniformed personnel (2475 military and 1025 police) and 152 civilians. On 13 December 2013, the PSC authorised an increase of the mission strength to 6000.

UNSC resolution 2149 (of 10 April 2014) established the UN Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA). This resolution included transferring authority from MISCA to MINUSCA on 15 September 2014. MINUSCA's mandate was for an initial period until 30 April 2015. UNSC resolution 2301 (of 26 July 2016) extended MINUSCA's mandate until 15 November 2017.

African Union led International Support Mission in Mali (AFISMA)

AFISMA was a joint AU operation with the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) mandated by PSC Communiqué PSC/AHG/COMM/2.\(CCCLIII\) of 25 January 2013. AFISMA was also mandated by UNSC resolution 2085 (of 20 December 2012).

AFISMA's core mandate was to provide support to the Malian authorities in the restoration of state authority; support the preservation of Mali's national unity and territorial integrity; provide protection to civilians; reduce the threat posed by terrorist groups; support the Malian authorities in the implementation of the roadmap for transition; and assist the Malian authorities to reform Mali's defence and security sectors. AFISMA's authorised strength was 9620 personnel including 171 international and national civilians and 50 human rights observers.

AFISMA transferred its authority to the UN Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in Mali (MINUSMA) on 1 July 2013 (UNSC resolution 2100 of April 2013). UNSC resolution 2295 (of 29 June 2016) extended MINUSMA's mandate until 30 June 2017.

African Union Electoral and Security Assistance Mission to the Comoros (MAES)

MAES was established by PSC Communiqué PSC/MIN/Comm.1\(LXXVII\) of 9 May 2007, which authorised the deployment of the Mission following elections of the Island Governors in Comoros. MAES was mandated to: support the provision of a secure environment for the smooth holding of a second set of elections; monitor the electoral processes; encourage dialogue; and assist and facilitate the restoration of the Union Government's authority on the island of Anjouan.

Following further political upheaval, the Mission's mandate was revised in October 2007 and extended for six months to restore the constitutional authorities and assist with internal security. On 25 March 2008, immediately prior to the mandate ending, MAES forces conducted Operation Democracy, led by troops from the UR of Tanzania assisted by forces from Sudan.

African Union Mission for Support to the Elections in Comoros (AMISEC)

AMISEC was established by PSC Communiqué PSC/PR/Comm.1\(XLVII\) of 21 March 2006, at the request of the President of the Comoros, to provide a secure environment for the 2006 elections. AMISEC was mandated until 9 June 2006 to: support the reconciliation process; ensure that a secure environment was established during and after the elections; and ensure that the Comorian security forces were not involved in the elections. The Mission also had the duty to protect its personnel and civilians around the polling stations. The Mission's authorised strength was 462 military, civilian and police personnel.

African Union Mission in Sudan (AMIS)

PSC/AHG/Comm.\(X\) of 25 May 2004 authorised the deployment of an AU mission to monitor the 2004 Humanitarian Ceasefire Agreement between parties to the conflict in Sudan. PSC/PR/Comm\(XVII\) of 20 October 2004 transformed AMIS into a full peacekeeping mission, mandated to: contribute to the improvement of general security in Sudan; provide a secure environment for the delivery of humanitarian relief and the return of refugees; protect the civilian population in Darfur; monitor compliance of parties to the 2004 Humanitarian Ceasefire Agreement and the 2006 Darfur Peace Agreement; and provide assistance in the confidence-building processes to improve the political settlement processes in Darfur.

AMIS had an authorised strength of 3320 personnel including 2341 military (including 450 military observers), 815 police and some civilians.

AMIS was merged with the UN Mission in Sudan (UNMIS) in December 2007 to become the joint AU–UN Mission in Darfur (UNAMID). UNAMID's mandate was most recently extended until 30 June 2017 (UNSC resolution 2296 of June 2016).

African Union Mission in Burundi (AMIB)

AMIB was authorised in 2003 by the OAU Central Organ of the Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution, which operated pending the creation of the PSC. AMIB was mandated to supervise, observe, monitor and verify implementation of the ceasefire agreement to consolidate the peace process in Burundi. (See Central Organ/MEC/AMB/Comm.\(XCI\) of 2 April 2003.)

Between 2003 and 2004, AMIB performed tasks entrusted to it by the Central Organ including supporting the activities of the Joint Ceasefire Commission and technical committees responsible for establishing the new National Defence Force and Police Force. AMIB also supported the safe passage of people and delivery of humanitarian assistance, and provided technical assistance for disarmament, demobilisation and reintegration. The authorised uniformed strength of AMIB was 3500 military personnel.

From June 2004, AMIB was succeeded by UN missions, most recently the UN Electoral Observation Mission in Burundi (MENUB), which began operations in Burundi on 1 January 2015 and concluded its mandate on 18 November 2015.

72 Other Bodies Related to the PSC

African Union Police Strategic Support Group (PSSG)

The Police Strategic Support Group (PSSG) was launched in June 2013 to provide strategic and technical advice and support to the PSC, AUC and Member States on matters concerning international policing for operations authorised by the PSC. The PSSG consists of two main levels, Chiefs of Police and Technical Experts.

African Mechanism for Police Cooperation (AFRIPOL)

The African Mechanism for Police Cooperation (AFRIPOL) was initiated by African police directors and inspectors general in 2014 as an independent mechanism under the aegis of the AU for police cooperation. The establishment of AFRIPOL was endorsed by the AU Executive Council in June 2014 (EX.CL/Dec.820\(XXV\)). Progress towards operationalisation was welcomed by the AU Assembly in June 2015 (Assembly/AU/Dec.584\(XXV\)) and January 2016, including efforts by Algeria in setting up AFRIPOL headquarters (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)).

The Commission is the African Union's secretariat. Its functions, as set out in article 3 of the Commission Statutes, include:

- Representing the AU and defending its interests under the guidance of and as mandated by the Assembly and Executive Council
- Initiating proposals to be submitted to the AU's organs as well as implementing decisions taken by them
- Acting as the custodian of the AU Constitutive Act and all other OAU/AU legal instruments
- Liaising closely with the AU organs to guide, support and monitor the AU's performance to ensure conformity and harmony with agreed policies, strategies, programmes and projects
- Providing operational support for all AU organs
- Assisting Member States in implementing the AU's programmes
- Drafting AU common positions and coordinating Member States' actions in international negotiations
- Managing the AU budget and resources
- Elaborating, promoting, coordinating and harmonising the AU's programmes and policies with those of the Regional Economic Communities (RECs)
- Ensuring gender mainstreaming in all AU programmes and activities
- Taking action, as delegated by the Assembly and Executive Council.

Evolution

The Commission was established under article 5 of the AU Constitutive Act (Organs of the AU). It replaced the OAU General Secretariat.

Structure

The Commission is composed of a chairperson, deputy chairperson and eight commissioners, plus staff (Constitutive Act, article 20; Commission Statutes, article 2). The Assembly elects the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson. The Executive Council elects the Commissioners, who are appointed by the Assembly. Commission members' terms are for four years, renewable once (Commission Statutes, article 10).

As of August 2016, the Commission had 1612 staff (659 regular and 953 short term) including those at Headquarters and regional offices.

Chairperson

The Chairperson of the Commission is the Chief Executive Officer, legal representative of the AU and the Commission's Chief Accounting Officer (Commission Statutes, article 7). He or she is directly responsible to the Executive Council for the discharge of his or her duties.

Article 8 of the Commission Statutes outlines the Chairperson's functions, including:

- Chairing all Commission meetings and deliberations
- Undertaking measures aimed at promoting and popularising the AU's objectives and enhancing its performance
- Submitting reports requested by the Assembly, Executive Council, Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC), committees and any other organs
- Preparing, with the PRC, the AU budget and strategic planning documents
- Acting as a depository for all AU and OAU treaties and legal instruments
- Facilitating the functioning, decision-making and reporting of all AU organ meetings, and ensuring conformity and harmony with agreed AU policies, strategies, programmes and projects
- Consulting and coordinating with Member States' governments, other institutions and the RECs on the AU's activities, and carrying out the AU's diplomatic representations
- Appointing and managing Commission staff
- Assuming overall responsibility for the Commission's administration and finances
- Preparing the annual report on the AU and its organs' activities.

The Chairperson of the Commission is elected by the Assembly for a four-year term, renewable once. Election is by secret ballot and a two-thirds majority of Member States eligible to vote. Elections and terms are governed by the AU Assembly Rules of Procedure (chapter II) and the Commission Statutes (articles 6 and 10).

An election was scheduled to be held during the July 2016 Assembly Summit. This was postponed after no candidate gathered two-thirds of votes, as required under the Assembly Rules of Procedure (chapter II, rule 38). The Assembly decided to extend the term of office for the Commission Members and re-open the nomination process until new elections were held, scheduled for January 2017 (Assembly/AU/Dec.610\(XXVII\)).

Deputy Chairperson

The Deputy Chairperson assists the Chairperson in the execution of his or her functions for the smooth running of the Commission and is in charge of administration and finance. The Deputy acts as the Chairperson in his or her absence.

The Deputy Chairperson is elected by the Assembly for a four-year term, renewable once. Election is by secret ballot and a two-thirds majority of Member States eligible to vote. The Deputy must not be from the same region as the Chairperson of the Commission. Elections and terms are governed by the AU Assembly Rules of Procedure (chapter II) and the Commission Statutes (articles 6 and 10).

Notes

- ¹ In July 2016 and January 2012, the AU Assembly extended existing Commission Members' terms of office until its next Summits (Assembly/AU/Dec.610\(XXVII\) and Assembly/AU/Dec.414\(XVIII\), respectively).
- ² Amara Essy, Côte d'Ivoire, was the interim Chairperson 2002–03 during transition from the OAU to AU.

Commissioners

Eight commissioners are elected by the AU Executive Council and appointed by the Assembly for four-year terms, renewable once. The regions from which the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson are appointed are entitled to one commissioner each. All other regions are entitled to two commissioners. At least one commissioner from each region shall be a woman. Voting for each portfolio is by a series of ballots if required and a two-thirds majority. Appointments are declared during the Assembly Summit following the Executive Council elections. Elections for Commissioners whose terms of office expired in July 2016 were postponed until January 2017 (Assembly/AU/Dec.610\(XXVII\)).

Elections and terms are governed by the AU Assembly Rules of Procedure (chapter II), Executive Council Rules of Procedure (chapter II) and the Commission Statutes (articles 6 and 10). The Executive Council Rules of Procedure (chapter II) also set out the nomination and selection process.

The Commissioners support the Chairperson in running the Commission and have the responsibility to implement all decisions, policies and programmes relating to their portfolios (Commission Statutes, article 11). The eight portfolios are set out in the Commission Statutes (article 12).

The following bureaus, offices and directorates report to the Office of the Chairperson through the Chief of Staff.

Bureau of the Chairperson

Chief of Staff: Jennifer Susan Chiriga, Zimbabwe

Headed and managed by the Chief of Staff, the Bureau supports the Chairperson in the execution of his or her responsibilities. Key functions include: ensuring coordination and liaison among directorates and departments directly and indirectly under the Chairperson's supervision; providing advisory services to the Chairperson; and managing tasks, correspondence and statements by the Chairperson. In addition to the Cabinet and advisers, the Bureau is composed of the following office, unit, directorate, committee and division heads.

Office of the Secretary-General to the Commission

Secretary-General of the Commission: Djeneba Diarra, Mali

The Office assists the Chairperson to establish general policy and the direction and coordination of the Commission's work. It also assists in managing programmes and other elements of the AU, as well as contacts with governments, delegations, the media and public. The Office further assists the Chairperson with strategic planning, preparation of reports, liaison and representative functions, and fulfilment of the priorities and mandates set out by the Assembly.

Office of the Legal Counsel (OLC)

Website: www.au.int/en/legal

Legal Counsel: vacant

The OLC provides a unified central legal service for the AU including all its organs and institutions. The OLC ensures that decision-making processes are compliant with AU legal frameworks, provides advice on the interpretation of AU legal instruments and supports the Executive Council and Assembly in preparation for elections. The OLC also provides legal advice on cooperation with international or internationalised judicial accountability mechanisms, and legal services for special political missions, peacekeeping operations and other field missions on matters such as diplomatic privileges and immunities and the legal status of the organisation.

The Secretariat of the AU Commission on International Law is located at the OLC.

Office of Internal Audit (OIA)

Website: www.au.int/en/au/dia

Director: Regina Maambo Muzamai, Zambia

The Office is the AU's internal oversight body for ensuring the AU rules and procedures in place are effective. Its role is to undertake internal audits, investigations and advisory services, including inspections, as well as evaluations of the adequacy and effectiveness of internal control systems and operational activities.

The Office reports to the Chairperson of the Commission. It is mandated to provide oversight coverage of all AU activities. This includes preparing and implementing auditing programmes and liaising with external auditors.

The Office issues annual and periodic reports and makes recommendations aimed at improving internal control and organisational efficiency and effectiveness. It submits reports on each activity audited to the Chairperson of the Commission. The Office also submits quarterly and periodic audit reports containing budget performance information to the AU Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC) Sub-Committee on Audit Matters.

Directorate of Women, Gender and Development (WGDD)

Website: www.au.int/en/wgd

Director: Mahawa Kaba Wheeler, Guinea

The Directorate promotes gender equality in Africa and within the AU. It designs programmes and projects based on policies and frameworks adopted by AU Member States. It also oversees the development and harmonisation of gender-related policies; initiates gender-mainstreaming strategies within the Commission and for AU organs and Member States; and supports capacity building by providing training on gender policies and instruments.

The Directorate has two divisions: Gender Policy and Development Division (GPDD) and Gender Coordination and Outreach.

Directorate of Strategic Planning, Policy, Monitoring, Evaluation and Resource Mobilisation (SPPMERM)

Website: www.au.int/en/auc/sppme

Director: Mesfin Ashagrie, Ethiopia

The Directorate's mandate is to ensure smooth institutional relationships between the AU and other international institutions, and to coordinate strategic planning among Commission departments. The Directorate's functions include to: establish rules and procedures to ensure coordinated policy development across the Commission; provide strategic planning support; coordinate administrative programmes and activities; support capacity building; mobilise resources from international partners; design monitoring and evaluation procedures for programme assessment; provide knowledge management; strengthen the AU's external partnerships and contribute to the promotion of the AU worldwide.

The Directorate has four divisions: Resource Mobilisation; Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation; Policy Analysis and Research; and Knowledge Management.

Citizens and Diaspora Directorate (CIDO)

Website: www.au.int/en/cido

Acting Director: Ahmed EL-Basheer, Sudan

The Directorate is designed to serve as a catalyst to facilitate the involvement of African peoples in Africa and around the world in the affairs of the AU. CIDO has two divisions, the Civil Society Division and the Diaspora Division. It also has a unit that serves as the Secretariat of the Economic, Social and Cultural Council (ECOSOCC). The Council, which is composed of civil society organisations (CSOs) and non-state organs, was established in 2004 as an advisory organ to the AU (see the ECOSOCC chapter for more information).

Directorate of Information and Communication (DIC)

Website: www.au.int/en/auc/dci

Director: Leslie Richer, Kenya

The Directorate develops, plans and conducts activities designed to provide information about the AU, including its aims and activities, to a wide range of audiences. It uses a variety of means including print media, internet, new information technology and publications; and partnerships with Member States, academia, libraries, youth and civil society. The Directorate disseminates information in the AU's working languages.

The Directorate also acts as the Commission's spokesperson; develops outreach and advocacy programmes; advises senior management on editorial issues for speeches and statements; and supports each department in designing communication and information strategies. In addition, the Directorate supports the development of a proposal to establish an AU radio station and television channel.

DIC has two divisions: Information and Communication.

New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD) Coordination Unit

Acting Head/Coordinator: Lazarous Kapambwe, Zambia

The Unit acts as the focal point between the AUC and the NEPAD Planning and Coordinating Agency (NPCA). The Unit supports the Chairperson of the Commission in the execution of his or her supervisory role over the NPCA and advises on any matter related to NEPAD. The Unit monitors implementation by Commission departments of AU decisions on NEPAD and its programmes. In addition, it acts as the Secretariat of the Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC) Sub-Committee on NEPAD.

Intelligence and Security Committee (ISC)

Coordinator: Okechukwu Emmanuel Ibe, Nigeria

The ISC's mandate is to prepare intelligence analysis and briefings on evolving trends and to provide early warning signals on peace and security issues as well as socio-economic and health issues that may impact on the continent. It also monitors and analyses international events that may have an impact on the continent, including terrorism.

The ISC prepares intelligence briefings for the Chairperson of the Commission. It also works with the Committee of Intelligence and Security Services of Africa (CISSA), AUC Peace and Security Department, Political Affairs Department and the Department of Social Affairs, and coordinates with UN structures that provide critical information relating to Africa.

Protocol Services Directorate

Website: www.au.int/en/auc/protocol

Chief of Protocol: Simone Abala, Gabon

The Directorate advises on all protocol-related issues. It works in line with the guiding principles of international and regional treaties to regulate and facilitate the AU's interactions with stakeholders, including Member States, AU organs, the Regional Economic Communities (RECs), partners, international organisations and civil society organisations (CSOs).

The Directorate's main duties and responsibilities include: implementing practical aspects of the Headquarters Agreement between the Ethiopian Government and the AUC with respect to privileges, immunities and related matters; consular activities; airport and related duties; conference, ceremony and official event logistics; drafting congratulatory and condolence messages; compiling and updating diplomatic lists; providing induction courses for newly elected AU members; and providing custody services for AU and Member State ceremonial items.

Partnership Management and Coordination Division (PMCD)

Head: Levi Uche Madueke, Nigeria

The Division's mandate centres on managing and coordinating activities emanating from the AU's strategic partnerships with other parts of the world, particularly in relation to Agenda 2063 and its First Ten-Year Implementation Plan. The strategic direction of PMCD is geared towards supporting the AUC's efforts to give new meaning and impetus to relationships with the world in addressing the challenges Africa faces for economic development and integration; and focusing on long-term strategic and sustainable relationships.

The Division liaises with the Directorate of Programming, Budget, Finance and Accounting; Directorate of Strategic Planning, Policy, Monitoring, Evaluation and Resource Mobilisation (SPPMERM); and various other implementing departments and directorates. This liaison work is undertaken in order to ensure that narrative and financial reports are submitted in a timely manner to the Office of the Chairperson so that the reports can be discussed, approved and submitted to the partners within the period prescribed in the Grant Agreements.

Office of the Deputy Chairperson

Website: www.au.int/en/dcpauc

Deputy Chief of Staff

Anthony Isoe Okara, Kenya (appointed by the Deputy Chairperson in 2008)

Patrick Kankya, Uganda (appointed by the Deputy Chairperson in 2008)

Bureau of the Deputy Chairperson

The Bureau of the Deputy Chairperson is mandated to support the Deputy Chairperson to execute his or her role in the effective running of the Commission, particularly administrative and financial issues. The Bureau provides further support in the implementation of the Deputy's activities as delegated by the Chairperson. The Bureau is composed of the following directorates.

82 Directorate of Administration and Human Resources Management (AHRM)

Website: www.au.int/en/auc/dahrd

Director: Amine Idriss Adoum, Chad

The Directorate oversees the management of administrative services and human resources for the entire Commission. Its roles include developing rules, procedures and policies on human resources; managing Commission management information systems; managing Commission facilities, property and inventory systems; and overseeing safety and security, travel and stores, and transport and procurement matters.

The Directorate has five divisions and one stand-alone unit. The divisions are: Administration and Facilities Management; Human Resources Management; Security and Safety Services; Management of Information Systems; and Procurement, Travel and Stores. The stand-alone unit is the Passport Unit.

Directorate of Programming, Budget, Finance and Accounting (PBFA)

Website: www.au.int/en/auc/dpbfa

Director: Assietou Sylla Diouf, Senegal

The Directorate's role is to administer and ensure compliance with the AUC's financial rules and regulations, as well as budgetary and accounting policies and procedures, for the smooth running of programmes. Its responsibilities are to: develop and implement policies, rules and regulations for the effective use of budgetary programmes and funds; monitor implementation of programmes against the allocated budget; coordinate training on programmatic and budgetary matters; follow up on the conduct of external audits; and analyse, document and report on the Commission's expenditure.

The Directorate has five divisions: Accounting; Programming and Budgeting; External Resource Management; Financial Management; and Peace and Security Finance.

Directorate of Conference Management and Publications (DCMP)

Website: www.au.int/en/auc/dcs

Director: Khellaf Lamouchi Nedjat, Algeria

The Directorate's mandate is to provide comprehensive planning and management of AU conferences and meetings. It undertakes this in close collaboration with the relevant Commission departments and directorates. The Directorate's work includes providing translation, interpretation and secretarial services for conferences, as well as reproducing and distributing conference documents. Interpretation and translation services are provided in the organisation's four working languages: Arabic, English, French and Portuguese.

The Directorate is composed of two divisions and two units: Translation and Interpretation Divisions, and Coordination and Printing Units.

Medical and Health Services Directorate

Website: www.au.int/en/auc/msd

Director: Yankuba Kassama, Gambia

The Directorate's mandate is to provide medical care to AUC staff members and their dependents; the AU Member State diplomatic corps and their dependents; AU consultants and contractors; and delegates and partners attending official missions. The Directorate also oversees medical plans and insurances for the Commission and regional offices. The Directorate provides health services to participants in AU conferences, meetings and summits and assists AU peace support operations in the planning and management of their health services.

The Directorate has two divisions: Medical Support Service and Clinical Services.

Departments

Department of Peace and Security

Website: www.peaceau.org

Facebook: www.facebook.com/pages/Peace-Security-Dept-of-the-African-Union-Commission/302661349775297

Twitter: @AU_PSD

YouTube: www.youtube.com/user/africaforpeace1

Acting Director: Admore Mupoki Kambudzi, Zimbabwe

The Department's mandate is to support the Peace and Security Council (PSC) in carrying out its responsibilities under the PSC Protocol. It also supports the Commission in its activities related to peace, security and stability across the continent. The Department's core objectives are to:

- Implement the Common African Defence and Security Policy (CADSP)
- Operationalise the African Peace and Security Architecture (APSA)
- Support efforts to prevent, manage and resolve conflicts
- Promote programmes for the structural prevention of conflicts, including through the African Union Border Programme (AUBP)
- Implement the AU's Policy Framework on Post-Conflict Reconstruction and Development (PCRD)
- Coordinate, harmonise and promote peace and security programmes in Africa, including with Regional Economic Communities (RECs); Regional Mechanisms for conflict prevention, management and resolution; and international partners.

The Department's divisions are: Conflict Prevention and Early Warning; Crisis Management and Post-Conflict Reconstruction; Peace Support Operations; Defence and Security; and the PSC Secretariat. Among the Department's support functions are the: Programme Management Team (PMT), Peace and Security Finance (PSF) Division, the Make Peace Happen Campaign, Communications, Partnerships and Registry.

The peace and security operations supported by the Department are listed in the Peace and Security Council chapter. Peace and security offices and missions supported by the Department, together with the names of special representatives, are listed at the end of this chapter. The Department oversees the African Centre for the Study and Research on Terrorism. See the Specialised Agencies and Other Bodies chapter for details.

Department of Political Affairs (DPA)

Website: www.au.int/en/pa

Director: Khabele Matlosa, Lesotho

The Department is responsible for promoting good governance, democratic principles, the rule of law, respect for human rights and humanitarian and forced displacement issues as well as the participation of civil society organisations in the development of Africa. Key mandates include promoting AU shared values; implementing AU instruments on governance, elections, democracy and humanitarian affairs; coordinating AU election observation and monitoring missions; providing technical support to the electoral bodies; coordinating implementation of the African governance architecture and its platform; and implementing sustainable solutions to humanitarian and political crises, including through preventive diplomacy.

The Department has two divisions: Democracy, Governance, Human Rights and Elections; and Humanitarian Affairs, Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons.

The Department also hosts the African Governance Architecture (AGA) Secretariat. The AGA is a platform for dialogue among stakeholders, and is the political and institutional framework for the promotion, protection and sustenance of democracy, governance, human rights and humanitarian assistance on the continent. It was established in 2012. Rules of Procedure for the Platform were adopted by the January 2016 AU Assembly Summit (Assembly/AU/Dec.589(XXVI)). See www.aga-platform.org for more information.

Department of Infrastructure and Energy

Website: www.au.int/en/ie

Director: Cheikh Bedda, Mauritania

The Department is responsible for ensuring the development of infrastructure and energy resources at the regional and continental levels. Key roles include: promoting, coordinating, implementing and monitoring programmes and policies on transport, energy, information communications technology (ICT), postal services and tourism in collaboration with the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and AU specialised institutions and agencies; facilitating private sector initiatives on infrastructure development; and advocating among development partners for programme implementation.

There are three divisions: Energy; Information Society; and Transport and Tourism.

The Department also oversees the Programme for Infrastructure Development in Africa (PIDA), which is an AUC initiative in partnership with the UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA), African Development Bank (AfDB) and the NEPAD Planning and Coordinating Agency (NPCA). PIDA aims to address the infrastructure deficit in Africa in order to boost trade and development. The Programme and its strategic framework, the Institutional Architecture for Infrastructure Development in Africa (IAIDA), were approved by the AU Assembly in January 2012 (Assembly/AU/Decl.2(XVIII)). For more information, see www.au-pida.org.

Department of Social Affairs

Website: www.au.int/en/sa

Director: Olawale I Maiyegun, Nigeria

The Department works to promote the AU's health, labour, employment, migration, social development, drug control, crime prevention, sport and cultural agenda. Its core roles include: providing support for the implementation of Member States' policies on labour, employment, population, health and migration; developing programmes and strategies on drug control and other issues; and promoting AU instruments for advancing the social and solidarity agenda.

The Department has six divisions: Health, Nutrition and Population; HIV/AIDs, Malaria, Tuberculosis and Other Infectious Diseases; Labour, Employment and Migration; Social Welfare, Vulnerable Groups and Drug Control; Sport; and Culture. It also hosts the Secretariat of the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child (ACERWC). See the Judicial, Human Rights and Legal Organs chapter for details about ACERWC.

The Department also hosts and works with the following four specialised offices: the African Academy of Languages (ACALAN), Centre for Linguistic and Historical Studies by Oral Tradition (CELHTO), African Institute for Remittances (AIR) and Africa Centres for Disease Control and Prevention (Africa CDC). See the Specialised Agencies and Other Bodies chapter for details.

Department of Trade and Industry (DTI)

Website: www.au.int/en/ti

Director: Treasure Thembisile Maphanga, Swaziland

The Department's mandate is to contribute towards making Africa a significant and competitive trading partner in the global economy as well as an integrated trading bloc within the continent. The ultimate objective is to increase employment and wealth, and contribute towards sustainable growth and development.

The Department's core functions are to: ensure the formulation, implementation and harmonisation of trade and investment policies to promote inter- and intra-African trade; ensure development of policies on tariffs, non-tariff barriers and free movement of business people; liaise with relevant stakeholders, such as chambers of commerce, industrial associations, exporters, importers, non-governmental organisations and the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) to enhance Africa's share of global trade and deepen economic integration; provide support to AU Member States in global trade negotiations; and collect, analyse and monitor data on multilateral trends in trade and the impact on Africa.

The Department is also responsible for implementing initiatives such as the Accelerated Industrial Development of Africa (AIDA) and the Africa Mining Vision (AMV), which promote transparency, social responsibility and tax compliance in the extractive industry; supporting the AU in boosting intra-African trade; and fast tracking the establishment of the Continental Free Trade Area (CFTA).

The Department has three divisions: Trade; Industry; and Customs Cooperation.

Department of Rural Economy and Agriculture (DREA)

Acting Director: Janet Edeme, Nigeria

The Department's mandate is to boost AU Member States' rural economy development and agricultural productivity based on sound environmental management and by promoting the adoption of appropriate measures, strategies, policies and programmes on agriculture. It works closely with the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and other partners. Key tasks include to: develop programmes ensuring food security; promote rural communities' initiatives and transfer of technologies; coordinate efforts to eradicate poverty and combat desertification and drought; promote agricultural products by small-scale producers; support the harmonisation of policies and strategies between the RECs; and initiate research on climate change, water and sanitation management.

The Department has three divisions: Agriculture and Food Security; Environment, Climate Change, Water, Land and Natural Resources; and Rural Economy. The Department's flagship programmes include the Comprehensive Africa Agriculture Development Programme (CAADP), Great Green Wall for the Sahara and Sahel Initiative, integrated water resources management, climate change, disaster risk reduction, multilateral environmental agreements, rural infrastructure, pastoral policy and earth observation.

The Department also hosts the following regional offices: Inter-African Phytosanitary Council (IAPSC); Coordination Office for the Fouta Djallon Highlands development project;

Inter-African Bureau for Animal Resources (IBAR); Pan African Veterinary Vaccine Centre (PANVAC); and Semi-Arid Food Grain Research and Development (SAFGRAD). See the Specialised Agencies and Other Bodies chapter for details.

Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology

Website: www.au.int/en/hrst

Acting Director: Mahama Ouedraogo, Burkina Faso

The Department's role is to ensure the coordination of AU programmes on human resource development matters. It is also mandated to promote science, technology and youth.

The Department encourages and provides technical support to Member States in the implementation of policies and programmes in its fields. Key roles include: promoting research and publication on science and technology; promoting cooperation among Member States on education and training; and encouraging youth participation in the integration of the continent.

The Department has three divisions: Human Resource and Youth Development; Education; and Science and Technology. It also coordinates the activities of the following technical offices: Scientific, Technical and Research Commission (STRC); African Observatory of Science, Technology and Innovation (AOSTI); Pan African University (PAU); Pan African Youth Union (PYU); International Centre for Girls' and Women's Education in Africa (CIEFFA); and the Pan African Institute for Education for Development (IPED)/African Observatory for Education.

Department of Economic Affairs

Website: www.au.int/en/ea

Director: René N'Guettia Kouassi, Côte d'Ivoire

The Department is mandated to initiate and promote policies and strategies to strengthen regional coordination and cooperation on economic integration initiatives. It aims to support private sector development and investment, mobilise development funding and accelerate the establishment of joint institutions such as the proposed African Central Bank, African Investment Bank, African Monetary Fund (see the Financial Institutions chapter for details) and African Stock Exchange.

The Department promotes the establishment of an African economic and monetary union; proposes policy solutions for resolution of Africa's debt problem; and provides a framework for harmonised statistics. Publications include the annual African Statistical Yearbook, Key Stats on African Integration and the African Integration and Development Review. The Department also organises the Congress of Africa Economists, and meetings of the Specialised Technical Committee (STC) on Finance, Monetary Affairs, Economic Planning and Integration.

The Department has four divisions: Economic Integration and Regional Cooperation; Private Sector Development, Investment and Resource Mobilisation; Economic Policies and Research; and Statistics. The Department is supporting the establishment of the AU Institute for Statistics and Statistics Training Centre.

Other Bodies

Board of External Auditors

The role of the Board is to carry out external auditing of AU accounts, including trust, project and special funds, and ensure that it conforms with generally accepted auditing standards and guidelines. The Board liaises with the AUC Office of Internal Audit, and reports to the AU Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC), which then reports to the AU Executive Council.

The AU Financial Rules and Regulations provide for the Board to comprise five heads of Member State supreme audit institutions, one from each region, appointed by the Executive Council for two-year terms, but with one member serving a second term for the purpose of institutional memory. The Rules and Regulations also provide for the Board to elect a chairperson for a two-year term, renewable once. The Board usually meets at AU Headquarters in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, once a year.

In July 2016, the Executive Council decided to reappoint members to serve for the financial year 2016/2017, in line with article 77 of the Financial Rules and Regulations (EX.CL/Dec.936(XXIX)).

President: Roger Nkodo Dang, Cameroon (elected on 27 May 2015 for the duration of the Fourth Parliament, May 2015 to May 2018)

Purpose

The Pan-African Parliament (PAP) is one of the nine organs proposed in the 1991 Treaty Establishing the African Economic Community \(Abuja Treaty\). Its purpose, as set out in article 17 of the AU Constitutive Act, is “to ensure the full participation of African peoples in the development and economic integration of the continent”. The Parliament is intended as a platform for people from all African states to be involved in discussions and decision-making on the problems and challenges facing the continent. The Parliament sits in Midrand, South Africa.

The PAP members are designated by the legislatures of their Member State, rather than being elected directly by the people, and, under the Protocol current as of September 2016, are all members of their domestic legislatures. The ultimate aim is for the Parliament to be an institution with full legislative powers, whose members are elected by universal suffrage. Until such time, the PAP has consultative, advisory and budgetary oversight powers within the AU.

The objectives and functions of the Parliament are set out in the 2001 Protocol to the Abuja Treaty relating to the Pan-African Parliament and in its Rules of Procedure (most recently amended in 2011). Functions include:

- Facilitating and overseeing implementation of AU policies, objectives and programmes
- Promoting human rights and consolidating democratic institutions and culture, good governance transparency and the rule of law by all AU organs, Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and Member States
- Participating in creating awareness among the peoples of Africa on the: AU's objectives, policy aims and programmes; strengthening of continental solidarity, cooperation and development; promotion of peace, security and stability; and pursuit of a common economic recovery strategy
- Contributing to the harmonisation and coordination of Member States' legislation
- Promoting the coordination of RECs' policies, measures, programmes and activities
- Preparing and adopting its budget and Rules of Procedure
- Electing its Bureau members
- Making recommendations on the AU budget.

Evolution

The PAP originated with the Abuja Treaty (1991), which called for the establishment of a parliament to ensure that the peoples of Africa are fully involved in the economic development and integration of the continent. The Sirte Declaration (1999) repeated the call for early establishment. The Protocol to the Treaty Establishing the African Economic Community Relating to the Pan-African Parliament was adopted on 2 March 2001 at the OAU Summit in Sirte, Libya, and entered into force on 14 December 2003. The Parliament's first session was held in March 2004.

The AU Assembly adopted the Protocol to the Constitutive Act of the African Union Relating to the Pan-African Parliament during its June 2014 Summit (Assembly/AU/Dec.529(XXIII)). The new Protocol will come into force 30 days after the deposit of instruments of ratification by a simple majority of AU Member States. As of September 2016, 12 Member States had signed the Protocol and two had deposited their instruments of ratification.

The 2014 Protocol includes that the Parliament shall be the legislative organ of the AU, with the AU Assembly determining the subjects/areas on which the Parliament may propose draft model laws and for the Parliament to make its own proposals on the subjects/areas on which it may submit or recommend draft model laws to the Assembly for its consideration and approval (article 8).

The 2014 Protocol also includes provisions for at least two of each Member State's five members to be women (article 4(2)); that members shall be elected by their national parliament or other deliberative organ from outside its membership and that elections shall be conducted in the same month by all Member States as far as possible (article 5(1)); and that the procedure for election shall be determined by national parliaments or other deliberative bodies until a code is developed for election to PAP by direct universal suffrage (article 3).

Structure

The Parliament has up to 250 members representing the 50 AU Member States that have ratified the Protocol establishing it (five members per Member State, including at least one woman and reflecting the diversity of political opinions in their own national parliament or deliberative organ).² Under rule 7(2) of the PAP Rules of Procedure, a parliamentarian's tenure of office shall begin when he or she has taken the oath of office or made a solemn declaration during a PAP plenary session. A parliamentarian's term should correspond to his or her own national parliament term or any other deliberative organ that elected or designated the parliamentarian.

The full Assembly of the Parliament is called the Plenary. It is the main decision-making body and passes resolutions. The Plenary consists of the Member State representatives and is chaired by the President of the Parliament.

The PAP organs are the Bureau and Permanent Committees (PAP Rules of Procedure, rule 3). The Bureau is composed of a president and four vice-presidents, representing the five AU regions, and is responsible for the management and administration of the Parliament and its organs (PAP Rules of Procedure, rule 17(a)). There are 10 Permanent Committees and one ad hoc one, whose mandate and functions are set out in rules 22 to 27 of the PAP Rules of Procedure. These functions correspond to those of the AU Specialised Technical Committees. Rule 22(5) provides for each committee to comprise up to 30 members.

Under rule 83 of the PAP Rules of Procedure, each of the five geographic regions should form a regional caucus composed of its members. The Rules of Procedure also provide for other types of caucuses to be established to deal with issues of common interest as the PAP deems necessary. There are two such caucuses: Women and Youth. Each caucus has a bureau comprising a chairperson, deputy chairperson and rapporteur.

The Secretariat assists in the day-to-day running of the Parliament, including reporting meetings, organising elections and managing staff. The Secretariat consists of a clerk, two deputy clerks and support staff.

Fourth Parliament Bureau: May 2015 to May 2018

President: Roger Nkodo Dang, Cameroon (Central Africa)
Vice-President, Eastern Africa: Safia Elmi Djibril, Djibouti (since 2016)
Vice-President, Northern Africa: Suilma Hay Emhamed Elkaid, Sahrawi Republic
Vice-President, Southern Africa: Eduardo Joaquim Mulembwe, Mozambique
Vice-President, Western Africa: Bernadette Lahai, Sierra Leone

Note

² The number of Member States represented may vary over time, where states are under sanction.

Permanent Committees

Committee on Education, Culture, Tourism and Human Resources

The Committee considers issues concerned with the development of human resources in Member States. It assists the Parliament with policy development and implementation of programmes on issues of access to education, promotion of culture and tourism, and human resource development.

Committee on Cooperation, International Relations and Conflict Resolution

The Committee considers policy issues on international cooperation and international relations on behalf of the Parliament and AU. It also deals with conventions and protocols linking the Parliament with regional and international institutions. The Committee examines revisions of AU protocols and treaties and provides assistance to the Parliament in its conflict prevention and resolution efforts.

Committee on Gender, Family, Youth and People with Disabilities

The Committee considers issues relating to the promotion of gender equality and assists the Parliament to oversee the development of AU policies and activities relating to family, youth and people with disabilities.

Committee on Monetary and Financial Affairs

The Committee examines the Parliamentary budget draft estimates. It also examines the AU budget and makes recommendations. The Committee reports to the Parliament on any problems involved in the implementation of the annual AU and PAP budgets. It advises the Parliament on economic, monetary and investment policies.

Committee on Trade, Customs and Immigration Matters

The Committee deals with matters relating to the development of policy for cross-border, regional and continental concerns within the areas of trade (primarily external trade), customs and immigration. It assists the Parliament to oversee relevant organs or institutions and AU policies relating to trade.

Committee on Health, Labour and Social Affairs

The Committee works to support the implementation of social development, labour and health policies and programmes throughout the AU, including through regional and international cooperation strategies.

Committee on Transport, Industry, Communications, Energy, Science and Technology

The Committee deals with the development of transport and communications infrastructure. It assists the Parliament to oversee the development and implementation of AU policies relating to transport, communication, energy, science and technology, and industry.

Committee on Rules, Privileges and Discipline

The Committee assists the Parliament Bureau to interpret and apply the PAP Rules of Procedure, as well as matters relating to privileges and discipline. It considers requests for 'waivers of immunity' submitted under the Rules of Procedure and examines cases of indiscipline. The Committee also considers proposals for amending the Rules of Procedure.

Committee on Justice and Human Rights

The Committee assists the Parliament in its role of harmonising and coordinating Member States' laws. It advocates for respect within the AU of the principles of freedom, civil liberties, justice, human and peoples' rights, and fundamental rights.

Committee on Rural Economy, Agriculture, Natural Resources and Environment

The Committee considers the development of common regional and continental policies in the agricultural sector. It provides assistance to the Parliament to oversee and promote the harmonisation of policies for rural and agricultural development as well as the AU's natural resources and environmental policies.

Committee on Audit and Public Accounts (CAPA)

The Committee considers internal and external audit reports on the PAP, and the Board of External Auditors' reports on the AU, and recommends measures for effective implementation of the recommendations.

Meetings

Under rule 28 of the PAP's Rules of Procedure, the Parliament should meet at least twice in ordinary session within a one-year period. Parliamentary sessions can last for up to one month. Under rule 29, the PAP can meet in extraordinary session.

The Permanent Committees meet twice a year (March and August) for statutory meetings (Rules of Procedure, rule 28) and can meet more often during parliamentary sessions or for non-statutory meetings when the need arises. The caucuses meet in ordinary session twice a year during parliamentary sessions (Rules of Procedure, rule 28).

Trust Fund

The Pan-African Parliament Trust Fund was established on 26 May 2005 to promote: good governance; transparency and democracy; peace, security and stability; gender equality; and development in the integration of African people within Africa and other nations. The Fund is also expected to support the fight against HIV/AIDS, hunger and poverty in Africa.

Head of Secretariat: Ahmed EL-Basheer, Sudan

Purpose

ECOSOCC was established under the provisions of articles 5 and 22 of the AU Constitutive Act. Its Statutes, adopted by the AU Assembly in July 2004, define it as an advisory organ composed of different social and professional groups of AU Member States (Assembly/AU/Dec.48\(III\)). The purpose of ECOSOCC is to provide an opportunity for African civil society organisations (CSOs) to play an active role in contributing to the AU's principles, policies and programmes.

ECOSOCC's functions include:

- Contributing, through advice, to the effective translation of the AU's objectives, principles and policies into concrete programmes, as well as evaluating those programmes
- Undertaking studies and making recommendations
- Contributing to the promotion and realisation of the AU's vision and objectives
- Contributing to the promotion of human rights, the rule of law, good governance, democratic principles, gender equality and child rights
- Promoting and supporting the efforts of institutions engaged in reviewing the future of Africa and forging pan-African values in order to enhance an African social model and way of life
- Fostering and consolidating partnerships between the AU and CSOs
- Assuming functions referred to it by other AU organs.

Evolution

The first ECOSOCC General Assembly was an interim one, which was inaugurated in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in October 2005. The first permanent Assembly was inaugurated in Dar es Salaam, UR of Tanzania, in September 2008. Its mandate ended in September 2012. The second permanent Assembly was inaugurated in Nairobi, Kenya, on 22 December 2014 after a campaign by the AU to encourage civil society to participate. Its mandate ends in December 2018.

In January 2016, the AU Assembly endorsed an offer from Zambia to host the ECOSOCC Secretariat, and directed the AUC to work together with Zambia to define the legal, structural and financial implications of the relocation (Assembly/AU/Dec.591\(XXVI\)). The Assembly also adopted ECOSOCC's Rules of Procedure (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)).

In July 2016, the AU Executive Council asked the AUC to provide financial resources to enable "elections into the ECOSOCC General Assembly for all the countries that are not represented" to be carried out before the end of 2016 (EX.CL/Dec.929\(XXIX\)).

Structure

Under article 4 of its Statutes, ECOSOCC is composed of two CSOs from each Member State;¹ 10 CSOs operating at regional level and eight at continental level; 20 CSOs from the African Diaspora, as defined by the Executive Council and covering the continents of the world; and six CSOs, in ex officio capacity, nominated by the AUC and based on special considerations, in consultation with Member States. Article 4 also provides for Member State, regional, continental and Diaspora representatives to be elected on the basis of 50 percent gender equality and 50 percent aged between 18 and 35. Members are elected for four-year terms and may be re-elected once.

CSO members include but are not limited to:

- Social groups, such as those representing women, children, youth, the elderly and people with disabilities and special needs
- Professional groups, such as associations of artists, engineers, health practitioners, social workers, media, teachers, sport associations, legal professionals, social scientists, academia, business organisations, national chambers of commerce, workers, employers, industry and agriculture, as well as other private sector interest groups
- Non-governmental organisations (NGOs), community-based organisations (CBOs) and voluntary organisations
- Cultural organisations
- Social and professional organisations in the African Diaspora (in accordance with the definition approved by the Executive Council).

ECOSOCC's highest decision- and policy-making body is its General Assembly, which is composed of all members as provided for in article 4 of the ECOSOCC Statutes. The role of the General Assembly is to submit advisory opinions and reports as well as proposals on the budget and activities; approve and amend the Code of Ethics and Conduct developed for CSOs affiliated to or working with the AU; and review and make recommendations on ECOSOCC activities.

The Assembly elects a bureau composed of a presiding officer and five deputies. Bureau members are elected on the basis of equitable geographical distribution and rotation, including one member representing the Diaspora. The ECOSOCC Statutes also provide for the General Assembly to elect an 18-member standing committee composed of the Bureau, Chairpersons of the 10 Sectoral Cluster Committees and two AUC representatives. The term of office for Standing Committee members is two years. The functions of the Standing Committee are to coordinate ECOSOCC's work, prepare its General Assembly meetings, follow up implementation of the Code of Ethics and Conduct developed for CSOs, and prepare and submit the ECOSOCC annual report to the AU Assembly. The Committee held its first meeting in July 2009.

The Statutes also provide for the General Assembly to establish the Credentials Committee, composed of one CSO representative from each of the five regions; one CSO representative from the African Diaspora; one nominated representative for special interest groups such as vulnerable groups, the aged, physically challenged and people living with HIV/AIDS; and two AUC representatives. The Committee's role is to be responsible for examining the credentials of ECOSOCC members and their representatives. Its Rules of Procedure are adopted by the General Assembly. Article 11 of the ECOSOCC Statutes established 10 Sectoral Cluster Committees as key operational mechanisms to formulate opinions and provide input into AU

Note

- ¹ Under the ECOSOCC Statutes, the total number of members is 150. However, the Statutes were adopted before South Sudan became an AU member, and, in practice, the total number will be 152. As of September 2016, the Statutes were awaiting amendment.

policies and programmes. The second General Assembly established a framework for their operationalisation, beginning in November 2015. The Committees, which mirror the AUC technical departments, are: Peace and Security; Political Affairs; Social Affairs; Trade and Industry; Infrastructure and Energy; Gender; Human Resources, Science and Technology; Rural Economy and Agriculture; Economic Affairs; and Cross-Cutting Programmes (such as HIV/AIDS, international cooperation and coordination with other AU institutions and organs). The ECOSOCC General Assembly may recommend amendments to the established Sectoral Cluster Committees. The ECOSOCC second General Assembly also highlighted the need for national chapters as a framework of accountability for elected members, and for disseminating information and mobilising support for AU policies and programmes. Pending a formal launch, interim chapters have been established in some Member States, including Mauritius, Nigeria, Sahrawi Republic and Zambia.

The structure of ECOSOCC is provided for in articles 8–12 of its Statutes. Article 14 provides for the Secretariat to be within the AUC. As of August 2016, the AUC Citizens and Diaspora Directorate (CIDO) office in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, continues to act as the Secretariat for ECOSOCC while arrangements are developed for the Secretariat to be based in Zambia.

Meetings

The General Assembly should meet in ordinary session once every two years. It may also meet in extraordinary session. The quorum for General Assembly meetings or of any of its committees is a simple majority (article 15). Each member has one vote. Decision-making is by consensus or, where consensus cannot be reached, by two-thirds majority of those present and voting (article 16). Questions of procedure require a simple majority. The frequency of committee meetings is yet to be provided in the Rules of Procedure.

JUDICIAL, HUMAN RIGHTS AND LEGAL ORGANS

JUDICIAL, HUMAN RIGHTS AND LEGAL ORGANS

African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR)

31 Bijilo Annex Layout, Kombo North District

Fax: +220 441 0504
Email: au-banjul@africa-union.org
Website: www.achpr.org and www.au.int/organs/cj

Purpose

The African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR) was inaugurated in 1987 to oversee and interpret the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (also known as the Banjul Charter). The Charter is a human rights instrument designed to champion the promotion and protection of human rights and basic freedoms in Africa.

Under the Charter, the Commission is charged with three major functions, the:

- Promotion of human and peoples' rights (article 45(1))
- Protection of human and peoples' rights (article 45(2))
- Interpretation of the Charter (article 45(3)).

The Charter provides for a 'communication procedure', under which states (under articles 48–49), organisations and individuals (under article 55) may take a complaint to the Commission alleging that a State Party to the Charter has violated one or more of the rights contained in the Charter. Following consideration of complaints, the Commission can make recommendations to the State Party concerned and to the AU Assembly.

The Commission may use its 'good offices' to secure a settlement at any stage of the proceedings. In emergency situations, where the life of a victim is in imminent danger, the Commission can invoke provisional measures under rule 111 of its Rules of Procedure requesting the state to delay any action pending its final decision on the matter.

Article 62 of the Charter requires each State Party to submit a report every two years on the legislative or other measures taken with a view to giving effect to the rights and freedoms guaranteed by the Charter. The Commission then issues concluding observations, which are recommendatory in nature. The Commission also submits a report of its activities to all AU Assembly ordinary sessions. These reports are considered by the Executive Council on behalf of the Assembly. The Commission may publish information about its protective activities only after the Executive Council and Assembly have adopted the report. The Executive Council can withhold authorisation for publication of these reports and has done so. In July 2016, the Council authorised publication of the 40th Activity Report.

Communication decisions, State Party reports and activity reports are available on the Commission's website, www.achpr.org.

Evolution

In July 1979, the OAU Assembly adopted a resolution calling on its Secretary-General to form a committee of experts to draft an African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights providing, among other things, for mechanisms to promote and protect the rights embodied in the Charter. The group's draft was unanimously adopted at a 1981 meeting of the OAU Heads of State and Government in Nairobi, Kenya, and the Charter came into force on 21 October 1986. This date is now celebrated as African Human Rights Day. The full Charter text is available on the Commission's website under 'Legal Instruments'.

The Charter provided for a Human Rights Commission to be established within the OAU. The Commission was officially inaugurated on 2 November 1987 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, after its members had been elected by the OAU Assembly in July of the same year. The Commission's Headquarters moved to Banjul, Gambia, in 1989.

Structure

The Commission consists of 11 members elected by the AU Assembly from experts nominated by State Parties to the Charter. The Assembly considers equitable geographical and gender representation in electing the Commission members. Terms are for six years, and members are eligible for re-election. The Commissioners serve in their personal capacities. In April 2005, the AU issued nomination guidelines excluding senior civil servants and diplomatic representatives.

The Commission elects a chairperson and vice-chairperson as the Bureau. Their terms are for two years, renewable once. The Bureau coordinates the Commission's activities and supervises and assesses the Secretariat's work. The Bureau is also empowered to take decisions between sessions on matters of emergency. The Secretariat provides administrative, technical and logistical support to the Commission. Staff are appointed by the Chairperson of the AUC.

Meetings

The Commission holds two ordinary sessions a year, usually for 10 to 15 days each in March/April and October/November. Extraordinary sessions may also be held. The working sessions may be open or closed to the public. The Commission may invite states, national liberation movements, specialised institutions, national human rights institutions (NHRIs), non-governmental organisations (NGOs) or individuals to take part in its sessions. As of April 2016, the Commission had granted affiliate status to 27 NHRIs and observer status to 498 NGOs. Ordinary session agendas are usually drawn up by the Commission's Secretariat in consultation with the Bureau. More detail about ordinary and extraordinary session agendas is on the website under 'Sessions'.

Registrar: Robert Eno, Cameroon (appointed in January 2012)

Deputy Registrar: Nouhou Diallo, Burkina Faso (appointed in June 2014)

Purpose

The African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights (AfCHPR) has jurisdiction over all cases and disputes submitted to it concerning the interpretation and application of the:

- African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights, which is the main human rights instrument in Africa
- Protocol that established the Court
- Any other relevant human rights instrument ratified by the State Party concerned.

The Court complements and reinforces the functions of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (see article 2 of the Protocol establishing the Court and part 4 of the Rules of Procedure (2010) of the Commission). Contrary to the Commission, which can only make recommendatory decisions, the Court's decisions are binding and can include orders of compensation or reparation.

Under article 5 of the 1998 Protocol establishing the Court, the Commission, State Parties to the Protocol and African inter-governmental organisations are entitled to submit cases to the Court. Non-governmental organisations (NGOs) with observer status before the Commission and individuals from State Parties that have made a declaration accepting the jurisdiction of the Court can also institute cases directly in accordance with article 34(6). As of 1 April 2016, 30 states had ratified the Protocol and eight had made a declaration in accordance with article 34(6) (see www.au.int/en/treaties for the full list).

In January 2016, the AU Assembly, as part of a decision on streamlining AU working methods, decided to empower individuals to directly petition the Court on the implementation or otherwise of AU policy organ decisions, provided they come from a Member State that is a party to the Protocol establishing the Court and that has accepted the jurisdiction of the Court to receive such cases in conformity with article 34(6) of the Protocol (Assembly/AU/Dec.597(XXVI)).

Evolution

The Court was established by article 1 of the Protocol to the Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights, which was adopted in June 1998 by OAU members in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso. The Protocol came into force on 25 January 2004, 30 days after it had been ratified by 15 Member States.

The first judges were elected in January 2006 in Khartoum, Sudan, and were sworn in before the AU Assembly on 2 July 2006 in Banjul, Gambia. The Court officially started operations in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in November 2006. In August 2007, it moved to Arusha, UR of Tanzania.

The Court initially dealt mainly with operational and administrative issues. Interim Rules of Procedure were adopted in June 2008 and final Rules of Court in 2010. The first application was received in 2008, first judgment delivered in 2009 and first public hearing held in March 2012. Details are on the website under 'Documents'.

Structure

The Court consists of 11 judges elected by the AU Assembly from African jurists nominated by State Parties to the Protocol. The Assembly considers equitable geographical, legal tradition and gender representation. The judges serve in their personal capacities. They are elected by secret ballot for six-year terms, renewable once (with the exception of some of those elected at the first election). No two judges may be of the same nationality. The judges elect a president and vice-president who serve two-year terms, renewable once.

The composition of the Court and election of judges is governed by articles 11 to 15 of the Protocol establishing the Court. The President of the Court works on a full-time basis while the other 10 judges work part time. A registrar assists the President with managerial and administrative work.

The Court sits four times a year in two-week ordinary sessions. Extraordinary sessions may also be held. A calendar is available on the website.

President

Sylvain Oré, Côte d'Ivoire

Elected President in September 2016 for a two-year term; first elected as Judge of the Court in July 2010 for a four-year term; re-elected in June 2014 for a six-year term

Vice-President

Ben Kioko, Kenya

Elected Vice-President in September 2016 for a two-year term; first elected as Judge of the Court in July 2012 for a six-year term

Judges

In order of precedence:

Gérard Niyungeko, Burundi

Elected in 2006 for a six-year term; re-elected in July 2012 for a six-year term

El Hadji Guissé, Senegal

Elected in January 2006 for a four-year term; re-elected in July 2012 for a six-year term

Solomy Balungi Bossa, Uganda

Elected in June 2014 for a six-year term

Rafâa Ben Achour, Tunisia

Elected in June 2014 for a six-year term

Angelo Vasco Matusse, Mozambique

Elected in June 2014 for a six-year term

Marie-Theresa Mukamulisa, Rwanda

Elected in July 2016 for a six-year term

Ntyam Ondo Mengue, Cameroon

Elected in July 2016 for a six-year term

In July 2016, the AU Executive Council recommended to the Assembly that the remaining two judges be elected in January 2017, and only from among female candidates from the northern and southern Africa regions in accordance with its decision in January 2016 on equitable geographical and gender representation (EX.CL/907\(XXVIII\)).

African Court of Justice/African Court of Justice and Human Rights

The AU Constitutive Act provided for an African Court of Justice to be established as one of the AU's principal organs. The Protocol of the Court was adopted in July 2003 and entered into force in February 2009, 30 days after 15 Member States had ratified it. As of August 2016, 44 Member States had signed the 2003 Protocol and 16 had ratified it.

However, the Court did not become operational. The AU Assembly decided at its July 2008 Summit to merge the African Court of Justice with the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights (see previous entry) into an African Court of Justice and Human Rights. The Assembly adopted the 2008 Protocol on the Statute of the African Court of Justice and Human Rights to merge the courts (Assembly/AU/Dec.196\(XI\)).

The 2008 Protocol replaced the 1998 Protocol establishing the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights and the 2003 Protocol establishing the African Court of Justice. However, the 1998 Protocol remains provisionally in force to enable the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights, which was operational prior to the adoption of the 2008 Protocol, to transfer its prerogatives, assets, rights and obligations to the African Court of Justice and Human Rights once that court becomes operational.

Transition to the new Court will begin after 15 Member States have ratified the 2008 Protocol on the Statute of the African Court of Justice and Human Rights. As of August 2016, 30 states had signed the 2008 Protocol and five had ratified it. (See www.au.int/en/treaties.)

Article 28 of the Statute of the African Court of Justice and Human Rights, which is annexed to the 2008 Protocol, provides that the Court will have jurisdiction over all cases and legal disputes that relate to, amongst other things: interpretation and application of the AU Constitutive Act, AU treaties and all subsidiary legal instruments, the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (African Human Rights Charter), African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child (African Children's Charter), Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa (Maputo Protocol), other human rights treaties ratified by the state party concerned and any question of international law.

In June 2014, the Assembly adopted a further Protocol on Amendments to the Protocol on the Statute of the African Court of Justice and Human Rights (Assembly/AU/Dec.529\(XXIII\)). As of August 2016, nine countries have signed the 2014 Protocol with no ratifications.

Extraordinary African Chambers (EAC)

The African Union and Senegal agreed in August 2012 to establish the Extraordinary African Chambers (EAC) within the Senegalese judicial system to "prosecute and try the person(s) most responsible for crimes and serious violations of international law, customary international law and international conventions ratified by Chad, committed on the territory of Chad during the period from 7 June 1982 to 1 December 1990" (EAC Statute, article 3). The crimes within the jurisdiction of the Chambers are genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes and torture (article 4).

The Chambers were inaugurated in February 2013 in Dakar, Senegal. On 30 May 2016, the Chambers sentenced Hissène Habré, President of Chad 1982–90, to life imprisonment after finding him guilty of crimes against humanity, war crimes and torture. Defence lawyers appealed in June 2016.

The Court comprises the: Pre-Trial Chamber, Indictment Chamber, Trial Chamber and Appeals Chamber. Article 11 of the EAC Statute provides for the composition of the Chambers, including that the Appeals Chamber shall be composed of two Senegalese judges and two alternate Senegalese judges, and an AU Member State non-Senegalese president, nominated by the Senegalese Minister of Justice and appointed by the Chairperson of the AU Commission. Article 37 provides for the EAC to be dissolved automatically once all judgments have been pronounced.

For more information about EAC, see www.chambresafraicaines.org (French) and www.forumchambresafraicaines.org (French, English and Arabic).

Purpose

The AU Commission on International Law (AUCIL) was created in 2009 as an independent advisory organ in accordance with article 5(2) of the AU Constitutive Act. Article 5(2) provides for the Assembly to establish organs as it deems necessary.

Under article 4 of the AUCIL's Statute, the Commission's objectives include to:

- Undertake activities relating to codification and progressive development of international law in Africa with particular attention to the laws of the AU
- Propose draft framework agreements and model regulations
- Assist in the revision of existing treaties and identify areas in which new treaties are required
- Conduct studies on legal matters of interest to the AU and its Member States
- Encourage the teaching, study, publication and dissemination of literature on international law, in particular, the laws of the AU, with a view to promoting respect for the principles of international law, the peaceful resolution of conflicts and respect for the AU and recourse to its organs.

Evolution

An African Commission on International Law was initially proposed in May 2004 by a meeting of experts reviewing OAU/AU treaties. In July 2004, the AU Executive Council requested the Chairperson of the Commission to elaborate detailed proposals on the mandate, structure and financial implications of the proposal (EX.CL/Dec.129\(V\)). The Assembly reaffirmed this in January 2005 as part of its decision on the African Union Non-Aggression and Common Defence Pact (Assembly/AU/Dec.71\(IV\)). Article 14 of the Pact undertook to establish an African Union Commission on International Law.

The AUCIL was formally established in February 2009 when its Statute was adopted by the AU Assembly 12th Ordinary Session (Assembly/AU/Dec.209\(XII\)). The Assembly appointed members in July 2009 (Assembly/AU/Dec.249\(XIII\)), following election and recommendation by the Executive Council. The AUCIL's Rules of Procedure were adopted by the AU Executive in January 2016.

Structure

The AUCIL consists of 11 members elected by the AU Executive Council and reflecting the principles of equitable geographical representation, the principal legal systems and gender representation. The members serve in their personal capacities. They are elected by secret ballot, usually for five-year terms that are renewable once. To avoid the departure of all 11 members after the first term, five of the members elected at the first election were to serve initial three-year terms (AUCIL Statute, article 12). No two members may be of the same nationality.

The Commission elects a chairperson, vice-chairperson and a general rapporteur as the Bureau. Terms are for two years, renewable once. The Bureau coordinates the Commission's activities and, between sessions, acts on behalf of the Commission under the Chairperson's guidance.

The Commission's composition and the election of members are governed by articles 3 and 10–14 of its Statute. Members perform their duties on a part-time basis (article 15).

In accordance with article 21 of the AUCIL Statute, the AUC provides the staff and infrastructure to the AUCIL Secretariat to enable it to carry out its duties effectively. The AUCIL Secretariat is headed by a secretary and located in the Office of the Legal Counsel.

Meetings

Under the AUCIL Statute, article 15, the Commission meets twice a year in ordinary session at AU Headquarters and may meet elsewhere. It may meet in extraordinary session at the request of the Chairperson or two-thirds of the members. The quorum is six members (article 16).

In addition to these sessions, the AUCIL holds an annual Forum on International Law, usually for two days. The Forum is a platform for international law experts and enthusiasts to deliberate on relevant major topics, create awareness about AU and international law, and identify ways to accelerate regional integration. AUCIL also consults with inter-governmental, international and national organisations.

Members¹

Sebastião Da Silva Isata, Angola (elected in January 2015)

Kholisani Solo, Botswana (re-elected in January 2013)

Daniel Makiesse Mwanawanzambi, DR Congo (re-elected in January 2013)²

Abdi Ismael Hersi, Djibouti (elected in January 2015)

Mohamed Barakat, Egypt (elected in January 2015)

Naceesay Salla-Wadda, Gambia (elected in January 2013)

Chairperson: Daniel Batidam, Ghana (since January 2015; elected by the AU Executive Council)

Officer in Charge: Alfred Bhare, Chad (since July 2015)

Purpose

The AU Advisory Board on Corruption (AUABC) was established in May 2009 as part of the African Union Convention on Preventing and Combating Corruption, which entered into force in August 2006. Under article 22(5) of the Convention, the Board is mandated to promote and encourage State Parties to adopt measures and actions to meet the Convention objectives and to follow up the application of those measures. As of August 2016, 48 countries had signed and 37 had ratified the Convention. The full list of signatories and ratifications is at www.au.int/en/treaties under 'status list'.

The Board's main mandate is to promote and encourage the adoption of measures and actions by State Parties to the Convention to prevent, detect, punish and eradicate corruption and related offences in Africa; to follow up on the measures; and to regularly submit reports to the AU Executive Council on the progress made by each State Party in complying with the provisions of the Convention.

The Board's mission, as stated in article 22(5) of the Convention, also includes to: collect and document information about the nature and scope of corruption and related offences in Africa; advise governments on how to deal with corruption and related offences; develop and promote the adoption of harmonised codes of conduct for public officials; and build partnerships with all the continental stakeholders to facilitate dialogue in the fight against corruption.

Membership

The Board is composed of 11 members who serve in their personal capacities. Terms are for two years, and members can be re-elected once. Potential members are nominated by AU Member States. The AU Executive Council elects the members, taking gender and geographical representation into account.

The Board elects its bureau from among the members, comprising a chairperson, vice-chairperson and rapporteur. Bureau members are appointed for one year. The Bureau's role is to ensure the planning and coordination of Board activities necessary to execute its functions under article 22(5) of the Convention.

Note

4 A new bureau was expected to be elected at the AUCIL session scheduled for November 2016.

The Board is supported by an executive secretariat, managed by an executive secretary. The Secretariat functions under the direction of the Bureau and the supervision of the Rapporteur.

 Twitter: @acerwc

Chairperson: Benyam Dawit Mezmur, Ethiopia (November 2015 to November 2017)
 Secretary: Mariama Mohamed Cisse, Niger (appointed in 2007)

Purpose

The African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child (ACERWC) draws its mandate from articles 32–46 of the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child (ACRWC), which was adopted by the OAU Heads of State and Government on 11 July 1990 and came into force on 29 November 1999. As of July 2016, all AU Member States had signed the Charter and all except for seven had ratified it (Central African Republic, DR Congo, Sahrawi Republic, São Tomé and Príncipe, Somalia, South Sudan and Tunisia).

The Charter provides for an 11-member committee of experts. The Committee is supported by a secretariat. The Committee's functions, as set out in article 42 of the Charter, include to:

1. Promote and protect the rights enshrined in the Charter, particularly:
 - (i) Collect and document information, commission inter-disciplinary assessment of situations on African problems in the fields of the rights and welfare of children, organise meetings, encourage national and local institutions concerned with the rights and welfare of children, and, where necessary, give its views and make recommendations to governments

- (ii) Formulate and lay down principles and rules aimed at protecting the rights and welfare of children in Africa
- (iii) Cooperate with other African, international and regional institutions and organisations concerned with the promotion and protection of the rights and welfare of children
- 2. Monitor the implementation of and ensure protection of the rights enshrined in the Charter
- 3. Interpret the provisions of the Charter at the request of a State Party, an AU/OAU institution or any other person or institution recognised by the AU/OAU
- 4. Perform other tasks as entrusted by the Assembly.

Meetings

The Committee is convened twice a year and an extraordinary session can be convened if necessary.

Membership

The 11 members serve in their personal capacities. They are elected by the Assembly in a secret ballot from a list of people nominated by State Parties to the Charter (ACRWC Charter, article 34). Candidates are required to be of high moral standing, integrity, impartiality and competence in matters of the rights and welfare of children. Under the Charter, terms are for five years, but to avoid the departure of all 11 members after the first term, article 37 provided for the terms of two members to expire after two years and six after four years, as determined in a draw of lots by the AU Assembly Chairperson immediately after the first election.

Article 37 originally stated that members could not be re-elected. In January 2015, the AU Assembly adopted an amendment to article 37(1) to provide for members to be re-elected once for a five-year term (Assembly/AU/Dec.548\(XXIV\)). The amendment entered into force on its adoption.

Bureau members are usually elected from within the Committee for two-year terms (article 38). In 2015, an interim bureau was elected for one year to allow new members joining the Committee in July to participate in the process.

Legal Aid Fund for the African Union Human Rights Organs

The Statute of the Legal Aid Fund for the African Union Human Rights Organs was adopted by the AU Assembly in January 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)). Establishment of the Fund was previously approved by the Specialised Technical Committee (STC) on Justice and Legal Affairs with the aim of mobilising resources to finance a legal aid scheme on the continent.

AFRICAN UNION HANDBOOK 2017

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Article 19 of the AU Constitutive Act provides for three specific financial organs to be created, the African Central Bank (ACB), African Investment Bank (AIB) and African Monetary Fund (AMF). The role of these institutions is to implement the economic integration called for in the 1991 Treaty Establishing the African Economic Community (Abuja Treaty). The 1999 Sirte Declaration, under which the OAU decided to create the AU, called for the speedy establishment of all institutions proposed in the Abuja Treaty. Establishment of the financial institutions is included in the Agenda 2063 flagship programmes.

The AU Assembly has adopted protocols for the establishment of the AIB and AMF. The draft Protocol for the Establishment of the ACB has not yet been submitted to the Assembly. Proposed structures will be submitted to the Executive Council for approval, once the protocols for each institution come into force.

African Central Bank

The African Central Bank's (ACB's) purpose will be to build a common monetary policy and single African currency as a way to accelerate economic integration as envisaged in articles 6 and 44 of the Abuja Treaty. The ACB's objectives will be to:

- Create and manage the continental common currency
- Promote international monetary cooperation through a permanent institution
- Promote exchange rate stability and avoid competitive exchange rates depreciation
- Assist in the establishment of a multilateral system of payments in respect of current transactions between members, and eliminate foreign exchange restrictions that hamper the growth of world trade.

It is proposed that the ACB Headquarters will be in Abuja, Nigeria. The agreed timeframe under Agenda 2063 for establishing the ACB is between 2028 and 2034. Preparations for the ACB will be made through the African Monetary Institute, which is expected to be established by 2018. The establishment of the ACB will be based on the Joint African Union Commission/Association of African Central Banks (AACB) Strategy, which was adopted by the AACB in August 2015 and was expected to be submitted to the AU Assembly for adoption in January 2017.

African Investment Bank

The African Investment Bank's (AIB's) purpose will be to foster economic growth and accelerate economic integration in Africa, as envisaged by articles 6 and 44 of the Abuja Treaty. The AIB's objectives will be to:

- Promote public and private sector investment activities intended to advance AU Member State regional integration
- Utilise available resources for the implementation of investment projects contributing to strengthening of the private sector and modernisation of rural sector activities and infrastructures
- Mobilise resources from capital markets inside and outside Africa for the financing of investment projects in African countries
- Provide technical assistance as may be needed in African countries for the study, preparation, financing and execution of investment projects.

The AU Assembly adopted the AIB Statute at its July 2009 Summit (see Assembly/AU/Dec.251\(XIII\)). The AIB Protocol and Statute will enter into force 30 days after ratification by 15 Member States. As at 1 April 2016, 22 Member States had signed and three had ratified the Protocol. The agreed timeframe under Agenda 2063 for establishing the AIB is 2025. The AIB will be located in Libya (see Assembly/AU/Dec.64\(IV\)).

African Monetary Fund

The African Monetary Fund's (AMF's) purpose will be to facilitate the integration of African economies by eliminating trade restrictions and providing greater monetary integration, as envisaged under articles 6 and 44 of the Abuja Treaty. The Fund is expected to serve as a pool for central bank reserves and AU Member States' national currencies. The Fund will prioritise regional macro-economic objectives in its lending policies.

The specific AMF objectives include:

- Providing financial assistance to AU Member States
- Acting as a clearing house as well as undertaking macro-economic surveillance within the continent
- Coordinating the monetary policies of Member States and promoting cooperation between their monetary authorities
- Encouraging capital movements between Member States.

The AU Assembly adopted the AMF Protocol and Statute at its June 2014 Summit (see Assembly/AU/Dec.517\(XXIII\)). The Protocol and Statute will enter into force 30 days after ratification by 15 Member States. As at 1 April 2016, seven Member States had signed the Protocol and none had ratified it. The agreed timeframe under Agenda 2063 for establishing the AMF is 2023. The AMF Headquarters will be in Yaoundé, Cameroon (see EX.CL/Dec.329\(X\)).

NEPAD Agency Chief Executive Officer: Ibrahim Assane Mayaki, Niger (appointed by the AU Assembly on 2 February 2009)

Purpose

The New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD) is the pan-African strategic framework for the socio-economic development of the continent. Its main objectives are to reduce poverty, put Africa on a sustainable development path, halt marginalisation of Africa and empower women.

The NEPAD Agency is an AU technical body that coordinates and administers NEPAD activities. The Agency, based in South Africa, is mandated to facilitate and coordinate the implementation of regional and continental priority programmes and projects, and to push for partnerships, resource mobilisation and research and knowledge management. Strategic direction is based on the following thematic areas: agriculture and food security; climate change and natural resource management; regional integration, trade and infrastructure; natural resource governance and food security; industrialisation, science and technology; and human development.

The Agency is the implementing arm for the AU's Agenda 2063 development strategy. It is also widely used by international financial institutions, UN agencies and Africa's development partners as a mechanism to support African development efforts.

Evolution

NEPAD evolved from initiatives designed to address the complex challenges to growth faced by African states. It was adopted in 2001 by the OAU 37th Summit and ratified by the AU in 2002 at its first summit. In February 2010, the AU Assembly (Assembly/AU/Dec.283\(XIV\)) integrated NEPAD into the AU structure and processes and transformed the NEPAD Secretariat into the NEPAD Planning and Coordinating Agency (NEPAD Agency). In addition, the Summit authorised the Chairperson of the AUC to exercise supervisory authority over the Agency.

Structure

NEPAD is governed by the AU Assembly, the NEPAD Heads of State and Government Orientation Committee (HSGOC) (see the Assembly chapter) and the NEPAD Steering Committee.

The Steering Committee is the intermediary body between the HSGOC and the NEPAD Agency. It is primarily responsible for developing the terms of reference for identified programmes and projects and for overseeing NEPAD Agency activities. The Committee consists of personal representatives of the Heads of State and Government on the HSGOC: two from each of the five NEPAD initiating countries (Algeria, Egypt, Nigeria, Senegal and South Africa) and one from each of the elected members (15 countries chosen from the five AU regions, rotating). Rule 3 of the Committee's Rules of Procedure provides for one representative of the AUC Chairperson, if his or her country is not already a member, and for the AUC Chairperson to appoint a personal representative at the level of a commissioner. Each Member State has only one vote regardless of its number of Committee members.

In addition, representatives from the African Peer Review Mechanism, eight AU-recognised RECs, AUC, African Development Bank (AfDB), UN Development Programme (UNDP), UN Office of the Special Adviser on Africa (UNOSAA) and the UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) participate in Steering Committee meetings as observers.

Rule 8 of the Committee's Rules of Procedure provide for the Committee to meet in ordinary session at least four times a year and to hold consultative sessions to address specific issues or exceptional circumstances.

The NEPAD Agency is financed through the AUC's statutory budgets, voluntary contributions from AU Member States and support from development partners and the private sector.

Chief Executive Officer: Eddy Maloka, South Africa (appointed by the African Peer Review Forum in January 2016)

Purpose

The African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) was established in 2003 by the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD) Heads of State and Government Implementation Committee (HSGIC) as an instrument for AU Member States to voluntarily self-monitor their governance performance.

The Mechanism's primary objective is to foster the adoption of policies, values, standards and practices of political and economic governance that lead to political stability, accelerated sub-regional and continental economic integration, economic growth and sustainable development.

By joining the APRM, Member States agree to independently review their compliance with African and international governance commitments. Performance and progress are measured in four thematic areas: democracy and political governance; economic governance and management; corporate governance; and socio-economic development.

Each review leads to a national programme of action for the state concerned to address problems identified. A monitoring body prepares a six-month and annual report on progress in implementing the programme of action for the APRM Forum of Heads of State and Government. Country review reports are made available to the public.

Evolution

From establishment in 2003 until 2014, the APRM operated as an independent body under a memorandum of understanding signed by Member States. The AU Assembly decided in June 2014 that the APRM should be integrated into the AU system as an autonomous body (Assembly/AU/Dec.527\(XXIII\)).

Structure

The APRM has structures at both continental and national levels. The following bodies are the structures at the continental level.

- African Peer Review (APR) Forum: a committee of all participating Member States' Heads of State and Government. The Forum is the APRM's highest decision-making authority.
- APR Panel: appointed eminent persons with the responsibility of ensuring the Mechanism's independence, professionalism and credibility. Panel members are selected and appointed by the Forum for a term of up to four years, with the exception of the Chairperson who is appointed for two years, non-renewable.

- APRM Focal Point Committee: composed of the personal representatives of the Heads of State of the participating countries. The Committee is a ministerial body acting as an intermediary between the APR Forum and the APRM Secretariat. It is responsible for administrative and budgetary matters, and reports to the APRM Forum.
- APR Secretariat: provides technical, coordinating and administrative support services to the APRM.

The APRM country structures are:

- National Focal Point
- National Commission
- National Secretariat
- Technical research institutions.

The APRM also has special support agreements with three Africa-based institutions designated by the Forum as strategic partners: the African Development Bank (AfDB), UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) and UN Development Programme (UNDP) Regional Bureau for Africa.

Membership

As of August 2016, 35 AU Member States had acceded to the APRM, most recently Côte d'Ivoire in January 2015. Twenty Member States had completed self-assessments and 19 had been peer-reviewed by the Forum, most recently Chad and Senegal.

AFRICAN UNION HANDBOOK 2017

REGIONAL ECONOMIC COMMUNITIES

REGIONAL ECONOMIC COMMUNITIES (RECS)

The Regional Economic Communities (RECs) are regional groupings of African states, each led by a Head of State or Government. They have developed individually and have differing roles and structures. Generally, the purpose of the RECs is to facilitate regional economic integration between members of the individual regions and through the wider African Economic Community (AEC), which was established under the Abuja Treaty (1991). The 1980 Lagos Plan of Action for the Development of Africa and the Abuja Treaty proposed the creation of RECs as the basis for wider African integration, with a view to regional and eventual continental integration. The RECs are increasingly involved in coordinating AU Member States' interests in wider areas such as peace and security, development and governance.

The RECs are closely integrated with the AU's work and serve as its building blocks. The complementary relationship between the AU and the RECs is mandated by the Abuja Treaty and the AU Constitutive Act, and guided by the: 2008 Protocol on Relations between the RECs and the AU; and the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Cooperation in the Area of Peace and Security between the AU, RECs and the Regional Mechanisms (RMs) for conflict prevention, management and resolution of Regional Standby Brigades of Eastern and Northern Africa.

The AU recognises eight RECs, the:

- Arab Maghreb Union (UMA)¹
- Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA)
- Community of Sahel–Saharan States (CEN–SAD)
- East African Community (EAC)²
- Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS)
- Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS)
- Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD)²
- Southern African Development Community (SADC).

All of these RECs have observer status with the United Nations.

In addition, the Eastern Africa Standby Force Coordination Mechanism (EASFCOM) and North African Regional Capability (NARC) both have liaison offices at the AU.

Structure

The Protocol on Relations between the RECs and the AU provides a coordination framework between the AEC and the RECs. This framework has the following two elements.

Committee on Coordination

The Committee provides policy advice and oversight of implementation of the Protocol (article 7). It is also tasked with coordinating and monitoring progress made by the RECs in meeting the regional integration goal stages detailed in article 6 of the Abuja Treaty.

Notes

- 1 UMA is not a signatory to the Protocol on Relations between the RECs and the AU.
- 2 In October 2013, on the sidelines of an AU Extraordinary Summit, IGAD and EAC Foreign Ministers decided to explore the possibility of merging these two RECs.

The Committee comprises the Chairperson of the AUC, Chief Executives of the RECs, Executive Secretary of the UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA), President of the African Development Bank (AfDB) and Chief Executives of the AU financial institutions.

Under article 8 of the Protocol, the Committee must meet at least twice a year. It is chaired by the Chairperson of the AUC. Committee decisions are taken by consensus or, when consensus cannot be reached, by a simple majority of the members present and voting. Committee decisions are forwarded to the Executive Council as policy recommendations. Committee members may be accompanied to meetings by experts and advisers.

Committee of Secretariat Officials

The Committee prepares technical reports for consideration by the Committee on Coordination (article 9 of the Protocol). It comprises AUC senior officials responsible for community affairs, as well as UNECA and AfDB senior officials.

The Committee meets at least twice a year, prior to Committee on Coordination meetings, and is chaired by the AUC. Committee decisions are reached by consensus or, when consensus is lacking, by simple majority vote (article 9).

Secretary-General: Taieb Baccouche, Tunisia (appointed by the Council of Foreign Affairs Ministers on 5 May 2016; assumed office on 1 August 2016)

Purpose

The Arab Maghreb Union (UMA) was established under the Marrakesh Treaty of 1989 with the primary purpose of: strengthening ties between the five member states; promoting prosperity; defending national rights; and adopting common policies to promote the free movement of people, services, goods and capital within the region.

Article 3 of the Treaty provides that the Union's objectives are to promote:

- Close diplomatic ties and dialogue between Member States while safeguarding their independence
- Mechanisms for Member States' industrial, commercial and social development including through common sectoral programmes
- Measures to support Islamic values and the safeguarding of the National Arabic identity through mechanisms such as cultural exchange, research and education programmes.

Structure

UMA is a political-level body supported by a secretariat whose headquarters are located in Rabat, Morocco. The structures set out in the Marrakesh Treaty are:

- Council of the Presidency, which is the supreme decision-making organ
- Council of the Prime Ministers, which coordinates policy
- Council of Foreign Ministers, which prepares Presidency sessions and examines Follow-up Committee proposals
- Follow-up Committee, a national officials-level committee tasked with implementing UMA decisions
- Four Special Ministerial Committees, which deal with thematic areas

130

- General Secretariat, which is the executive for the Union and Consultative Council
- Consultative Council, which is composed of legislative representatives from each country and tasked with sharing opinions and recommendations on draft Council of the Presidency decisions.

In addition, the Marrakesh Treaty provides for a range of other institutions including the: Judicial Authority, composed of two judges from each state with the authority to interpret or rule on issues relating to the UMA; Maghreb University and Academy; and Investment and External Trade Bank.

Meetings

The Marrakesh Treaty provides for the Council of the Presidency to meet once a year in ordinary session and in extraordinary session as required. The Council of the Presidency is the only decision-making body. Decisions are taken unanimously. Under the Treaty, the Presidency should rotate every year although it has not always done so. In recent years, the UMA institutions have met infrequently.

Chairperson: Hailemariam Desalegn, Ethiopia (appointed in March 2015)

Secretary-General: Sindiso Ndema Ngwenya, Zimbabwe (reappointed by the COMESA Authority in November 2012 for a second five-year term)

Purpose

The Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA) was established in 1994 by the COMESA Treaty “as an organisation of free independent sovereign states which have agreed to co-operate in developing their natural and human resources for the good of all their people”. Article 3 of the Treaty provides that the aims and objectives of COMESA are to: attain sustainable growth and development of Member States; promote joint development in all fields of economic activity; cooperate in the creation of an enabling environment for foreign, cross-border and domestic investment; promote peace, security and stability among the Member States; and cooperate in strengthening relations between the Common Market and the rest of the world.

Evolution

Regional trade integration was formally first proposed in 1978 by the Lusaka Declaration of Intent and Commitment to the Establishment of a Preferential Trade Area (PTA) for Eastern and Southern Africa. The Treaty establishing the PTA was signed in 1981 and entered into force in 1982. The Common Market envisaged in the PTA was created under the COMESA Treaty, which was signed in 1993 and entered into force in 1994.

Structure

COMESA is accountable to the Heads of State and Government of its 19 Member States. Its structure includes the Council of Ministers, responsible for policy making; 12 technical committees; and a series of subsidiary advisory bodies. Overall coordination is managed by the COMESA Secretariat, which is based in Lusaka, Zambia. Several other institutions promote sub-regional cooperation and development, including the COMESA:

- Trade and Development Bank of Eastern and Southern Africa (PTA Bank) in Bujumbura, Burundi
- Clearing House in Harare, Zimbabwe
- Association of Commercial Banks in Harare, Zimbabwe
- Leather and Leather Products Institute (LLPI) in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia
- Re-Insurance Company (ZEP-RE) in Nairobi, Kenya
- African Trade Insurance Agency in Nairobi, Kenya
- Competition Commission in Lilongwe, Malawi
- Regional Investment Agency in Cairo, Egypt
- Monetary Institute in Nairobi, Kenya
- Federation of Women in Business (FEMCOM) in Lilongwe, Malawi
- Alliance for Commodity Trade in Eastern and Southern Africa (ACTESA) in Lusaka, Zambia
- Business Council (CBC) in Lusaka, Zambia.

In addition, a Court of Justice was established under the Treaty to deal with issues pertaining to COMESA. The Court became operational in 1998.

Meetings

COMESA Heads of State and Government meet at an annual summit to make policy decisions and elect representatives. COMESA may also hold extraordinary meetings at the request of any of its members. Summit decisions are reached by consensus. The office of Chairperson is usually held for one year in rotation among the Member States. The Summit discusses business submitted to it by the Council of Ministers (which meets twice each year) and any other matter that may have a bearing on COMESA. The most recent summit took place from 10 to 19 October 2016 in Madagascar.

Secretary-General: Ibrahim Sani Abani, Niger (appointed by the Conference of Heads of State and Government during an extraordinary session in February 2013)

Purpose

The Community of Sahel–Saharan States (CEN–SAD) was formed in 1998 with the primary objective of promoting the economic, cultural, political and social integration of its Member States. Article 1 of the Treaty establishing the Community provides that the aims and objectives of CEN–SAD are to:

- Establish a comprehensive economic union with a particular focus in the agricultural, industrial, social, cultural and energy fields
- Adopt measures to promote free movement of individuals and capital
- Promote measures to encourage foreign trade, transportation and telecommunications among Member States
- Promote measures to coordinate educational systems
- Promote cooperation in cultural, scientific and technical fields.

Structure

CEN–SAD is governed by its Conference of Heads of State and Government.

The organisation's structure includes the:

- Executive Council, which meets at ministerial level to implement Conference decisions
- Special Ministerial Councils, which deal with thematic issues
- General Secretariat, which is the Community's executive body
- Economic, Social and Cultural Council (ESCC), which follows Executive Council directives
- Sahel–Saharan Investment and Trade Bank.

Meetings

The Conference of Heads of State and Government meets once a year in ordinary session, rotating among Member State capitals. It can meet in extraordinary session at the request of one Member State.

The organisation's most recent Conference of Heads of State and Government was held in February 2013 in Ndjamena, Chad. The CEN–SAD Executive Council met in March 2014 in Khartoum, Sudan. The same meeting decided that Morocco would host the next CEN–SAD Conference of Heads of State and Government.

Chairperson: John P J Magufuli, UR of Tanzania (since November 2015)

Secretary-General: Libérat Mfumukeko, Burundi (appointed on 2 March 2016 for one five-year term)

Purpose

The East African Community (EAC) was initiated in 1999 as an economic and political entity of the five East African countries. EAC's vision is a prosperous, competitive, secure, stable and politically united East Africa. Its mission is to widen and deepen economic, political, social and cultural integration in order to improve the quality of life of East African people through increased competitiveness, value added production, trade and investments. The EAC countries established a Customs Union in 2005 and a Common Market in 2010. EAC aims to create a monetary union as the next step in integration and ultimately become a political federation of East African states.

Evolution

The EAC was first formed in 1967 but collapsed in 1977 because of political differences. In 1993, the Agreement for the Establishment of the Permanent Tripartite Commission (PTC) for East African Co-operation was established, and, in 1996, the Commission's Secretariat was launched. In 1997, leaders directed the PTC to upgrade the Agreement establishing the Commission into a treaty. This Treaty entered into force on 7 July 2000 following its ratification by the original three partner states – Kenya, Uganda and UR of Tanzania. Rwanda and Burundi acceded to the EAC Treaty on 18 June 2007 and became full members of the community from 1 July 2007. In March 2016, the EAC 17th Summit decided to admit South Sudan as a new member. South Sudan formally signed the Treaty in April 2016.

Structure

The seven EAC organs are the:

- Summit: comprising the Heads of State and Government, the Summit gives general directions and impetus for development and achievement of objectives. The office of Chairperson is held for one year in rotation among the partner states.
- Council of Ministers: the policy organ.
- Coordination Committee: comprising the Permanent Secretaries, the Committee submits reports and recommendations to the Council either on its own initiative or on request from the Council, and implements Council decisions.
- Sectoral Committees: whose role is to monitor and review implementation of EAC programmes.
- East African Court of Justice: whose role is to ensure adherence to interpretation, application and compliance with the Treaty establishing the EAC.
- East African Legislative Assembly: the legislative organ.
- Secretariat: the executive organ, whose role is to ensure that regulations and directives adopted by the Council are properly implemented.

Meetings

The Summit meets twice a year, on 20 April and 30 November, and may hold extraordinary meetings at the request of any of its members. Decisions are reached by consensus. The Summit discusses business submitted to it by the Council and any other matters that may have a bearing on the Community. The Council meets twice a year, including immediately prior to a Summit meeting. Extraordinary meetings may be held at the request of a Partner State or the Chairperson of the Council.

Chair: Ali Bongo Ondimba, Gabon (appointed in May 2015)

Secretary General: Ahmad Allam-Mi, Chad (appointed by the Chairperson on 29 July 2013 for a four-year term, renewable once)

Purpose

The Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS) has the primary objectives of promoting Member States' economic and social development and improving people's living conditions. Article 4 of the Treaty establishing ECCAS provides that the Community's objectives are to:

- Achieve collective autonomy
- Raise the standard of living of its populations
- Maintain economic stability through harmonious cooperation.

The 1999 Malabo Heads of State and Government Conference set out four priority fields for the organisation. These are to: develop capacities to maintain peace, security and stability as essential prerequisites for economic and social development; develop physical, economic and monetary integration; develop a culture of human integration; and establish an autonomous financing mechanism for ECCAS.

Evolution

The Treaty Establishing the Economic Community of Central African States was signed in October 1983 in Libreville, Gabon, and entered into force in December 1984. Following internal crises in many member states, ECCAS ceased activities between 1992 and 1998. ECCAS was revitalised by a Heads of State and Government decision at the 1998 Summit in Libreville.

Structure

ECCAS is governed by its Conference of Heads of State and Government, which is the supreme organ. Its structure also includes the:

- Council of Ministers, which oversees policy implementation
- General Secretariat, which fulfils the Community's executive functions

- Court of Justice, which has the jurisdiction to rule on the legality of decisions, directives and regulations of the Community
- Technical specialised committees, which formulate policy recommendations in thematic areas
- Consultative Commission, which operates at experts' level to support research and implementation of ECCAS programmes and decisions.

ECCAS also has four specialised agencies, the:

- Energy Pool of Central Africa
- Commission of Forests of Central Africa
- Regional Committee of the Gulf of Guinea Fishing
- Commission of the Gulf of Guinea on Maritime Security.

Meetings

Under article 14 of the ECCAS Treaty, the Conference meets annually. The Council meets twice a year in ordinary session, once prior to the Conference. It can also meet as required in extraordinary session.

Commission President: Marcel de Souza, Benin (appointed by the Authority of Heads of State and Government in June 2016 for a two-year term)

Purpose

The Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) was established by the Lagos Treaty on 28 May 1975 with the primary objective of promoting economic integration in “all fields of economic activity, particularly industry, transport, telecommunications, energy, agriculture, natural resources, commerce, monetary and financial questions, social and cultural matters”.

Article 3(1) of the ECOWAS Treaty provides that the aims of the Community are to:

- Promote cooperation and integration in the region, leading to the establishment of an economic union in West Africa in order to raise the living standards of its peoples
- Maintain and enhance economic stability, foster relations among Member States and contribute to the progress and development of the African continent.

Note

- 3 Rwanda was one of the founding members, then left ECCAS in 2007. In May 2015, the ECCAS Conference of Heads of State and Government signed an agreement on Rwanda's readmission. Rwanda deposited the ratified document in August 2016.

Structure

ECOWAS is governed by its Authority of Heads of State and Government. The Authority Chairperson is usually elected for a one-year term. ECOWAS institutions are the:

- ECOWAS Commission (Secretariat until 2006), which carries out all executive functions
- ECOWAS Community Court of Justice, which interprets the ECOWAS Treaty and adjudicates on matters arising out of obligations under ECOWAS laws
- ECOWAS Parliament, which represents all the peoples of West Africa
- ECOWAS Bank for Investment and Development (EBID)
- West African Health Organisation (WAHO)
- Inter-Governmental Action Group against Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing in West Africa (GIABA).

ECOWAS specialised agencies are the:

- West African Monetary Agency (WAMA)
- Regional Agency for Agriculture and Food (RAAF)
- ECOWAS Regional Electricity Regulatory Authority (ERERA)
- ECOWAS Centre for Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency (ECREEE)
- West African Power Pool (WAPP)
- ECOWAS Brown Card
- ECOWAS Gender Development Centre (EGDC)
- ECOWAS Youth and Sports Development Centre (EYSDC)
- West African Monetary Institute (WAMI)
- ECOWAS infrastructure Projects Preparation and Development Unit (PPDU).

The ECOWAS structure also includes national offices within each Member State's Ministry in Charge of ECOWAS Affairs; Special Representative Offices in Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia and Mali; and Permanent Representative Offices in Burkina Faso, Côte d'Ivoire and Togo. Establishing offices in the remaining Member States is in progress. ECOWAS also has a Permanent Representative to the United Nations and liaison offices to the AU and European Union.

Meetings

The Authority of Heads of State and Government meets at least once a year. It may also meet in extraordinary session.

Head of Secretariat: Mahboub Maalim, Kenya (appointed by the IGAD Assembly on 14 June 2008 for a four-year term; reappointed in July 2012 for a second term)

Purpose

The Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD) was established in 1996 to represent the interests of states in the Eastern Africa region. Under article 7 of the Agreement establishing IGAD, its aims and objectives include promoting joint development strategies; harmonising Member States' policies; achieving regional food security; initiating sustainable development of natural resources; promoting peace and stability in the sub-region; and mobilising resources for the implementation of programmes within the framework of sub-regional cooperation.

Evolution

IGAD is the successor to the Intergovernmental Authority on Drought and Development (IGADD), which was founded in 1986 to address the recurring droughts and other natural disasters that had caused severe hardship in the region. The revitalised Authority's mandate increased to include promoting greater regional political and economic cooperation as well as addressing peace and security issues. It also implemented a new organisational structure.

Structure

The IGAD Assembly of Heads of State and Government is the organisation's supreme policy-making organ, determining its objectives, guidelines and programmes. The office of Chairperson is usually held for one year in rotation among the Member States. IGAD's structure also includes the Council of Ministers, which formulates policy, approves the work programme and the Secretariat's annual budget, and the Committee of Ambassadors, which facilitates the Council's work and guides the Executive Secretary (head of the Secretariat). The Council is composed of the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and one other minister designated by each Member State. The Executive Secretary is appointed by the Assembly to run the organisation's day-to-day affairs.

Other bodies include the:

- Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU–IGAD), which came into existence after its establishing Protocol came into force in November 2007. It is composed of IGAD Member States' Speakers of Parliament.
- Civil Society Forum, which was established in 2003 to resuscitate the interface between the IGAD Secretariat and non-governmental and civil society organisations in the region.
- Partners Forum (IPF), which was formed in January 1997 to replace and formalise IGAD's relationships with the 'Friends of IGAD', a group of partners working closely with the Secretariat.

Meetings

The Assembly Summit meets at least once a year and may hold extraordinary meetings at the request of any of its members. Summit decisions are reached by consensus. The Summit discusses business submitted to it by the Council (which meets twice each year) and any other matter that may have a bearing on IGAD. The Committee of Ambassadors convenes as often as the need arises.

Executive Secretary: Stergomena Lawrence Tax, UR of Tanzania (appointed by the SADC Assembly in August 2013 for a five-year term)

Purpose

The South African Development Community (SADC) was formed on 17 August 1992. Its main objectives are to achieve economic development, peace and security, and poverty alleviation; improve the standard of living for the people of the region; and increase regional integration, built on democratic principles and equitable and sustainable development.

Evolution

SADC is the successor to the Southern African Development Co-ordination Conference (SADCC), which was established in 1980 in Lusaka, Zambia. The transformation of SADCC into SADC in 1992 redefined the basis of cooperation among Member States from a loose association into a legally binding arrangement and formalised the intention to spearhead the economic integration of the Southern Africa region.

Structure

SADC is accountable to the Summit of Heads of State or Government. Its structure includes the: Heads of State-level Troika Organ on Politics, Defence and Security Cooperation, which is responsible for policy direction on regional peace and security issues between summits; Council of Ministers, which is responsible for the implementation of summit policy decisions; Secretariat, which is the executive body for SADC and headed by the Executive Secretary; Standing Committee of Officials, which offers technical advice to the Council of Ministers; SADC national committees (SNCs), which deal with thematic issues; and the SADC Parliamentary Forum, which provides a platform to support and improve regional integration through parliamentary involvement. Decision-making is by consensus, except in the SNCs and Secretariat.

Note

⁴ Eritrea has not participated in IGAD meetings since 2007.

Meetings

The Summit meets at least once a year and may hold extraordinary meetings at the request of any of its members. Summit decisions are reached by consensus. Chairperson: Eduardo dos Santos, Angola (elected by the ICGLR Assembly in March 2014)
Executive Secretary: Zachary Muburi-Muita, Kenya (appointed in June 2016 by the ICGLR Heads of State and Government for a four-year term)

The International Conference on the Great Lakes Region (ICGLR) is an inter-governmental organisation of the countries in the region. It was initiated in 2003 to address the regional dimension to conflicts affecting the Great Lakes and give momentum to efforts to promote sustainable peace and development. The ICGLR Executive Secretariat was established in May 2007.

The AU is an ICGLR formal partner. The AUC provides technical, diplomatic and financial support to the ICGLR. It also works in cooperation with the ICGLR in the framework of its activities.

The Heads of State and Government Summit is ICGLR's supreme organ and is chaired by a member country's Head of State or Government usually for two-year terms in rotation. The Summit is held every two years, and extraordinary sessions may be convened at the request of a Member State and with the consent of the majority of Member States present and voting. ICGLR's executive organ comprises Member States' Foreign Affairs Ministers. The executive organ meets in ordinary session twice a year, and may meet in extraordinary session on the request of a Member State and with the consent of a majority of the 12 Member States.

AU Institute for Statistics (STATAFRIC)

Department of Economic Affairs
African Union Commission
Roosevelt Street
PO Box 3243
Addis Ababa
Ethiopia

Purpose

The main purpose of the AU Institute for Statistics (STATAFRIC) is to lead in the provision and promotion of quality statistics, statistical information and good practice in support of the African Integration Agenda. The Institute is scheduled to begin activities in late 2016. STATAFRIC's vision is to be the centre of reference for quality statistics on Africa. Its values include professional independence, as defined in article 3 of the African Charter on Statistics. The Institute's aims include to:

- Provide the statistical information needed to design, implement, monitor and evaluate African policies
- Develop and promote standards, methods and procedures that allow the cost-effective production and dissemination of comparable and reliable statistics throughout the AU and beyond
- Steer the African Statistics System, develop standards and procedures, strengthen cooperation among partners, build capacity and ensure it takes a leading role in official statistics worldwide.

Evolution

Establishment of the Institute, to be based in Tunis, Tunisia, was approved by the AU Assembly at its January 2013 Summit (Assembly/AU/462\(XX\)). In March 2015, following preparation work by the AUC, the Conference of Ministers of Economy and Finance gave the AUC the mandate to ensure the Institute's activities began in late 2016.

Structure

STATAFRIC will be a technical agency of the AUC under the Department of Economic Affairs and will be governed by the organs of the Commission.

Pan African Training Centre on Statistics

The purpose of the Pan African Training Centre on Statistics is to strengthen the capability of AU Member States' official statisticians to collect, analyse and disseminate timely and high-quality statistics for economic and social development planning. The Centre, to be based in Côte d'Ivoire, has the vision of being the centre of reference for statistical training in Africa. As of August 2016, the AUC, through its Department of Economics, and the Côte d'Ivoire Government were continuing efforts for activities to start before the end of 2016.

President: Francine Furaha Muyumba, DR Congo (Bureau President 2014–17; elected by the 2014 Congress)
Secretary-General: Souleyman Satigui Sidibé, Mali

Purpose

The Pan African Youth Union (PYU) is a specialised agency responsible for coordinating regional bodies serving African youth. In addition to coordinating youth councils throughout Africa, the Union's objective is to gather and mobilise young Africans on all continents to realise the ideals and strategies of the AU, including unity, peace, democracy, sustainable development and African integration. The Union promotes the ratification and implementation of the African Youth Charter (2006), which defines 'youth' as people between 15 and 35 years of age; lobbies governments to have national youth policies and legislative frameworks that are responsive to youth; advocates for youth to be part of national decision-making processes; and promotes regional and continental integration in youth development efforts.

Evolution

The Union was established in 1962. It was previously known as the Pan African Youth Movement.

Structure

The Union's structure includes a congress, executive committee, regional bodies and specialised committees. The Executive Committee comprises the President, 12 Member States and three regional or international youth organisations. Members are elected at the Congress for three-year terms. The Bureau comprises the President and the 12 Executive Committee Member States. A secretariat manages administration.

Meetings

The Congress meets every three years, most recently in South Africa in 2014. The Executive Committee meets at least twice a year. The Union's fourth summit was held in July 2015 in Uganda, with the theme 'Regional integration of Africa and a perspective of the youth'.

Executive Board members: 2014–17

The Executive Board was elected during the 2014 Congress for the three-year term 2014–17.

International Centre for Girls' and Women's Education in Africa (CIEFFA)

PO Box 1318
 Ouagadougou
 Burkina Faso
 Fax: +226 5037 6498

Coordinator: Rita Bissoonauth (since November 2014)

Purpose

The International Centre for Girls' and Women's Education in Africa (CIEFFA) is an AU specialised agency established to coordinate the promotion of education for women and girls. It works closely with AU Member States, civil society and international partners to implement programmes and activities in collaboration with the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

CIEFFA's 2015–17 strategic plan focuses on four key policy advocacy priorities: the legal framework for rights of girls and women in schools and universities; gender-responsive curricula in schools and universities; retention of girls in schools; and documentation, advocacy, communication and publications.

Evolution

The Centre was established at the 30th session of the UNESCO General Conference in 1999 and became a specialised agency of the AU following AU Assembly approval in principle in July 2004 (Assembly/AU/Dec.44\(III\)). It became a UNESCO Category 2 Centre in April 2006.

Structure

As a specialised technical agency of the AU, the Centre reports through the AUC to the Commissioner for Human Resources, Science and Technology, and is governed by the organs of the African Union.

Fund for African Women

Purpose

The Fund for African Women supports small and community-based women's organisations in Africa. Its five main goals are to:

- Mobilise financial resources to support development programmes and projects for women
- Support women's initiatives to fight poverty, close the gender gap and halt marginalisation of women
- Share experiences and best practices on economic, political and social empowerment of women
- Facilitate the dissemination of information on activities led by African women
- Strengthen the capacities of African women in leadership, management and entrepreneurship.

Evolution

Article 11 of the Solemn Declaration on Gender Equality in Africa (SDGEA), adopted by AU Heads of State and Government in July 2004, called for a fund with the objective of financing capacity building for African women. In 2007, the AU Assembly proposed establishing an African trust fund for women (Assembly/AU//Dec.143\(VIII\)). The Fund was launched at the January 2010 Assembly Summit. It is expected to be reviewed and redesigned in 2017.

Structure

AU Member States' Ministers of Women's Affairs and Gender select an annual theme for financial support, with a minimum of 53 projects per theme. The Fund is administered by the AUC's Directorate of Women, Gender and Development (WGDD). A steering committee assists with implementation of themes, calls for proposals and recommends projects for selection. The Committee members are selected in accordance with the 2008 Lilongwe Declaration, which reflected the recommendations of the AU conference on establishing the Fund that was held in Lilongwe, Malawi, in March 2008 (AU/CONF/EEAWCI/Decl.). A committee of 10 AU Member State Ministers of Gender and Women's Affairs, two from each AU region, approves the projects to be funded. Committee membership rotates every two years.

Themes selected and implemented by the WGDD for 2011–17 were:

- Maternal mortality, HIV/AIDS and women's health (2011)
- Agriculture, food security and environment (2012)
- Fighting poverty and promoting economic empowerment of women and entrepreneurship (2013)
- Climate change and environment (2014)
- Education, science and technology (2015)
- Finance and gender budgets (2016)
- Mentoring youth (men and women) to be champions of gender equality and women's empowerment (2017).

Abuja
Nigeria

Tel: +234 9291 3271
Email: labellemarie15@yahoo.com
Website: <http://austrc.org>

Executive Director: Ahmed Hamdy, Egypt

Purpose

The role of the Scientific, Technical and Research Commission (STRC) is to implement programmes set out in the AU's Science, Technology and Innovation Strategy for Africa 2024 (STISA 2024). The STRC's programmes and activities include STISA 2024 implementation; AU project on infectious diseases; Pan-African Intellectual Property Organisation establishment; capacity building of scientists and technologists; strengthening and building African capacity on geographical indicators (GIs) for natural resources; science, technology and innovation (STI) for youth empowerment and wealth creation; STI for climate change; and documentation and protection of African indigenous knowledge.

Evolution

The STRC was originally founded in 1965. The most recent STI strategy, STISA 2024, was adopted by AU Heads of State and Government at their June 2014 Summit (Assembly/AU/Dec.520\(XXIII\)).

Structure

The STRC is a specialised technical agency of the AU under the Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology. It is headed by an executive director.

African Scientific Research and Innovation Council (ASRIC)

The Statute of the African Scientific Research and Innovation Council (ASRIC) was adopted by the AU Assembly in January 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)). ASRIC's mandate will be to promote scientific research and innovation, and address the challenges of Africa's socio-economic development. The Statute provides for the AU Scientific, Technical and Research Commission (STRC) to be the ASRIC Secretariat.

Interim Director: Philippe Kuhutama Mawoko, DR Congo (appointed by the AUC)

Purpose

The purpose of the African Observatory of Science, Technology and Innovation (AOSTI) is to stimulate and promote the use of science and technology in supporting sustainable development in Africa. AOSTI is mandated to serve as the repository for science, technology and innovation (STI) data and to champion evidence-based STI policy-making in Africa.

AOSTI's role also includes: monitoring and evaluating the AU's STI policy implementation; supporting Member States to manage and use STI statistical information in accordance with the African Charter on Statistics; assisting Member States to map their STI capabilities to address economic, social, environmental and other development challenges; strengthening national capacities for STI policy formulation, evaluation and review, as well as technology foresight and prospecting; providing Member State decision-makers with up-to-date information on global scientific and technological trends; and promoting and strengthening regional and international cooperation in its areas of competence.

Evolution

AOSTI was established through AU Assembly decision 235(xii) of February 2009. In July 2010, the AUC and the Government of Equatorial Guinea signed a hosting agreement for AOSTI to be headquartered in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea. Assembly decision 452(XX) of January 2013 formally created AOSTI in Malabo.

Structure

AOSTI is a specialised technical agency of the AU under the Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology. It is headed by an interim director.

Council Vice-President: Paulo Horácio de Sequeira e Carvalho, Angola (elected by the PAU Executive Council; appointed by the AU Assembly in January 2015 for a three-year term)

Rector: to be appointed

Purpose

The Pan African University (PAU) is an umbrella educational structure designed to revitalise higher education and research in Africa by nurturing quality and exemplifying excellence. Its strategic vision focuses on technology, innovation, humanities, social sciences, governance and regional integration.

The PAU consists of a network of institutes and research centres hosted within existing universities, with the following thematic hubs located across the five geographic regions of Africa:

- Water and energy sciences, including climate change (North Africa, with the Abou Bêkr Belkaïd University of Tlemcen, Algeria, as host)
- Basic sciences, technology and innovation (East Africa, with the Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology, Kenya, as host)
- Life and earth sciences, including health and agriculture (West Africa, with the University of Ibadan, Nigeria, as host)
- Governance, humanities and social sciences (Central Africa, with the University of Yaoundé II, Cameroon, as host)
- Space sciences (Southern Africa, with a host university in South Africa yet to be identified).

Evolution

The AU Assembly approved the PAU concept in July 2011 (Assembly/AU/Dec.373\(XVII\)). This followed the Second Decade of Education for Africa 2006–15 (Assembly/AU/Dec.92\(VI\)), Consolidated Plan of Action for Science and Technology in Africa 2008–13 (Assembly/AU/Decl.5\(VIII\)) and a recommendation by the AU Conference of Ministers Responsible for Education (COMEDAF IV). PAU's Statute was adopted in January 2013 (Assembly/AU/451\(XX\)) and was revised in January 2016 in order to enhance the operations of the university (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)).

In January 2015, the AU Assembly designated Cameroon as the host country of PAU's Rectorate (Assembly/AU/Dec.552\(XXIV\)).

Structure

The revised PAU Statute provides that the major PAU organs are the:

- Council: the highest governing body comprising 33 members, whose President and Vice-President are elected by the AU Assembly, and all other members appointed by the Chairperson of the AUC, for three-year terms, renewable once

148

- Rectorate: headed by the PAU Rector (the PAU Chief Executive Officer), to be appointed by the Chairperson of the AUC for a non-renewable five-year term
- Senate: to be in charge of academic affairs, research and innovative activities
- Directorates of Institutes: headed by institute directors appointed by the Rector in consultation with the Council
- Boards of Institutes: to supervise, guide and support the Directorates in the management and administration of the Institutes.

The AU Assembly has the overall responsibility of overseeing the PAU. The AUC department working to support the PAU's establishment and operationalisation is the Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology.

Pan African Institute for Education for Development (IPED)/African Observatory for Education

BP 3580
Kinshasa/Gombi
DR Congo

Coordinator: Nazir Eltahir

Purpose

The Pan African Institute for Education for Development (IPED) is envisaged as a specialised institution of the AU charged with the responsibility to function as Africa's Education Observatory. Its role is to promote quality, responsive and inclusive education development in Africa by ensuring a robust and functional Education Management Information System (EMIS) and sound knowledge-based planning. This is achieved by working directly with AU Member States to strengthen their national EMIS by building capacities to collect, analyse and report on the data.

Evolution

At the AU Conference of Ministers Responsible for Education second Ordinary Session (COMEDAF II), held in April 2005 in Algiers, the AUC Chairperson called for a transformation of IPED into an African Education Observatory under the auspices of the AU.

Pan-African Intellectual Property Organisation (PAIPO)

Under Agenda 2063's First Ten-Year Implementation Plan, the Pan-African Intellectual Property Organisation (PAIPO) is scheduled to begin activities as a specialised agency of the AU in 2018 and be fully functional by 2023. Its Statute was adopted by the AU Assembly in January 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)), and will enter into force 30 days after 15 Member States have ratified it (article 24).

PAIPO will be responsible for promoting effective use of the intellectual property system as a tool for economic, cultural, social and technological development of the continent as well as setting intellectual property standards that reflect the needs of the AU, its Member States and RECs, the African Regional Intellectual Property Organisation (ARIPO) and the African Intellectual Property Organisation (OAPI) (Statute, article 3). Membership will be open to all AU Member States (article 5), and the Organisation will be based in Tunisia (article 8). The Organisation will be composed of a Conference of States Parties, Council of Ministers, Secretariat and Board of Appeal (article 9).

AU Space Working Group

The Space Working Group was established by African Conference of Ministers Responsible for Science and Technology (AMCOST) in 2010 to develop the AU Space Policy and Strategy for Africa. The Policy and Strategy were adopted by the AU Assembly in January 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)). Egypt has offered to host an African space agency. The Working Group comprises technical experts representing their Member States. It is supported by the AUC Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology.

President: Hany Eladawy, Egypt (elected by the AFCAC Plenary in December 2015)
Secretary-General: Iyabo Sosina, Nigeria (appointed in January 2013)

Purpose

The purpose of the African Civil Aviation Commission (AFCAC) includes coordinating civil aviation matters in Africa and cooperating with the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) and all other relevant bodies involved in the promotion and development of civil aviation in Africa. AFCAC provides Member States' civil aviation authorities with a framework for cooperation on civil aviation issues, and promotes coordination, better use and orderly development of African air transport systems. AFCAC's vision is to "foster a safe, secure, efficient, cost-effective, sustainable and environmentally friendly civil aviation industry in Africa".

Evolution

AFCAC was created by the Constitutional Conference, jointly convened by the ICAO and the OAU in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in 1964. It began functioning in 1969. AFCAC's Constitution was adopted by the OAU in 1969, and it became a specialised agency in 1978. The AU adopted revised constitutions in 2003 and 2009. The 2009 Constitution includes entrusting AFCAC with the functions of executing agency for implementation of the Yamoussoukro Decision (1999) on the liberalisation of air transport in Africa.

In January 2015, the AU Assembly declared it would ensure the establishment of a single African air transport market for African airlines by 1 January 2017 (Assembly/AU/Decl.1\(XXIV\)). The same declaration included accelerating ratification of the AFCAC Constitution; providing resources to AFCAC to carry out its activities as a specialised agency and as an executing agency of the Yamoussoukro Decision; and called on the UN Economic Commission for Africa, African Development Bank, European Union, World Bank and other development partners to support the implementation of a single African air transport market under the AU's Agenda 2063.

Structure

AFCAC is governed by a plenary meeting of all Member States. The AFCAC structure includes a bureau made up of a president, five vice-presidents (one for each geographical region) and the ICAO Council African Group Coordinator. The Secretariat is headed by a secretary-general. Further details can be found at www.afcac.org.

As of June 2016, 37 AU Member States have signed the 2009 AFCAC Constitution and six have ratified it (Burundi, Cabo Verde, Congo, Gabon, Madagascar and Sierra Leone). See www.au.int/en/treaties for the full list. The 2009 Constitution provisionally entered into force when 15 African states had signed it, and definitively enters into force when ratified by 15 African states.

Meetings

The AFCAC plenary meets in ordinary session once every three years. The 25th Ordinary Session was held from 8 to 10 December 2015 in Cairo, Egypt.

Secretary-General: Elijah Chingosho, Zimbabwe (appointed by the AFRAA General Assembly in November 2010)

Purpose

The African Airlines Association (AFRAA) is a trade organisation with membership open to African states' airlines. The objectives of AFRAA include to: facilitate the establishment of industry best practices in safety and security; manage and analyse aviation sector data; provide a platform for consensus building among member carriers; facilitate joint projects; support human capital development; interact with regulatory bodies; provide a knowledge-exchange forum; facilitate the development of environmental policies in keeping with industry best practices; and reflect a positive image of African airlines worldwide.

Evolution

AFRAA was established under the auspices of the OAU in April 1968 in Accra, Ghana.

Structure

AFRAA is governed by a general assembly composed of member airlines' chief executives, presided over by the Association's President. A 12-member executive committee, elected on a sub-regional basis, exercises executive authority. The Secretariat, headed by a secretary-general, provides administrative, coordination and research centre functions.

Meetings

The AFRAA general assembly meets annually. The 48th General Assembly was scheduled to be held in Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe, from 20 to 22 November 2016.

Secretary-General: Abdoukarim Soumaila, Niger (re-elected by the fourth ATU Conference of Plenipotentiaries in July 2014)

Purpose

The role of the African Telecommunications Union (ATU) is to promote the rapid development of information communications technology (ICT) in Africa in order to achieve universal service and access to broadband.

Evolution

The ATU was founded in 1977 as an OAU (now AU) specialised agency. It took its present name in 1999, and has become a partnership between public and private stakeholders in the ICT sector.

Structure

The ATU is governed by a Conference of Plenipotentiaries, which oversees the organisation in line with its Constitution and the Convention of the African Telecommunications Union, signed by Member States. The ATU is administered by a general secretariat comprising a secretary-general and statutory staff. The Administrative Council is the decision-making body, and meets once a year to guide the general management of the Union. It is composed of 21 geographically elected Member States.

The ATU, which is affiliated to the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), has 45 Member States and 33 associate members (comprising fixed and mobile telecom operators, suppliers and manufacturers).

Meetings

The ATU Conference of Plenipotentiaries is convened in ordinary session every four years, most recently in July 2014 in Harare, Zimbabwe. It also serves as a preparatory meeting to the International Telecommunication Union Plenipotentiary Conference, which is held every four years, most recently in October 2014.

Administrative Council Chairperson: Sudan¹

Secretary-General: Younouss Djibrine, Cameroon (elected by the Plenipotentiary Conference in July 2016 for a second four-year term)

Note

¹ The Administrative Council Chairperson role is filled by the appropriate minister or delegated representative responsible for the postal portfolio.

Purpose

PAPU is a specialised agency of the AU, with the role of spearheading the development of postal services in Africa. PAPU's objectives include: enabling the postal sector to become an essential component of the digital economy; sensitising African leaders to prioritise the postal section in national development plans; supporting the development of a regional 'universal service model'; and strengthening Africa's voice in global postal dialogues.

Evolution

PAPU was established as an OAU specialised agency at the OAU Summit in January 1980.

Structure

PAPU is governed by its Plenipotentiary Conference. An administrative council runs PAPU's affairs between sessions, with the support of administrative and technical committees. PAPU is administered by a secretariat based in Arusha, UR of Tanzania.

Meetings

The Plenipotentiary Conference meets in ordinary session every four years, most recently on 22 and 23 July 2016 in Yaoundé, Cameroon. The 2020 Conference is scheduled to be held in Harare, Zimbabwe. The most recent meeting of the Administrative Council was held from 18 to 20 July 2015 in Yaoundé, Cameroon.

Interim Executive Director: Atef Marzouk, Egypt (since July 2016)

Purpose

The African Energy Commission (AFREC) is an AUC technical agency. It is responsible for supporting the African energy sector's functions of developing and managing energy resources across Africa. AFREC's mandate is to promote cooperation, research and development on energy issues as well as supporting integration, harmonisation and resource mobilisation for energy programmes.

Evolution

AFREC was established by the Convention of the African Energy Commission, which was adopted by the July 2001 OAU Summit held in Lusaka, Zambia. The Convention entered into force on 13 December 2006. AFREC and its subsidiary, the African Electrotechnical Standardization Commission (AFSEC), were launched in February 2008. As of July 2016, 32 Member States have ratified the Convention (see www.au.int/en/treaties for the full list).

Structure

AFREC is open to all members of the AU. The Convention provides that the organs of AFREC shall be: the Conference of Ministers or Authorities responsible for energy as the highest authority; an executive board; a secretariat; and a technical advisory body.

Under the Convention, the Board should comprise 15 senior energy experts representing Member States, elected on the basis of rotating geographical representation and serving two-year terms, and a senior energy expert representing the AUC. The Board may also include an ex officio representative from each of the following organisations: Regional Economic Communities (RECs); Association of Power Utility for Africa (APUA); African Development Bank (AfDB); and the UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA).

The Technical Advisory Body should comprise the RECs, representatives of the AU/UNECA/ AfDB/UN agencies operating in the energy sector as well as relevant regional and sub-regional entities dealing with energy as the World Energy Council (WEC).

AFSEC operates as a subsidiary body of AFREC. Its objectives include promoting, developing and harmonising standards to improve access to electricity.

Meetings

The Constitution provides that the Conference should meet every two years. The most recent Conference of Energy Ministers of Africa (CEMA) was held in November 2014. The Specialised Technical Committee (STC) on Transport, Infrastructure, Energy and Tourism will take on CEMA's role with AFREC. The STC was scheduled to meet from 28 November to 2 December 2016, in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

African Commission on Nuclear Energy (AFCONE)

Pretoria
South Africa

Website: <http://afcone.peaceau.org/en/>
Email: Info.Afcone@africa-union.org

Chairperson: George Ochilo Ayacko Mbogo, Kenya (elected by the fifth Ordinary Session, held in May 2015)

Executive Secretary: Mohamed Derdour, Algeria

Purpose

The African Commission on Nuclear Energy (AFCONE) was established in November 2010, under article 12 of the African Nuclear Weapon-Free Zone Treaty (Treaty of Pelindaba), as a mechanism to ensure State Parties' compliance with their treaty obligations. AFCONE also works to promote and enhance the peaceful application of nuclear science and technology for socio-economic development, and to foster regional and international cooperation in the areas of peaceful applications, disarmament and non-proliferation.

The purpose of the African Nuclear Weapon-Free Zone Treaty is to prohibit the research, development, manufacture, stockpiling, acquisition, testing, possession, control or stationing of nuclear weapons, as well as the dumping of radioactive waste. As of August 2016, 40 Member States have ratified the Treaty (see www.au.int/en/treaties for the full list).

Structure

AFCONE comprises 12 State Parties that serve for three-year terms and report to the Conference of State Parties. Each of these 12 State Parties is represented by a commissioner with experience in the areas of nuclear science and technology, diplomacy and security. The 12 State Parties are elected by the Conference of State Parties with due regard to equitable regional representation and national development in nuclear science and technology. AFCONE is served by a secretariat based in Pretoria, South Africa, and headed by an executive secretary.

Meetings

AFCONE meets in annual ordinary sessions, while the Conference of States Parties meets at least once every two years. As of September 2016, AFCONE had convened in seven ordinary sessions and the Conference of State Parties in three ordinary sessions.

AFCONE members (May 2014–18)

Elected at the third Conference of State Parties held in May 2014.

African Minerals Development Centre

The main objectives of the African Minerals Development Centre will be to support AU Member States and their national and regional organisations to promote the transformative role of mineral resources in the development of the continent, and to ensure that Africa's interests and concerns in the mining sector are articulated and internalised throughout the continent for the benefit and prosperity of all. The Centre's Statute was adopted by the AU Assembly in January 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)).

PO Box 30786-00100
Nairobi
Kenya

Tel: +254 20 367 4000 or 367 4212
Fax: +254 20 367 4341 or 367 4342
Email: communications@au-ibar.org or ibar.office@au-ibar.org
Website: www.au-ibar.org

Director: Ahmed Abdou Ali El Sawalhy, Egypt

Purpose

The role of the Inter-African Bureau for Animal Resources (IBAR) is to develop and coordinate animal resources for human wellbeing and economic development in Africa. IBAR's mandate covers all aspects of animal resources, including livestock, fisheries and wildlife. Its focus includes the development and promotion of common African positions within the global animal resources arena. IBAR also facilitates animal resources-based trade within Africa through harmonisation of policies and regulations amongst AU Member States.

Evolution

IBAR was originally established as the Inter-African Bureau of Epizootic Diseases (IBED) in 1951 to study the epidemiology of rinderpest (also known as cattle plague) and begin the fight against it. The organisation's name was later changed to reflect its broader mandate.

Structure

IBAR is a specialised technical office of the AUC, and so is governed through the organs of the Commission. It is headed by a director who reports directly to the Commission through the Department of Rural Economy and Agriculture (DREA). Since 2003, oversight has also been provided by a steering committee comprising representatives from the AUC; Scientific, Technical and Research Commission (STRC); Regional Economic Communities (RECs); independent technical experts; and donor organisations (as observers). The Steering Committee Chair is elected by the members to serve for two years. In addition to the Steering Committee, a 'Client Group' consisting of AU Member States' directors of animal resources is used as a mechanism for strategic programme reviews and planning.

Meetings

African ministers responsible for animal resources were meeting every three years to approve IBAR's programmes, and now meet under the Specialised Technical Committee (STC) on Agriculture, Rural Development, Water and Environment structure. The STC first met in October 2015 and is scheduled to meet in ordinary session every two years. The IBAR Client Group meets every two years.

Inter-African Phytosanitary Council (IAPSC)

Email: au-cpi@au-appo.org or tenkeuc@africa-union.org (Communications)
Director: Jean-Gerard Mezui M'Ella, Gabon

Purpose

The Inter-African Phytosanitary Council (IAPSC) is a resource and information centre for phytosanitary and plant protection activities in Africa aimed at improving human livelihoods, food and feed security and rural economies. The Council's role is to coordinate the exchange of information amongst African countries about plant health and to ensure an effective control system to combat organisms harmful to plants and plant products.

Evolution

IAPSC evolved from the Inter-African Phytosanitary Commission, which was created in 1956 in line with a Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) recommendation for regional plant protection organisations to be established across the globe. The Commission was based in London and became part of the Technical Cooperation Committee in Africa (TCCA) in 1960. In 1965, the Commission became a part of the Scientific, Technical and Research Commission (STRC) and its activities were extended to cover all African Member States. The Commission's offices were transferred from London to Yaoundé, Cameroon, in 1967 following a Host Agreement between the OAU and the Government of Cameroon. The Commission became the Inter-African Phytosanitary Council in April 1969, fully managed by the OAU Secretariat and Member States.

Structure

The IAPSC General Assembly is the Council's supreme organ. It is made up of AU Member State plant protection organisations and defines IAPSC's major guidelines. A steering committee, comprising members of the Regional Economic Communities (RECs), meets annually to provide further guidance. The Steering Committee permanent members can co-opt relevant organisations onto the Committee. IAPSC is supported by a directorate.

Meetings

The General Assembly meets once every two years, most recently in June 2014 in Douala, Cameroon. The Steering Committee meets annually, most recently in June 2015 in Accra, Ghana.

Semi-Arid Food Grain Research and Development (SAFGRAD)

Email: ElMekassA@africa-union.org or SayahE@africa-union.org

Website: www.ua-safgrad.org

Coordinator: Ahmed Elmekass, Egypt

Purpose

SAFGRAD's role is to lead activities on resilience of rural livelihoods in semi-arid Africa. Its vision is to accelerate growth of agriculture by promoting productive-friendly technologies and by building institutional capacity. It focuses on agricultural research, technology transfer, policy development and information dissemination to rural communities.

Evolution

African Heads of State and Government created the SAFGRAD project in 1977 to respond to recurrent droughts, the virtual lack of appropriate and economically feasible technologies to improve agricultural production in semi-arid agro-ecosystems, and the 1970s food security crisis. SAFGRAD became operational two years later. The October 2010 Conference of African Ministers of Agriculture, held in Lilongwe, Malawi, requested SAFGRAD to work on access to and management of land and water, production, productivity, technology and innovation, interaction of climate change and desertification, market opportunities, policies and institutions; and to lead formulation of programmes to improve livelihoods in semi-arid Africa. SAFGRAD was officially launched as a specialised technical office of the AUC in March 2014.

Structure

As a specialised technical office, SAFGRAD is governed through the organs of the AUC. It is headed by a coordinator who reports directly to the Commission through the Department of Rural Economy and Agriculture (DREA).

Website: www.au-panvac.org

Facebook: www.facebook.com/AUPANVAC

Director: Nwankpa Nick, Nigeria

Purpose

The Pan African Veterinary Vaccine Centre's (PANVAC's) role is to coordinate AU Member States' efforts in controlling and eradicating animal diseases. PANVAC's mandate is to promote the availability of safe, effective and affordable veterinary vaccines and diagnostic reagents; facilitate the development and introduction of improved or new vaccines; and strengthen Africa's capacity in building veterinary vaccine development, production and quality assurance.

Evolution

PANVAC was first established in 1986 in two locations: Senegal and Ethiopia. The two centres were merged in 1993. In view of the importance of livestock production to the African economy, in February 1998, the OAU Council of Ministers decided to elevate PANVAC to the status of an OAU specialised agency. In December 2004, the AU Executive Council approved the structure of PANVAC as a regional technical centre under the Department of Rural Economy and Agriculture (DREA).

Structure

PANVAC is a specialised technical regional office of the AUC, and so is governed through the organs of the Commission. It is headed by a director who reports directly to the Commission through DREA. PANVAC was designated as a World Organisation for Animal Health (OIE) reference laboratory in quality control of veterinary vaccines.

Meetings

PANVAC holds a Pan-African meeting of directors of vaccine-producing laboratories every two years, most recently in August 2016 in Antananarivo, Madagascar. It also holds a steering committee meeting every two years, most recently in November 2015.

Coordinator: Gift Wanda

Purpose

PATTEC's role is to initiate and coordinate tsetse and trypanosomiasis (T&T) eradication campaign activities. This includes creating T&T-free areas in affected countries and ensuring those areas are managed sustainably, equitably and economically.

Evolution

PATTEC was established following the adoption of decision AHG/Dec.156(XXXVI) by African Heads of State and Government during the July 2000 OAU Summit held in Lomé, Togo. The PATTEC coordination office was established in 2002.

Structure

PATTEC is a specialised technical office of the AUC, and so is governed through the organs of the Commission. It is headed by a coordinator who reports directly to the AUC through the Department of Rural Economy and Agriculture (DREA). PATTEC works with national and regional focal points and is supported by international organisations, research and higher learning institutions and other partners, as well as its regional and national coordination offices that are responsible for planning, coordinating, monitoring and evaluating projects and mobilising resources. PATTEC's activities are overseen by a steering committee composed of international, regional and national experts in the tsetse, trypanosomiasis and rural development fields. PATTEC is also supported by technical advisory forums, including the International Scientific Council for Research and Control of Trypanosomiasis (ISCTRC), composed of representatives of relevant international and regional organisations and other stakeholders.

Meetings

PATTEC's coordinators/focal points and its Steering and Mobilisation Committee meet annually, most recently scheduled for October 2016 in Nairobi, Kenya. A PATTEC workshop on documentation of lessons learned in the implementation of the multinational project for the creation of sustainable T&T-free areas in East and West Africa was held in August 2016 in Debre Zeit, Ethiopia.

Fouta Djallon Highlands Programme AU Coordination Office

Conakry
Guinea

Tel: +251 11 551 7700 Ext. 2863
(AUC Ethiopia)
Email: DamphaA@africa-union.org

Coordinator: Almami Dampha, Gambia

Purpose

The Fouta Djallon Coordination Office leads the work of the Regional Programme for the Integrated Development of the Fouta Djallon Highlands (RPID-FDH). It works with stakeholders, including AU Member States, to raise awareness of and protect the natural resources and environment in the Fouta Highlands, Guinea. The Office also aims to improve the livelihoods of African people.

Evolution

The Fouta Djallon Highlands Programme was originally initiated and implemented in 1981. Programme Member States are Gambia, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Mali, Mauritania, Niger, Senegal and Sierra Leone, all of which have signed the Declaration of the International Character of the Fouta Djallon Highlands. The Programme is also supported by international donors.

Structure

The Office is a specialised technical office of the AUC. It is headed by a coordinator who reports directly to the Commission through the Department of Rural Economy and Agriculture (DREA). The Fouta Djallon Highlands Integrated Natural Resources Management Project, which was developed in collaboration with the UN Environment Programme (UNEP) and UN Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), became operational in July 2009.

ARC Agency Governing Board Chair: Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala, Nigeria (AUC Chairperson's appointee; three-year-term ending December 2016, renewable for one additional three-year term)

Director-General: Mohamed Beavogui, Guinea (appointed in January 2015 by the third ARC Agency Conference of the Parties)

Purpose

The African Risk Capacity (ARC) is a specialised agency providing extreme weather insurance to help Member States resist and recover from natural disasters (Assembly/AU/Dec.417\(XIX\)). The ARC is an AU-led financial entity. It uses advanced satellite weather surveillance and software to estimate and trigger readily available funds linked to peer-reviewed contingency plans, to assist African countries hit by severe drought and related hazards. In late 2013, the ARC established a financial affiliate, the ARC Insurance Company Limited (ARC Ltd), as a specialist hybrid mutual insurance company. The ARC Insurance Company is a sovereign-level mutual insurance company that provides coverage to governments. At the request of African Ministers of Finance, the agency is also developing an insurance product for outbreaks and epidemics, as well as the Extreme Climate Facility (XCF) for climate adaptation finance.

Evolution

The ARC was endorsed by the AU Assembly at its July 2012 Summit. It was established as a legal entity at a conference of plenipotentiaries in November 2012, after 18 AU Member States signed the ARC Establishment Agreement.

Structure

Under article 14 of the ARC Establishment Agreement, an eight-member governing board oversees the ARC's operations. Board members are elected and appointed on the basis of their technical expertise. The Director-General leads the Secretariat, which also comprises management, technical and government outreach teams. Both the Governing Board and the Secretariat report to the Conference of the Parties, which is the agency's supreme organ and is composed of the ARC Establishment Agreement signatories.

As of August 2016, 32 AU Member States have signed the ARC Establishment Agreement and two have ratified it. (See www.au.int/en/treaties for the full list.)

Chairperson: Joseph Nzambamwita, Rwanda (2016–17; rotates between host countries according to annual conference location)

Executive Secretary: Shimeles Woldesemyiat, Ethiopia (elected by the CISSA Conference in August 2014)

Purpose

CISSA is a continent-wide forum for multilateral cooperation on intelligence and security matters. Its main purpose is to assist the AU and its institutions to effectively address security challenges confronting Africa. CISSA was conceived as a mechanism to facilitate dialogue, analysis, knowledge sharing, coordination and adoption of common strategies among intelligence and security organisations in Africa. Fifty-one African states are members.

CISSA was established by the heads of African intelligence and security services in August 2004 in Abuja, Nigeria, and endorsed at the January 2005 AU Summit (Assembly/AU/Dec.62\(IV\)). The same Assembly decision provides that CISSA communicates with the AU through the AUC's Intelligence and Security Committee, located in the Office of the Chairperson of the Commission. In August 2015, the AUC and CISSA Chairpersons signed a memorandum of understanding to strengthen the relationship between the two entities.

Structure

CISSA has three permanent bodies: the Conference, comprising heads of intelligence and security services who meet annually under a chairperson; Panel of Experts, comprising representatives from each CISSA Member State who prepare for Conference meetings; and a secretariat based in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and staffed, on the principle of equitable regional representation, by officers recruited from CISSA member intelligence and security services. The Secretariat is headed by an executive secretary elected by the Conference for a five-year term.

Meetings

Heads of African intelligence and security services most recently met at the 13th Ordinary Session of the CISSA Conference held from 3 to 6 August 2016, in Kigali, Rwanda. The 14th Ordinary Session is scheduled to be held in Abuja, Nigeria, in 2017.

Special Representative of the African Union Chairperson for Counter-Terrorism Cooperation, Director of the ACSRT: Larry Gbevlo-Lartey, Ghana (appointed by the Chairperson of the Commission in March 2016)

Purpose

The African Centre for the Study and Research on Terrorism's (ACSRT's) mandate is to build the AU's capacity to prevent and combat terrorism, with the ultimate aim of eliminating the threat posed by terrorism to peace, security, stability and development in Africa.

The Centre's role also includes conducting research on terrorism; developing strategic policy and operational and training mechanisms within the context of international and African legal instruments; establishing a database on terrorism; disseminating information, studies, developments and analysis on terrorism in Africa; developing early warning capabilities; running training programmes; liaising with AU Member States and international partner focal points; and ensuring the role of a monitoring and early warning tool by incorporating into its approach the concept of preventive management of crises.

Evolution

ACSRT was inaugurated on 13 October 2004 as a structure of the AUC, in conformity with the Protocol to the OAU Convention on the Prevention and Combating of Terrorism (1999), with headquarters in Algiers, Algeria. The establishment of ACSRT is as constituted under section H, paragraphs 19 to 21, of the AU Plan of Action on the Prevention and Combating of Terrorism and in line with decisions adopted by the AU Assembly and Executive Council (see Assembly/AU/Dec.15\(II\) of July 2003 and EX.CL/Dec.13\(II\) of March 2003, EX/CL/Dec.82\(IV\) of March 2004 and EX.CL/Dec.126\(V\) of June–July 2004).

Structure

The ACSRT is an agency of the AUC, and so is governed through the organs of the Commission. It is headed by a director who reports to the Chairperson of the Commission through the Commissioner for Peace and Security. The Centre is considered part of the Peace and Security Department of the AU Commission. The Director is assisted by an advisory council composed of a representative from each of the five AU regions, each of the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and from the focal points of the Centre. Members are selected through consultation with Member States and the RECs. AUC representatives also sit within the Council. The Advisory Council reviews and/or evaluates ACSRT activities, programmes and financial and administrative matters.

Director: to be appointed

Purpose

The Africa Centres for Disease Control and Prevention (Africa CDC) is a new AU specialised technical institution. Its Statute charges it with the responsibility to promote the prevention and control of diseases in Africa. Strategic objectives are to:

- Establish early warning and response and surveillance platforms to address health emergencies
- Support public health emergency preparedness and response
- Assist Member States, in collaboration with the World Health Organization (WHO) and other stakeholders, to address gaps in compliance with the International Health Regulations²
- Support and/or conduct regional- and country-level hazard mapping and risk assessments
- Support Member States in health emergency responses, particularly those declared a public health emergency of international concern (PHEIC), as well as in health promotion and disease prevention
- Promote partnership and collaboration among Member States to address emerging and endemic diseases and public health emergencies
- Harmonise disease control and prevention policies and surveillance systems in Member States
- Support Member States in public health capacity building.

Evolution

The January 2015 AU Assembly endorsed the establishment of the Africa CDC (Assembly/AU/Dec.554\(XXIV\)). This followed deliberations at ministerial and Heads of State and Government level, beginning at the 2013 AU Special Summit on HIV and AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria, which called for the Africa CDC to be established. A multinational planning task force was established in 2014, comprising 16 Member States and also stakeholders including the WHO, United States CDC, European CDC, China CDC and the Pan-American Health Organization (PAHO). The January 2016 AU Assembly formally endorsed the Africa CDC Statute and its Framework of Operation (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)). The first Governing Board meeting was held in May 2016, and endorsed Egypt, Gabon, Kenya, Nigeria and Zambia as the five Regional Collaborating Centres (RCCs) to support the Africa CDC.

Structure

The Africa CDC Statute, articles 8–21, provides for the following structure:

Note

- ² The International Health Regulations are an international legal instrument that is binding on 196 countries, including all the 194 WHO Member States. Their aim is to help the international community prevent and respond to acute public health risks that have the potential to cross borders and threaten people worldwide.

- Governing Board: a 15-member deliberative organ, answerable to the Specialised Technical Committee (STC) on Health, Population and Drug Control. The Board composition and terms are shown in the list of members. The Board elects a chairperson and vice-chairperson from its Minister of Health members.
- Advisory and Technical Council: a 23-member council comprising five representatives of the RCCs, five from national public health institutes or laboratories or related institutions, five representatives of Member State health ministry national focal persons, two from African health networks, two from AU specialised and technical offices and institutions (Medical Services and the Inter-African Bureau for Animal Resources (IBAR), one from regional health organisations, two WHO representatives, and one World Organisation for Animal Health (OIE) representative. Members serve non-renewable three-year rotating terms where applicable. A chairperson and vice-chairperson are elected for non-renewable two-year terms.
- Secretariat: headed by a director appointed by the AUC, on approval by the Board, for a four-year term renewable once. The Director also serves as the Board and Council Secretary.

The Secretariat, based in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, is also known as the Coordination Centre and includes the African Surveillance and Response Unit (ASRU). This Unit will provide technical expertise and response coordination during emergencies, including event-based surveillance (EBS) and emergency operational centres (EOCs), depending on the need. Programme activities will be carried out primarily through the five RCCs. Field epidemiologists will be among the technical staff supporting the RCCs and the Coordination Centre, and will be responsible for disease surveillance, investigations, analysis, and reporting trends and anomalies. Nine African epidemiologists completed induction training in May 2016.

Governing Board Members: selected in 2016

Ministers of Health (10, two from each region)

Selected by their regions, or failing that, by the Working Group on Health; five for non-renewable three-year terms and five for non-renewable two-year terms.

Email: celhto@africa-union.org

Website: www.celhto.org (French)

Coordinator: Tublu Komi N'kégbé Fogâ, Togo (appointed in February 2014)

Purpose

CELHTO seeks to contribute to Africa's integration and development by providing analysis on African history, societies and culture to the AU system. Its main mandate is to work for recovery of the continent's autonomy from external cultural visions, affirming a cultural identity that enables integration and development. The Centre aims to undertake linguistic, historical and sociological studies of African communities; produce and preserve written, audio, photographic and audio-visual records of oral traditions; and ensure popular approaches to the economic, political and socio-cultural integration of Africa.

Evolution

CELHTO is the successor to the Centre for Research and Documentation for Oral Tradition (CRDTO), which was originally established in 1968 on the recommendation of the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). CRDTO became CELHTO when it was integrated into the OAU in 1974. The evolution of the OAU into the AU led CELHTO to broaden its scope.

Structure

CELHTO is a specialised technical agency of the AUC, and so is governed by the organs of the AU. It also works closely with universities, social science centres of research and civil society organisations. CELHTO is headed by a coordinator who reports to the Director of Social Affairs.

Executive Secretary (Acting): Lang Fafa Dampha (since September 2015)

Purpose

ACALAN's role is to foster the integration and development of the continent by promoting the use of African languages. Its overall objectives are to:

- Promote and develop the use of African languages in general and vehicular cross-border languages in particular, in partnership with the former colonial languages
- Promote a convivial, functional multilingualism at every level, especially in the education sector
- Ensure the development of African languages as factors of integration and development.

Evolution

ACALAN was established by the AU Assembly at its January 2006 Summit in Khartoum, Sudan (Assembly/AU/Dec.95\(VI\)).

Structure

ACALAN is a specialised technical agency of the AUC, and so is governed by the organs of the AU. Under chapter II, article 6 of its Statutes, ACALAN has five organs: the AU Specialised Technical Committee (STC) on Youth, Culture and Sports, which is its supreme organ; the Governing Board, its highest policy organ; Scientific and Technical Committee, its advisory organ; Assembly of Academicians, also an advisory organ; and the Executive Secretariat, its administrative organ. ACALAN's working structures are the National Language Structures in each AU Member State and the Vehicular Cross-Border Language Commissions, one for each vehicular cross-border language.

Meetings

The ACALAN Governing Board most recently met from 18 to 19 June 2015 in Bamako, Mali. A meeting of its Scientific and Technical Committee was scheduled to be held in September 2016 in Bamako instead of a Board meeting.

African Union Sports Council (AUSC)

The role of the African Union Sports Council (AUSC) will be to foster sport for development and peace, including responsibility for the African Games, which have been owned by the AU since 2012. The Council is composed of AU Member States, AU sport development regions, the Association of National Olympic Committees of Africa (ANOCA), Association of African Sports Confederations (AASC) and other continental sports bodies.

The AUSC was established under the aegis of the AU in accordance with Executive Council decision 680\(XX\) of January 2012 regarding the new African Sport Architecture. The AUSC is a specialised technical office with headquarters in Yaoundé, Cameroon. Its Statute was adopted by the AU Assembly in January 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)). The Council replaces the Supreme Council for Sport in Africa (SCSA), which was established in December 1966 as an OAU specialised agency for the coordination of sports in Africa, including combating colonialism and apartheid.

African Audiovisual and Cinema Commission

The Statute of the African Audiovisual and Cinema Commission (AACC) was adopted by the AU Assembly in January 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.589\(XXVI\)). The Statute provides for the AACC to be an AU specialised agency responsible for promotion of rapid development of the African audiovisual and cinema industry.

The African Union Foundation was established to receive financial donations from the private sector, individuals and organisations within Africa and globally. Its goals include connecting people, ideas and resources for Africa's development; advocating for the AU and supporting its programmes; and facilitating implementation of priority development programmes.

The AU Assembly decided in May 2013 to establish the Foundation following a proposal by the High-Level Panel on Alternative Sources of Financing the African Union (Assembly/AU/Dec. 487\(XXI\)). The Foundation was launched on 30 January 2015 during the Assembly's 24th Ordinary Session.

The Foundation is governed by a council, which is made up of Africans from various sectors and regions of the continent, as well as representatives from the African Diaspora.

PARTNERSHIPS WITH THE AU

PARTNERSHIPS WITH THE AU

United Nations

United Nations Cooperation Agreement

Partnership between the AU and UN was formalised in a Cooperation Agreement between the OAU and UN in 1990. In November 2006, the Chairperson of the AUC and the Secretary-General of the UN signed the Declaration 'Enhancing UN–AU Cooperation: Framework for the ten-year capacity building programme for the African Union' (TYCBP–AU). The Framework, which was due to expire in December 2016, provided for extensive areas of cooperation including: economic and regional integration; peace and security (including crime prevention); assistance in institution building and political and electoral matters; peacekeeping operations; governance, human rights and the rule of law; peacebuilding; humanitarian response, recovery and food security; social, cultural and health issues; and the environment. (See www.un.org/en/documents, document A/61/630.)

As of August 2016, a framework for a Renewed UN–AU Partnership on Africa's Integration and Development Agenda (PAIDA) 2017–27 had been developed, aligned to the AU's Agenda 2063 and the UN's Agenda 2030 as well as integrating other major socio-economic development frameworks.

Under-Secretary-General and Executive Secretary: Carlos Lopes, Guinea-Bissau (appointed by the UN Secretary-General in September 2012)

Purpose

The UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) is the regional arm of the UN in Africa. It was established by the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) in 1958 as one of the UN's five regional commissions (ECOSOC res. 671A (XXV) (1958)). UNECA's mandate is to support the economic and social development of its Member States, foster regional integration and promote international cooperation for Africa's development.

UNECA's work programme focuses on two areas: promoting regional integration in support of the AU's vision and priorities; and meeting Africa's special needs and emerging global challenges. It also provides technical advisory services to AU governments, inter-governmental organisations and institutions.

UNECA's work is organised around seven substantive programme clusters: macro-economic policy; social development; regional integration and trade; natural resource management; innovation and technology; gender; and governance.

Structure

UNECA is headquartered in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. It coordinates with the AU through its Partnerships Office and the Joint Secretariat Support Office of UNECA, the AUC and African Development Bank (AfDB). UNECA has five sub-regional offices, one each in central, eastern, north, southern and west Africa.

Meetings

UNECA sessions are held annually. From 2008 to 2014, sessions were held jointly with the AU Conference of Ministers Responsible for Economy and Finance, and since 2015 with the AU Specialised Technical Committee on Finance, Monetary Affairs, Economic Planning and Integration.¹

Membership

The geographical scope of UNECA's work is the continent and islands of Africa. Membership is open to members of the UN in this region and to any state in the area that may become a member of the UN in the future. Under its terms of reference, UNECA may invite UN Member States to participate in its work in a consultative capacity. Switzerland participates in a consultative capacity by virtue of ECOSOC res. 925 (XXXIV) (1962).

United Nations Office to the African Union (UNOAU)

While most UN agencies, funds and programmes have been present in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, for some time, a dedicated UN Office to the African Union (UNOAU) was established in July 2010 to streamline the UN secretariat presence with the existing offices: Department of Political Affairs (DPA) Liaison Office, Department of Peacekeeping Operations (DPKO) AU Peace Support Team and the Department of Field Support (DFS) Planning Team for Somalia to support the AU Mission in Somalia (AMISOM).

The focus of the Office is to enhance the strategic partnership of both organisations on peace and security issues and to provide coordinated and consistent UN advice to the AU on short-term operational and planning matters and long-term capacity building. The main areas of UN–AU collaboration include: conflict analysis and prevention; mediation support; strengthening capacities in deploying and managing peace operations; and strengthening UN Security Council and AU Peace and Security Council relations.

Haile Menkerios, South Africa, was appointed by the UN Secretary-General in May 2013 as head of the Office and Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General to the African Union.

President: Akinwumi Adesina, Nigeria (elected by the Board of Governors in May 2015; took office 1 September 2015 for a five-year term)

Purpose

The African Development Bank (AfDB) Group is a multilateral development finance institution. Its overall objective is to support African countries' economic development and social progress by promoting investment of public and private capital in projects and programmes designed to reduce poverty and improve living conditions.

The AfDB is required to give special attention to national and multinational projects and programmes that promote regional integration. It also plays a leading role in the New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD) initiative, which aims to reduce the gaps that exist between Africa and the developed world, and is one of the key actors supporting negotiations for establishment of the proposed African Continental Free Trade Area (CFTA).

The AfDB Group comprises the following three distinct entities under one management.

African Development Bank (AfDB)

The AfDB is the parent institution. It was established in 1963 by the then 23 newly independent African states. The agreement establishing the AfDB was drawn up under the auspices of the UN Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) and entered into force in 1964 (see www.treaties.un.org, Status of Treaties Chapter X, Agreement establishing the African Development Bank). The Bank began operations in 1966. The AfDB provides non-concessional loans to regional Member States as well as policy advice and technical assistance to support development efforts.

African Development Fund (ADF)

The ADF was established in 1972 and became operational in 1974. It makes concessional loans and grants to regional Member States, with a primary focus on poverty reduction.

Nigeria Trust Fund (NTF)

The Government of Nigeria set up the NTF in 1976. It makes semi-concessional loans to regional member countries.

Membership and governance

With the exception of Sahrawi Republic, all AU Member States are shareholders of the AfDB. Morocco and 27 non-African states (listed as follows) are also shareholders. Article 3 of the AfDB Agreement, which provides for any independent African state to become a member, also makes provision for membership from outside the continent and islands of Africa.

The Board of Governors is the Bank's supreme organ and mostly comprises Member State Governments' Ministers of Finance and Economy. It issues general directives concerning the Bank's operational policies.

The Board of Directors comprises 20 members holding the title of executive director. The Board of Governors elects the Directors for three-year terms, renewable once. Regional members have 13 directors while states outside the region have seven.

The Board of Governors elects the President for a five-year term, renewable once. The President acts as the Bank's Chief Executive and conducts its business, as well as being its legal representative.

Website: www.africa50.com

Chief Executive Officer: Alain Ebobissé, Cameroon (since August 2016)

Chairperson: Akinwumi Adesina, Nigeria (appointed in October 2015)

Africa50 is a new public–private investment bank for infrastructure development in Africa that will focus on high-impact national and regional projects in the energy, transport, information communications technology (ICT) and water sectors. It was proposed by the African Development Bank (AfDB) in response to the Declaration of African Heads of State and Government in 2012 on the Programme for Infrastructure Development in Africa (PIDA),² which included resolving to promote innovative financing mechanisms (Assembly/AU/Dec.413\(XVIII\)). The bank was launched in July 2015, and began operating in 2016.

Africa50 is owned by 22 African countries, the AfDB and two African central banks (the Bank Al Maghrib of Morocco and the Central Bank of West African States (BCEAO)). The top five shareholders are: Congo, Morocco, Egypt, AfDB and Cameroon.

Other Partnerships

The following list covers external partnerships where there are formal agreements between the AU and a partner organisation, region or country.

Africa–League of Arab States

Website: www.au.int/en/partnerships/afro_arab

Formal relations between Africa and the Arab World were launched at the first Africa–Arab Summit held in Cairo, Egypt, in March 1977. Cooperation was further consolidated at the second Africa–Arab Summit held in Sirte, Libya, in October 2010. The Libya Summit adopted the Africa–Arab Partnership Strategy and the Joint Africa–Arab Action Plan 2011–16 as well as issuing a declaration summarising common positions on major regional and international issues. The Partnership Strategy outlines four main areas of cooperation: political; economic, trade and financial; agriculture and food security; and socio-cultural. The Joint Action Plan translates the Strategy into concrete programmes. The Strategy also elaborates implementation follow-up mechanisms, which include the Africa–Arab Summit, Joint Africa–Arab Council of Ministers of Foreign Affairs and the Coordination Committee on Africa–Arab Partnership at ministerial and senior official levels. The Partnership's core structures as set out in the Strategy are a standing commission, working groups and specialised panels, coordinating committee, ad hoc court and Commission of Conciliation and Arbitration.

The Joint Africa–Arab Heads of State and Government Summit is scheduled to be held every three years, with ministerial-level meetings every 18 months. The Coordination Committee meets annually at ministerial level and every six months at senior official level. As of September 2016, three Africa–Arab joint summits had been held, most recently on 19 and 20 November 2013 in Kuwait. The 2013 Summit reviewed implementation of the Strategy and Joint Action Plan and issued a declaration and various resolutions giving directions for further cooperation. The fourth Summit was scheduled for November 2016 in Equatorial Guinea.

Africa–European Union (EU) Partnership

Website: http://au.int/en/partnerships/africa_eu or www.africa-eu-partnership.org

The Africa–EU Partnership began with the first Africa–EU Summit, which was held in 2000 in Cairo, Egypt. As of September 2016, four summits have been held, most recently in April 2014 in Brussels, Belgium, with the fifth scheduled for 2017. The Partnership's stated vision is to: reinforce political relations; strengthen and promote issues of common concern; promote effective multilateralism; and promote people-centred partnerships. Activities are based on the Joint Africa–Europe Strategy, which was adopted by Heads of State and Government at the 2007 Summit, and the Joint Road Map 2014–17, which was adopted at the April 2014 Summit. Partnership mechanisms operate at a range of levels including Heads of State summits, ministerial meetings and other meetings, such as civil society, private sector and parliamentarians.

Africa–South America (ASA) Summit

Website: www.au.int/en/partnerships/africa_southamerica

The first ASA Summit was held in November 2006 in Abuja, Nigeria. As of September 2016, three summits have been held, most recently in February 2013 in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea. The fourth Summit was scheduled to be held in Quito, Ecuador, in May 2016, but was postponed until 2017. The Summit's mandate is to facilitate the development of trade and industry for both regions, including through sharing best practices in priority thematic areas.

The Summit is also a forum for dialogue on peace and security, democracy, governance and social justice. The ASA Summit's core structures include a coordination group, ad hoc committee, senior and high officials, ministerial meetings and the Assembly.

Africa–United States

Website: http://au.int/en/partnerships/au_usa

The AU and United States of America (USA) signed an assistance agreement in August 2010. The Agreement formalised cooperation on issues including peace and security, democracy and governance, economic growth, trade and investment, and opportunity and development. The USA and AU held an inaugural high-level meeting in 2010 as a platform to bring together cabinet-level officials. The first Africa–USA Summit was convened by President Barack Obama and held in August 2014 in Washington, DC, under the theme “Invest in the future”. In addition, the African Growth Opportunity Act (AGOA) is a trade programme allowing eligible sub-Saharan countries to export duty-free goods to the USA. In June 2015, the USA approved a 10-year extension of AGOA.

China–Africa Cooperation Forum (FOCAC)

Website: www.au.int/en/partnerships/africa_china or www.focac.org/eng

The China–Africa Cooperation Forum (FOCAC) is a ministerial-level platform for consultation and dialogue between China and African states. It was inaugurated in October 2000 in Beijing, China. In addition to the AU and Morocco, the AUC is a full member of the FOCAC process. The Forum is mandated to strengthen consultation, expand cooperation and promote political dialogue and economic cooperation between China and African states. FOCAC conferences are held every three years, alternating between China and an African country. FOCAC has held six ministerial sessions since the inaugural meeting in Beijing, most recently in December 2015 in Johannesburg, South Africa. A Heads of State and Government Summit was also held at the same time and agreed a 2016–18 Plan of Action. The seventh FOCAC ministerial conference is scheduled for 2018 in Beijing.

Tokyo International Conference on African Development (TICAD)

Website: www.mofa.go.jp/region/africa/ticad/index.html

Africa–Japan cooperation was formalised in 1993 on the initiative of the Government of Japan, with the objective of promoting high-level political dialogue and mobilising support for African development initiatives. TICAD has met at Heads of State and Government level every five years, and in June 2013 agreed to meet every three years. TICAD-VI was held in August 2016 in Nairobi, Kenya, the first time the Conference had been held in Africa. The AUC became a full partner of the TICAD process in 2010. TICAD is overseen by a follow-up mechanism, which comprises a three-tier structure of a joint secretariat, joint monitoring committee and follow-up meetings. Each TICAD meeting approves an action plan with specific actions to be undertaken. The TICAD process has five stakeholders, called co-organisers, the Government of Japan, AUC, UN Office of the Special Adviser on Africa (UNOSAA), UN Development Programme (UNDP) and the World Bank.

Africa–India

Website: au.int/en/partnerships/africa_india

The Africa–India Cooperation Agreement was launched by a leaders’ summit in April 2008 in New Delhi, India. The Summit adopted two documents: the Delhi Declaration and an Africa–India Framework for Cooperation. A second summit was held on 25 May 2011 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and a third in October 2015 in New Delhi, India. The first four-year Africa–India Plan of Action (2010–13) was launched in New Delhi in March 2010. The second plan, the Plan of Action of the Enhanced Framework for the Cooperation of the Second Africa–India Forum Summit (AIFS II), was adopted in Addis Ababa during the second Summit and signed in New Delhi, India, on 4 September 2013. The third Africa–India Forum Summit also adopted two documents, the Delhi Declaration and the Third Africa–India Framework for Cooperation, which covers cooperation in the areas of economic matters, trade and industry, agriculture, energy, blue ocean economy, infrastructure, education and skill development, health and peace and security. The 2015 Delhi Summit adopted the Framework for Strategic Partnership.

Africa–Turkey

Website: www.au.int/en/partnerships/africa_turkey or www.mfa.gov.tr/turkey-africa-relations.en.mfa

The Africa–Turkey Partnership was formalised in April 2008 at the Istanbul Summit. The 2008 Summit adopted two outcome documents, the Istanbul Declaration and the Framework for Cooperation, which set out the areas of cooperation between the two parties. The Framework focuses on: inter-governmental cooperation; trade and investment; agriculture, agribusiness, rural development, water resources management and small- and medium-scale enterprises; health; peace and security; infrastructure, energy and transport; culture, tourism and education; media, information communications technology; and environment. An implementation plan for 2010–14 was adopted in 2010, and, in 2014, a joint implementation plan was adopted for 2015–19. The second Africa–Turkey Summit took place in November 2014 in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea, and adopted three outcome documents, the Malabo Declaration, Joint Implementation Plan, and the Matrix of Key Priority Projects. Following the Malabo Summit, senior officials met in Ankara, Turkey, in March 2015 to follow up on the 2014–19 Joint Implementation Plan, which was adopted in 2014. The next Summit is scheduled to be held in Turkey in 2019.

Africa–Korea

The Africa–Korea Forum was established at the first ministerial-level Africa–Korea Forum, which was held in November 2006 in Seoul, Republic of Korea. Since then, the Forum has been held every three years, most recently in October 2012 in Seoul, and with a meeting scheduled to be held in December 2016 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The Ministerial Forum meets to discuss major economic development issues. Meetings include academics and the business sector from both sides of the partnership. A consultative group manages the partnership. It is composed of African Development Bank executive directors, senior African and Republic of Korea Government officials and the Export–Import Bank of Korea. A secretariat is drawn from the same bodies.

BUDGET AND SCALE OF ASSESSMENT

BUDGET AND SCALE OF ASSESSMENT

Budget

Process

The AUC's Directorate of Programming, Budget, Finance and Accounting prepares the budget annually for financial years starting 1 January and ending 31 December. The Chairperson of the Commission acts as Chief Accounting Officer to the AU. The budget and related matters are considered by the Permanent Representatives Committee (PRC) and its relevant sub-committees, and recommendations are made to the Assembly through the Executive Council.

Budget

In July 2016, the Executive Council approved a total budget for 2017 of (in US dollars) $782,108,049, of which $488,525,786 is for operating costs and $293,582,263 for programmes. A total of $205,149,538 is assessed to Member States and $576,958,511 to be raised from international partners (EX.CL/Dec.919\(XXIX\)).

The 2016 estimated budget was $416,867,326 (excluding the AU Mission in Somalia (AMISOM) budget). Of the $416,867,326, $150,503,875 was for operating costs and $266,363,451 for programmes. A total of $169,833,340 was assessed to Member States and $247,033,986 to come from international partners (Assembly/AU/Dec. 577\(XXV\)), leaving a funding gap in the programme budget of $149,266,824. The AUC was authorised to solicit an additional $70,552,314 from programme partners.

Financing the AU

Assembly decision 605\(XXVII\) of 17 to 18 July 2016 included:

- Reaffirming decision 578\(XXV\) of June 2015, which included targets for Member States to finance 100 percent of the AU operational budget, 75 percent of the programme budget and 25 percent of the peace support operations budget, phased in over five years from January 2016
- Instituting and implementing a 0.2 percent levy on all eligible imported goods into the continent to finance the AU operational, programme and peace support operations budgets starting from 2017
- Endowing the Peace Fund with $325 million from the levy in 2017, raised in equal contributions from each of the five AU regions ($65 million each), rising to $400 million in 2020.

Scale of Assessment

In July 2016, the AU Assembly reaffirmed its June 2015 decision to adopt a new scale of assessment for the 2016, 2017 and 2018 financial years (Assembly/AU/Dec.605\(XXVII\) and Assembly/AU/Dec.578\(XXV\) respectively). The decisions set a three-tier system:

- Tier 1: all countries with a gross domestic product (GDP) annual growth above 4 percent
- Tier 2: all countries with a GDP annual growth above 1 percent but below 4 percent
- Tier 3: all countries with a GDP annual growth from 1 percent and below.

The following table shows the scale of assessment for 2016, 2017 and 2018, and the dollar figures for 2016 (Assembly/AU/Dec.602\(XXVI\) of January 2016).

Notes

2 Some dollar figures may not add up to totals because of rounding of numbers.

3 Chad, Côte d'Ivoire, Ethiopia and Kenya increased their assessed contributions to the figures shown (Assembly/AU/Dec.602(XXVI) of January 2016).

4 In relation to non-payment of assessed contributions, the AU Executive Council decided in January 2016 to grant a temporary exemption from sanctions to Libya until the beginning of the 2017 financial year; maintain sanctions on the Central African Republic (CAR) for non-payment and accumulated arrears since the 2011 financial year; impose sanctions on the São Tomé and Príncipe for non-payment of arrears for the previous two financial years; and maintain the temporary exemption granted to Madagascar as long as it continued to honour its obligations in line with the agreed plan (EX.CL/Dec.899(XXVIII)Rev.2).

INSPIRED by the noble ideals which guided the founding fathers of our Continental Organization and generations of Pan-Africanists in their determination to promote unity, solidarity, cohesion and cooperation among the peoples of Africa and African States;

CONSIDERING the principles and objectives stated in the Charter of the Organization of African Unity and the Treaty establishing the African Economic Community;

RECALLING the heroic struggles waged by our peoples and our countries for political independence, human dignity and economic emancipation;

CONSIDERING that since its inception, the Organization of African Unity has played a determining and invaluable role in the liberation of the continent, the affirmation of a common identity and the process of attainment of the unity of our continent and has provided a unique framework for our collective action in Africa and in our relations with the rest of the world.

DETERMINED to take up the multifaceted challenges that confront our continent and peoples in the light of the social, economic and political changes taking place in the world;

CONVINCED of the need to accelerate the process of implementing the Treaty establishing the African Economic Community in order to promote the socio-economic development of Africa and to face more effectively the challenges posed by globalization;

GUIDED by our common vision of a united and strong Africa and by the need to build a partnership between governments and all segments of civil society, in particular women, youth and the private sector, in order to strengthen solidarity and cohesion among our peoples;

CONSCIOUS of the fact that the scourge of conflicts in Africa constitutes a major impediment to the socio-economic development of the continent and of the need to promote peace, security and stability as a prerequisite for the implementation of our development and integration agenda;

DETERMINED to promote and protect human and peoples' rights, consolidate democratic institutions and culture, and to ensure good governance and the rule of law;

FURTHER DETERMINED to take all necessary measures to strengthen our common institutions and provide them with the necessary powers and resources to enable them discharge their respective mandates effectively;

RECALLING the Declaration which we adopted at the Fourth Extraordinary Session of our Assembly in Sirte, the Great Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, on 9.9.99, in which we decided to establish an African Union, in conformity with the ultimate objectives of the Charter of our Continental Organization and the Treaty establishing the African Economic Community;

2. The functions, powers, composition and organization of the Economic, Social and Cultural Council shall be determined by the Assembly.

Article 23: Imposition of Sanctions

1. The Assembly shall determine the appropriate sanctions to be imposed on any Member State that defaults in the payment of its contributions to the budget of the Union in the following manner: denial of the right to speak at meetings, to vote, to present candidates for any position or post within the Union or to benefit from any activity or commitments, therefrom;
2. Furthermore, any Member State that fails to comply with the decisions and policies of the Union may be subjected to other sanctions, such as the denial of transport and communications links with other Member States, and other measures of a political and economic nature to be determined by the Assembly.

Article 24: The Headquarters of the Union

1. The Headquarters of the Union shall be in Addis Ababa in the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia.
2. There may be established such other offices of the Union as the Assembly may, on the recommendation of the Executive Council, determine.

Article 25: Working Languages

The working languages of the Union and all its institutions shall be, if possible, African languages, Arabic, English, French and Portuguese.

Article 26: Interpretation

The Court shall be seized with matters of interpretation arising from the application or implementation of this Act. Pending its establishment, such matters shall be submitted to the Assembly of the Union, which shall decide by a two-thirds majority.

Article 27: Signature, Ratification and Accession

1. This Act shall be open to signature, ratification and accession by the Member States of the OAU in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures.
2. The instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the OAU.
3. Any Member State of the OAU acceding to this Act after its entry into force shall deposit the instrument of accession with the Chairman of the Commission.

Article 28: Entry into Force

This Act shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the deposit of the instruments of ratification by two-thirds of the Member States of the OAU.

Article 29: Admission to Membership

1. Any African State may, at any time after the entry into force of this Act, notify the Chairman of the Commission of its intention to accede to this Act and to be admitted as a member of the Union.
2. The Chairman of the Commission shall, upon receipt of such notification, transmit copies thereof to all Member States. Admission shall be decided by a simple majority of the Member States. The decision of each Member State shall be transmitted to the Chairman of the Commission who shall, upon receipt of the required number of votes, communicate the decision to the State concerned.

Article 30: Suspension

Governments which shall come to power through unconstitutional means shall not be allowed to participate in the activities of the Union.

Article 31: Cessation of Membership

1. Any State which desires to renounce its membership shall forward a written notification to the Chairman of the Commission, who shall inform Member States thereof. At the end of one year from the date of such notification, if not withdrawn, the Act shall cease to apply with respect to the renouncing State, which shall thereby cease to belong to the Union.
2. During the period of one year referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, any Member State wishing to withdraw from the Union shall comply with the provisions of this Act and shall be bound to discharge its obligations under this Act up to the date of its withdrawal.

Article 32: Amendment and Revision

1. Any Member State may submit proposals for the amendment or revision of this Act.
2. Proposals for amendment or revision shall be submitted to the Chairman of the Commission who shall transmit same to Member States within thirty (30) days of receipt thereof.
3. The Assembly, upon the advice of the Executive Council, shall examine these proposals within a period of one year following notification of Member States, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article;
4. Amendments or revisions shall be adopted by the Assembly by consensus or, failing which, by a two-thirds majority and submitted for ratification by all Member States in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures. They shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the deposit of the instruments of ratification with the Chairman of the Commission by a two-thirds majority of the Member States.

Article 33: Transitional Arrangements and Final Provisions

1. This Act shall replace the Charter of the Organization of African Unity. However, the Charter shall remain operative for a transitional period of one year or such further period as may be determined by the Assembly, following the entry into force of the Act, for the purpose of enabling the OAU/AEC to undertake the necessary measures regarding the devolution of its assets and liabilities to the Union and all matters relating thereto.
2. The provisions of this Act shall take precedence over and supersede any inconsistent or contrary provisions of the Treaty establishing the African Economic Community.
3. Upon the entry into force of this Act, all necessary measures shall be undertaken to implement its provisions and to ensure the establishment of the organs provided for under the Act in accordance with any directives or decisions which may be adopted in this regard by the Parties thereto within the transitional period stipulated above.
4. Pending the establishment of the Commission, the OAU General Secretariat shall be the interim Secretariat of the Union.
5. This Act, drawn up in four (4) original texts in the Arabic, English, French and Portuguese languages, all four (4) being equally authentic, shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the OAU and, after its entry into force, with the Chairman of the Commission who shall transmit a certified true copy of the Act to the Government of each signatory State. The Secretary-General of the OAU and the Chairman of the Commission shall notify all signatory States of the dates of the deposit of the instruments of ratification or accession and shall upon entry into force of this Act register the same with the Secretariat of the United Nations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, WE have adopted this Act.

Done at Lomé, Togo, this 11th day of July, 2000.

New Zealand is proud to continue its partnership with the African Union Commission to produce the African Union Handbook. This is the fourth edition of the book, and confirms the valuable role the book plays in providing information on the African Union and its work.

New Zealand is a strong supporter of the African Union and its Member States. The African Union Handbook is a collaborative effort drawing on our combined knowledge and experience. It is a practical tool to assist Member States, staff of the Commission and others who follow the work of the Union.

We send our warmest wishes the African Union and its Member States for 2017.

Hon Murray McCully
